HENDERSONVILLE

Hendersonville, June 24.—W. C. Rector has returned from Marshall, where he has been on business for the past few days.

Mrs. W. H. McGlamery has returned home after a few days visit to home folks at Hayesville.

Marshall Collins and his wife are here from Charlotte visiting the parents of Mrs. Collins.

Capt. M. C. Toms has been appointed by the governor a delegate to the International Mining congress to be held in Butte, Mont., September 1, 1902.

The North Carolina Press association meets in this city tomorrow and the next day. Several editors have already arrived.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Taylor of Johnson City, Tenn., are here on a visit and are staying at the home of Mr. T. M. Smith.

The democratic county convention which was called to meet here Saturday last for the purpose of electing delegates to the state, congressional and senatorial conventions, met in the court house at the appointed hour, but some of the precincts were not represented in the meeting, and it was decided that the better course would be to hold another convention on July 5th, and try to have all precincts represented. The meeting, however, which consisted of about 100 democrats, heard a resolution recommending that Judge Walter Clark be promoted to the position of chief justice, and after the same was discussed at some length by different persons, a vote thereon was taken, and 20 out of about 100 present voted in favor of the resolution, and the meeting adjourned without electing any delegates to any of the conventions.

A QUARTET OF MINISTERS

Rev. Herman Arthur Goff has returned to his pastoral work near Asheville after an absence of several weeks in New York City.

Mr. Goff is a member of the quartet which sang in the meetings of the assembly and in the great home mission meeting in Carnegie Hall, and his many friends will be glad to know something of this unique musical organization. It is called Tennessee Synodical Quartette and is composed of: First tenor, Rev. Jno. S. Eakin of Jonesboro, Tenn.; second tenor, Rev. John Baxter Creswell of Bearden, Tenn.; first bass, Rev. John Grant Newman of Maryville, Tenn.; second bass, Rev. Herman Arthur Goff of Asheville, N. C.

The following extract from a letter in a daily paper of late date, tells the story:

"The Tennessee Synodical quartet swept everything before them.

"At the climax of the centennial celebration of home missions, when President Roosevelt presided and made an address to the assembly in Carnegie hall, notwithstanding the fact that men of national reputation were to speak and the program was very long the quartet was encored and brought to the side of the president again, and that vast house was held in speechless and almost breathless silence until the last echoes of these southland singers had died away. They were invited to sing in several of the New York churches on the following Sabbaths.

"On Sabbath, May 25, our correspondent accompanied the quartet and heard them sing in five different churches. Wherever they went they were received with the warmest enthusiasm.

WAYNESVILLE

Special to the Gazette.

Waynesville, June 24.—The Royal Arcanum picnic at the Springs yesterday was well attended. Hon. R. D. Gilmer delivered a polished and interesting address, after which a sumptuous repast was served. The Springs lawn is a beautiful place for such a gathering and the day was cool and pleasant. A game of ball was played near the picnic grounds. Drs. Abel and Stringfield and a number of former baseball cranks engaged in the game. Among the country people present were: Prof. O. V. Parker and Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Jones of Clyde; Mrs. Laura A. Coran and daughter, Miss Maggie Ellen, of Tuscola; Dr. J. R. and Theodore McCracken, J. E. Walker and W. D. McCracken of Crabtree; M. S. Kinsland, A. J. Garner and Ira Mann of Sonoma. Quite a number of people from other points were here, including Dr. and Mrs. H. N. Wells of Whittier; Bud Poindexter of Asheville, and Hon. J. H. Cathey of Sylvia. Mr. Cathey still wants to run for the state senate and was here to investigate his political fences. As the picnic was held near the home of Major W. W. Stringfield, who also wants the nomination, these two gentlemen came in close contact. Each seems confident as to final results.

CELEBRATION AT HOMINY CREEK

Correspondence of the Gazette.

Candler, June 24.—The Odd Fellows and Masons had a great day at Hominy creek. The crowd began to gather early in the day and they came in the great throngs. The Canton band was early on the ground and gave us excellent music.

Rev. N. G. Maloney, Dr. Bergin McBrayer and Rev. Mr. Taylor delivered excellent addresses on the work of the fraternities. After these speeches a long dinner table was spread in the grove by the creek for the benefit of all who were present. The good ladies had to take off many basket-fuls after all had eaten enough.

State Attorney General R. D. Gilmer of Waynesville addressed the people on Masonry at two o'clock p. m. Gen. Gilmer handled his subject with a master's hand. He held the people spell-bound for more than thirty minutes when a rain storm broke up the meeting. Zeb F. Curtis was called out and he nobly attempted to respond, but the rain interfered before he fairly commenced.

With all the day was a pleasant one for all who were present. The candidates were much in evidence and had a good day.

