WAR, AT BEST IS STILL "HELL"

DECLARES MAHON, AND HE CITES HISTORY FOR THE PROOF.

Armies of Civil War Compared With that in Philippines, in House Debate.

MONEY PAID BY WOOD TO BE ACCOUNTED FOR

Washington, June 23.—The house met at 11 o'clock today. Some routine business preceded the resumption of the debate upon the Philippine civil government bill. Bills were passed:

To authorize the secretary of war to issue duplicates of certificates of discharge instead of certified copies as provided under the present law.

To authorize the secretary of the treasury to bestow medals upon First Lieutenant David D. Garver, Second Lieutenant E. B. Berthoff and Surgeon S. J. Call, of the revenue cutter service.

A resolution was adopted calling upon the secretary of war for information as to any payments made by Governor-General Wood to F. B. Thurber and any other person or corporations, together with the dates and amounts of such payments for advocating reciprocity with Cuba.

The consideration of the Philippine civil government bill was then resumed and Mr. DeArmond of Missouri made a general speech in opposition to the policy of retaining the islands. He repudiated utterly the charge that the opposition to the present Philippine policy is in criticism of some of the acts of army officers in the Philippines who were slandering and assaulting the army.

Mr. DeArmond agreed with Mr. Kahn that the surrender of the territory north of Washington on the Pacific had been a mistake but he pointed out that that territory was contiguous to our border and was capable of furnishing homes for our own citizens and eventually coming into the union as a state while the Philippine islands already densely populated by an alien people could never be incorporated into the union. The democratic party, he declared, was not opposed to expansion founded upon American principles. Expansion upon the American continent, north or south, he said, was the democratic idea of expansion, not holding by subjugation 10,000,000 people 7,000 miles beyond our border.

In conclusion, Mr. DeArmond told of his presence in Havana May 20, when the American flag was lowered and the flag of the republic of Cuba hoisted. To him as an American citizen, he said the sight was inspiring, "far more inspiring," he continued, "than if the American flag had remained 'put' in Cuba and the faith of the American people violated."

Mr. Olstead of Pennsylvania, a member of the insular committee, followed Mr. DeArmond. He summed up the situation in these words:

"The bill proposed by the minority means a complete renunciation by the United States of the duties and responsibilities which in the providence of God have been cast upon us. It means that we shall be degraded and disgraced in the eyes of all the world. It means something that the American people will never tolerate. On the other hand; the bill which we present and propose to pass maintains the honor and dignity of the American people, enables us to carry out our own treaty obligations, to maintain peace and good order in the Philippines and to be more instrumental and effective in maintaining peace throughout the world. At the same time it enables the Filipinos to participate as fully as possible in the blessings of our republican form of government, it gives to them more independence of action, more of self-government, and more of liberty than they have ever enjoyed or ever expected to achieve. It is all that they demand and when we have passed it, the constant offering of 'Bargains' requires the purchase of CHEAPEST TRASHIEST goods. J. H. Law don't supply such, but his porters are busy delivering, all the same.

then, in the language of the prophet Isaiah: "Let them give glory unto the Lord and declare his praise in the islands."

The debate on the bill took on a turn of comparison between the conduct of the army in the islands and the conduct of the armies of the civil war. Grosvenor and Mahon revived recollections of Grant's order to Sheridan, "To make the Shenandoah valley a barren waste," arresting all men under 50 years; and brought to light, from the "Life and Letters of Stonewall Jackson," by his wife, that that officer, which he said Lee endorsed, raised a black flag against the invading northern forces.

Mahon read from the official report of the committee on the conduct of Confederate prisons, which the committee declared to be without parallel in history and previously inconceivable, to show that war, even when waged by educated, civilized, Christian people is "hell." At the night session there was a further discussion of the bill. Fou made an anti-trust speech.

STREET CAR ACCIDENT YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

At 3:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon a collision occurred between two street cars on Haywood street at the intersection of French Broad avenue. There were several cars on the line, bound for Riverside park, each car being loaded to its utmost capacity. Car No. 9 stopped very suddenly to take on a passenger. Car No. 7, which was closely following at a good rate of speed, bumped with terrific force into the standing car.

Several passengers were thrown violently against the pavement, none receiving serious injuries. Mrs. S. J. Shipping of 199 Park avenue received a fracture of the thumb on the right hand and had her left ear and one limb badly bruised. Mrs. Shipping did not regain entire consciousness until she had reached the office of Dr. Glenn, who attended to her injuries.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Logan was bruised on the head but in no way seriously hurt. Several others were more or less slightly bruised.

Conductor Cook was running the car at the time of the mishap. He made every attempt to check the speed but the down grade and the short distance between the cars made the accident unavoidable under the circumstances.

