INJUNCTION WILL BE DISREGARDED

UNION OFFICIALS WILL PAY NO ATTENTION TO JUDGE KELLER'S ORDER.

Secretary Wilson Comments on Release of Hungarians Sentenced by Judge Jackson.

HARD COAL SUPPLY WILL BE SOON EXHAUSTED

EXPECTED WHAT IS ON HAND WILL NOT LAST LONGER THAN THE MIDDLE OF SEPTEMBER—RAILROADS HOLDING THEIR SUPPLIES.

Indianapolis, July 29.—Secretary Wilson says that although Hungarians imprisoned by Federal Judge Jackson in West Virginia were released when the Hungarian consul at Washington protested, the Americans still remain in jail.

"This should make us proud to be American citizens," was Wilson's comment. The union officials declare the injunction issued by Judge Keller of West Virginia, to prevent the organization from distributing supplies will not be recognized.

Philadelphia, July 29.—It is stated on reliable authority that the supply of anthracite coal in the hands of railroads and dealers here, will at the present rate of consumption, probably be exhausted by the middle of September. The report that the railroads are turning over to the retailer supplies they have been holding in reserve since the inauguration of the strike, is said not to be true. In only one important case, it was stated, that of the roads released the coal held by them in May, all of the others retaining what they have for their own purposes. In the case of the Pennsylvania that road has not such need for what little it has retained, as it could use its soft coal. This was the reason in turning a quantity of anthracite over to some of its trade the past week.

Shenandoah, Pa., July 29.—Thomas Tosh of this city, a coal and iron policeman in charge of a camp of special mine guards, was attacked by strikers today and compelled to seek the shelter of his home. The strikers say Tosh has been active in attempting to induce mine workers to return to the collieries. Last night a workman, name unknown, was severely beaten by a mob. He was rescued and taken to the station house for safety.

29, 1900, by Gaetano Bresci, an anarchist, was observed today by commemorative services throughout the kingdom. Rome was the center of the observances, there being hundreds of visitors here, on a pilgrimage to the tomb of the dead monarch in the Pantheon. There were music and religious services and the delegations filed past the vault containing the remains of King Humbert and there deposited magnificent wreaths in the name of the various provinces of Italy and of civil, military and labor organizations.

DISASTROUS FIRE IN PITTSBURG YESTERDAY

SIX FIREMEN WERE INJURED—$300,000 PROPERTY LOSS SUSTAINED.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 29.—Six firemen injured, two eight-story buildings almost completely destroyed, a number of others slightly damaged and a property loss estimated at $300,000 is the result of a fire today on Liberty street, which raged fiercely for seven hours.

About 1:30 o'clock this morning flames were discovered issuing from the building at 919 Liberty street, occupied by the De Noon Brothers' Paint & Varnish company. Owing to the combustible nature of the stock, the fire spread rapidly and soon the adjoining building occupied by Stewart Brothers, dealers in rubber goods, was also on fire. As the fire spread there were frequent explosions and about 2 o'clock, when the flames appeared to be subsiding to the efforts of the firemen, there was an explosion that shook the building and shot the flames far out over Liberty street. Five firemen were caught and badly burned about the hands and scorched about the face. They were at once taken to the Homeopathic hospital and later removed to their homes. The injuries are not regarded as serious. The origin of the fire has not been determined. The loss is about two-thirds covered by insurance.

ROAD FROM CONCORD TO FAYETTEVILLE

COMPANY INCORPORATED—CROP CONDITIONS—CHARGED WITH INCENDIARISM.

Raleigh, July 29.—Insurance Commissioner Young went to Windsor this morning upon receipt of a telegram informing him that C. E. Collins, a merchant, had been arrested for burning his store. The business place of Collins was burned down in March and he received $1000 insurance. Now a man named Harrell declares he saw Collins remove goods from the store before the fire broke out.

Drought prevails over a large part of the state, according to the weekly crop bulletin. There have been showers in many localities, but no general rains. Tobacco, corn and cotton have deteriorated during the week.

The North Carolina Central railroad was incorporated today, with authority to build a railroad from Fayetteville to Concord, a distance of 150 miles. The capital stock is $2,000,000.

FURIOUS PERFORMANCE OF AN INSULTED WOMAN

St. Louis, July 29.—Miss Kathleen Smith, a stenographer, four weeks ago received an insulting telephone message from an unknown man. She learned the message was sent from a saloon and she invaded the place a day or two later and horsewhipped the bartender. Today she learned the guilty sender was James Smith. She promptly hunted him up and lashed him several times in the face with a Mexican quirk, drawing blood at every blow. She then struck him violently on the head with a loaded piece of garden hose, knocking Smith down. She was following up the assaults on the prostrate man when bystanders pulled her off.

FOUR MEN INJURED IN A SUBWAY EXPLOSION

New York, July 29.—As the result of a premature blast in the Rapid Transit subway of Park Avenue at Forty-first street today, four men were seriously hurt, two of whom it is thought will die. This is the unlucky section of the tunnel in which a number of accidents have occurred. In the last previous one, May 14, in sales, one of the contractors, received injuries which resulted in his death some days later.

PULLIAM CASE IS NOW ON TRIAL

MOTION TO QUASH THE SECOND INDICTMENT OVER- RULED.

Forfeiture of $80 Against Dr. C. S. Jordan for Non-Attendance Ordered.

EFFORT TO ATTACK FIRST GRAND JURY

VALIDITY OF SECOND BILL OF INDICTMENT ATTACKED ON GROUND THAT A JUROR HAD FAILED TO PAY HIS TAXES.