It costs more to be stingy than it does to be charitable.

FEED THEM.

One Way to Make Lawyers.

You can dig up the lawyers and put them on their feet if you feed them right, but they are like other people, they don't thrive on poorly selected food.

A lawyer from Seneca Falls, New York, says: "When I went into a law office I was in fine health having had much out-door exercise, but at the end of the second month's study and work I was disheartened to find myself in poor health and failing every day.

After reading a short time I would become so nervous that I would be compelled to stop nor could I remember, to any extent, what I read.

The study of law, which at first was a great pleasure, became a burden, and a first-class physician told me that I never would be able to serve a full term in a law office, and advised me to give it up if I wanted to enjoy life. When upon the point of going so I was talking one day with one of the firm who advised me to make a change in food and recommended very highly your Grape-Nuts, saying I could get a package at any grocery and make a test.

The advice impressed me so strongly that I at once purchased and began using Grape-Nuts. I found that after using this food I was not troubled with the lingering pain in my stomach that had been with me for some time; instead I was perfectly comfortable, and I had not eaten the food for more than four or five days when I become clear again and I began to enjoy my studies as well as I did on the start, and could accomplish more in one week from that time on than I had in a whole month prior to that time.

My blood, which had naturally become bad, presently improved, my digestion also was better. The blotches on my face began to disappear and I felt better in every way.

I owe much to Grape-Nuts. Would rather you would not use my name, but if it will do you any good, use it. Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Look for free recipe book in each package of Grape-Nuts.

WASHINGTON GOSSIP

Special to the Gazette.

Washington, June 24.—Unless some obstacle at present unforeseen interposes, it is the judgment of the leaders in the house and senate that adjournment of congress can be reached between the 1st and 4th of July. The only subject of legislation which causes concern is the Philippine bill. There is a difference of opinion between the house and senate as to the terms of this measure, and it is possible that democrats of the senate may prolong the debate upon final agreement.

Inasmuch as the passage of the bill is inevitable, however, the senate leaders hope that the democratic debate will be minimized, and that the report of the conference committee shaping the differences of opinion between the two houses can be pushed to speedy adoption.

No serious obstruction of the isthmian canal bill is expected. An element in congress is entirely willing, if it should find it has the power, to prevent perfected legislation upon this subject. This element is endeavoring to stir up trouble between the house and senate, but the best judgment is that it will not be successful, and that the Panama bill will be adopted. The attitude of the democrats in the house has not been permanently agreed upon, but it is the judgment of some of the democratic leaders that in the circumstances it will be best, as a political move to accept the senate bill and put the responsibility of securing the canal upon the republican administration and party.

It has been determined that no reciprocity treaty with Cuba can be submitted at the present session of congress. It was at first planned that, in the event of the failure of the administration managers in the senate to secure favorable action on the Cuban sugar bill, a treaty would be drafted at once. This was on the understanding that Senor Quesada, the Cuban minister here, had full powers and that a treaty could be drawn in Washington entirely. It is stated now, however, that this cannot be, and any draft of a treaty must go to Havana and be returned before it can be submitted to the Senate. Therefore, unless all estimates are astray as to the date of adjournment of the present session of congress, it is a physical impossibility to prepare and submit a treaty at the present session. President Roosevelt left here on his Harvard trip this afternoon at 4:50 o'clock. The accompanying party consisted only of Secretary Cortesou, Dr. Urie, and two or three others.

Wednesday will be spent at Harvard and at midnight the trip to New London will be begun. Arriving there at 7 a. m., Thursday, a launch will be taken from the Dolphin, from which President Roosevelt will witness the Yale-Harvard varsity race.

Immediately after the contests the president will proceed to Oyster Bay, where he will spend Friday, and will return to the white house Saturday.

There was some talk today of the possibility of friction in the senate over the bill admitting the territories to statehood. Senator Quay has been very much in favor of passing these bills, but the senate leaders have been opposed to action. There were mutterings today of a possible revolt of some of the western senators against the dictum of the leaders, but nothing definite has been decided upon, it is believed.

The officials at the war department ridicule the statements made by Rathbone that he did not receive a fair trial in Cuba. It is positively denied, and in the most emphatic manner, too, that the penal code of Cuba was violated in any manner during Rathbone's trial.

In response to the thanks of congress, recently conveyed to him by Senator Foraker and Representative Grosvenor, for the oration on President McKinley, Secretary Hay has sent a letter of acknowledgement, stating: "Appreciating profoundly the honor done me by both houses of congress in inviting me to address them, and afterward in passing the generous vote of thanks which you have so courteously conveyed to me, I enclose in accordance with your request a copy of my address on the life and service of President McKinley."

The secretary's responsive letter is plainly but handsomely engrossed.