CLEVELAND HAS GONE TO BUZZARD'S BAY

Princeton, June 23.—Mr. Cleveland, with his wife and children left this afternoon for their summer residence at Buzzard's Bay. ## BRYAN IS AFTER CLEVELAND AGAIN

HE "FLAYS" THE "HARMONY MEETING" IN THE COMMONER.

Says Cleveland Stabbed Party to Prevent Its Return to Paths of Virtue.

CLEVELANDISM MEANS PLUTOCRACY

Lincoln, June 23.—Bryan, in the Commoner, flays the "harmony meeting" at the Tilden club in New York. He says it was an ovation to Cleveland. He declared there can be no harmony between men like him and those who believe in democratic principles. He refers to Cleveland's attitude and says he is not only defiant but insisted that party success could only be secured by a return to his ideas.

Bryan asserts that the re-organizers do not want harmony, but control and a return to the policies and practices of Cleveland's second administration. He reviews this administration and says Cleveland, having debauched the party, he was offended by its efforts to reform and gave comfort to the enemy. He adds: "Virginius killed his daughter to save her chastity. Cleveland stabbed his party to prevent its return to the paths of virtue."

He closes by declaring the fight is on between a democracy that means democracy and Clevelandism, which means plutocracy, and says every speech made by Cleveland shows the odiousness of the policies for which he stands. He says democrats have more to fear from those who like Hill endorse Cleveland's views, but conceal their real purpose in ambiguous language.

carriages and guards of honor and were escorted to the official residences assigned to them. Consequently plenty of entertainment was provided for the crowds of sight-seers filling the streets. A big throng took the opportunity of greeting the king and queen on their entry into the capital and the semi-state procession to Buckingham palace, accompanied by Prince and Princess Charles of Denmark, their majesties reached Paddington at 12:30 p. m., and proceeded in semi-state landaus, drawn by four horses with postillions, preceded by out-riders and attended by an escort of the royal dragoon guards, along the route usually followed by the late Queen Victoria. The thoroughfares were thickly lined with people and the enthusiasm of the spectators evidenced their delight at the ocular proof of the recovery of the king from his recent indisposition. Vigorous police precautions were taken at the railroad station, but the public managed to invade the bridges crossing the track and the arrival of the royal train was greeted with cheers. The king lost no time in alighting and after chatting with the railroad officials entered a carriage. He appeared to be in his usual health. He walked perhaps somewhat heavily, but showed few symptoms of his recent illness. The majesties reached Buckingham palace shortly before 1 o'clock. They received the same hearty welcome from the thousands of people who were congregated in the avenues leading to the royal residence as greeted them throughout the entire route from the station.

May Hang After 20 Years' Freedom

Raleigh, June 23.—Twenty years ago Dan Gould, a negro, was sentenced to be hanged in this state, but a short while before the day appointed for the execution he broke jail and made his escape. This was in 1882 and nothing had ever been heard from him until this week, when a negro supposed to be this condemned murderer, was arrested in Georgetown, S. C., and will be brought to Wadesboro. If this negro proves to be Gould then the governor will only have to fix another date for the execution, 20 years having intervened.

NEWS OF STRIKES IN MANY FIELDS

SEVENTH WEEK OF ANTHRACITE COAL MINERS' STRIKE BEGINS VERY QUIETLY.

Cumberland, Md., June 23.—There was a rumor last night that the West Virginia Central miners would strike today, but the men turned out to work this morning as usual. About 4,000 miners are employed along the line of the West Virginia Central.

New York, June 23.—Chief Murphy, of Jersey City, arranged to have 200 policemen on guard this morning about the six mile mills in the Hudson City section of Jersey City.

Paterson, N. J., June 23.—Although many of the silk mills were open at the usual hour today, it was estimated that less than one-third of the regular number of employees reported for work. A meeting of strikers is to be held today, but it is not expected any definite action will be taken until the decision of the bosses as to the holding of a conference with the strikers has been held. Details of infantry and cavalry were on duty at the mills today. Although there were large crowds in the vicinity of the mills, there was no disturbance of any kind in the early part of the day.

Toronto, Ont., June 23.—The street railway company made no attempt to run its cars this morning. About 1600 militiamen arrived this morning and are quartered at the armories. After a prolonged conference between officials of the company and board of trade committee, Manager Keating, of the street railway company, said: "There is a possibility of a settlement. That is all I can say."

Business Agent MacDonald, for the men, stated that after a conference of twelve hours with the officers of the company the question of wages and recognition of the union had been satisfactorily settled.

New York, June 23.—In accordance with the decision of mill owners, reached on Friday last, all the silk plants in Hudson county, N. J., opened for business today. At only one mill, however, that of R. & H. Simon, in (Continued on 4th page.)