Judge Boyd having arrived on an early train the special term of the Federal Circuit court yesterday began the transaction of business under circumstances somewhat out of the ordinary. The old court attendant has on the first day of any session of the Federal court been accustomed to see the court room crowded with mountaineers who were suspected of having made mountain dew by the light of the shining moon. Yesterday it was different. The Lawrence Pulliam embezzlement case was the order of the day and a very fine looking body of men were there to hear what the evidence brought forth. In fact, the great cloud of witnesses summoned by the defense alone constitutes a very fine body of men, representing, as they do, the professional and business life of the city.

In response to a query from the court Judge Charles A. Moore expressed the opinion that at least three days would be consumed in the examination of the witnesses his client would introduce. On the other hand, District Attorney Holton thought the prosecution could present its side in about three hours.

The defendant, Mr. Pulliam, occupied a seat at the large table in front of the bench, by the side of his attorneys, Judge Moore, Col. V. S. Lusk and Lawrence McLeod. He seldom spoke to the attorneys, but kept his eyes fixed on the judge.

The first move for delay came when the defense, through Judge Moore, announced a readiness for trial but for the absence of Dr. Charles S. Jordan, who was under subpoena, but whose whereabouts were unknown at that moment. A number of telegrams had been sent to places where Dr. Jordan was thought to be, but without avail. It was furthermore explained that Dr. Jordan's evidence was vitally important, as he had attended the defendant in his illness, when, it is alleged, Mr. Pulliam was mentally incapacitated.

The court took the view that the trial should not again be delayed on account of the voluntary absence of a single witness, and said that it must proceed. This with such emphasis that it was plain the court would brook no delay, unless the cause was of the greatest possible importance. Forfeiture amounting to about $80 was entered against Dr. Jordan.

The two moves of consequence noted during the day were the effort of the defense to attack the organization of the first grand jury at Greensboro, and the effort to quash the second bill of indictment. The first motion was based on the ground that the bill was not specific in its reference to the moneys, funds and credits of the bank but little importance was attached to the move as the attorneys themselves tacitly admitted that the defects of the initial bill were practically cured by its consolidation with the second bill, but the crowded court room began to take notice when the validity of the second bill was brought into question because of the fact that one of the jurors has failed to pay his taxes and was therefore incapacitated for jury service. Matters were in this somewhat uncertain state when the noon recess was taken.

When the afternoon session opened District Attorney Holton argued that the defense was too late in voicing an objection to George W. Whittemore, the juror in question and the court held that the juror was not disqualified for service. In short both motions were lost and the defense gave notice that exceptions would be filed.

As soon as these matters were disposed of the work of selecting the jury was begun and completed to the satisfaction of both sides in less than a half hour. Those who constitute the jury are: S. C. Sutton, A. B. Wells, David H. Nelson, Zebulon Hunter, J. M. Blythe, James Galloway, George

Sellers, R. Noland, Pierce Rector, Lee Ramsey, Isaac Harkins, Joseph Waldrop.

As a couple of habeas corpus cases were pressing for a hearing it was decided to postpone the examination of witnesses until this morning. Marshall Israel had arrested C. W. Roper on the charge that he was a deserter from the United States army. Judge Ewart appeared for the parents of Roper, who was under age and had enlisted without the consent of either his mother or father. Young Roper's father took the witness stand, and with family Bible in hand successfully established the fact that his son had come to Asheville and (Continued on eighth page.)

THE TEXAS FLOOD SITUATION WORSE

COMPLETE DESTRUCTION OF COTTON IN SOME LOCALITIES IS CERTAIN.

Austin, July 29.—The flood situation in central and west Texas is much worse today. Another twenty-four hours of incessant rain covering the greater part of the affected territory has put the Brazos and Colorado rivers out of their banks in many places and complete destruction of the cotton crop in the bottoms is certain to occur.

CUBANS COMPLAINED OF BRAGG'S CRITICISM

Washington, July 29.—It is now learned that the Cuban government went a little further in General Bragg's case than was understood at first. It not only made inquiry as to the accuracy of the quotations reflecting on the Cubans, but complained of the consul-general's criticism. The papers in the case are still before the president at Oyster Bay and some action is expected shortly, either in the way of recalling the consul-general or transferring him to some other post if a suitable one can be found.

Lynching Expected.

Washington, July 29.—Charles Graves, a negro suspected of the murder of W. H. Wilson at Herndon, Va., yesterday, is being pursued over the Virginia hills by over 100 men and a lynching may follow his capture. Graves is reported to have crossed the Leesburg and Georgetown turnpike near Dransville, today and to be making for the Potomac river. Bloodhounds may be put on the trail tomorrow.

Will Down their Children Before Allowing Them to Enter Honduras Army.

ENGLAND WITHDRAWS HER CLAIM TO ISLAND

THE POSITION OF THE UNITED STATES IN FAVOR OF THE CLAIM OF HONDURAS DECIDED QUESTION IN HER FAVOR.

New Orleans, July 29.—A steamer brings news that Great Britain has withdrawn the claim of sovereignty over the bay and islands of Utilla recognizing the claim of Honduras. A panic among the natives is the result, the latter declaring that they will down their children before permitting them to be forced to join the Honduras army.

British and American residents are also displeased at the turn of affairs. The United States backed Honduras' claim and the laws of that country will hereafter prevail there. There is a gloomy outlook as Honduras' officials will not be permitted by the natives to land.

JUDGE YOUNG DECLINES TO HEAR COCKRELL-HARGIS CASE

Frankfort, Ky., July 29.—Allie M. Young of Montgomery county, whom Governor Beckham appointed as a special judge to go to Breathitt county and sit in the Crockell-Hargis feud murder case, has returned his commission to the governor. He declines to serve because of a protest against him by Cockrell's relatives and because of relationship with the Hargis family.
