END OF CASE IS NOT YET IN SIGHT

ANOTHER CHARACTER WITNESS AND SEVERAL DOCTORS TO BE EXAMINED.

Adjournment of the Federal Court out of Respect to Mrs. Pritchard.

ADDITIONAL TESTIMONY AS TO PULLIAM'S CONDITION

REV. MCNEELY DuBOISE THINKS THE DEFENDANT WAS OF UNSOUND MIND—MORE EVIDENCE OF USE OF MORPHINE.

The trial of the Pulliam case was begun yesterday by a resumption of the testimony of Alex Webb, who added nothing material to the facts related the day previous, which were published yesterday morning. The government's attorney subjected Mr. Webb to a rigid cross-examination, after which the defense established the good character of the witness by the introduction of Capt. T. W. Patton on the stand. Mrs. F. R. Darby, Mrs. W. E. Beard, Harold Johnston and Rev. McNeely DuBose were among the forenoon witnesses. Mr. DuBose stated that defendant was at one time senior warden of Trinity church. Upon his coming to Asheville he was associated with Pulliam more intimately than he was with any other member of Trinity church. He said that the defendant was a most efficient church officer, but that there was a great change in Pulliam's condition during the latter part of '91, when Pulliam left Asheville; that Pulliam was frequently absent from church and also from vestry meetings. Mr. DuBose stated that it was his opinion now that the defendant at that time was of unsound mind.

After Mr. Johnston had concluded his testimony Judge Moore said the court was doubtless aware of the death of Mrs. Pritchard, and moved that out of respect for her, an adjournment be taken.

"The death of Mrs. Pritchard," responded Judge Boyd, "comes as a great shock to both the bar and the court." He then ordered that a recess be taken until 3 o'clock. The adjournment was made at noon.

The adjournment hour having been reached Judge Moore announced that the defense would only introduce more character witnesses Major W. W. Rollins, who had gone to Marshall, but would return Monday. The defense would introduce two or three additional witnesses, however, all physicians. Dr. Jordan, it was stated, would be examined both as an expert and as to various facts. He would probably occupy the stand for half a day. In short the end of the case is at least three or four days in the distance.

Those facts having been made known the question arose as to what disposition the jurymen should make of their time. The court manifested some concern over the prospects of the jury keeping the Sabbath day holy and suggested that the marshal could escort them to church if they could agree on any particular denomination. At last accounts the jury was hung on the question of close communion and infant baptism and it seems likely that the members will compromise on a carriage ride during the afternoon by way of recreation.

It was very near 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon when court convened, as several persons, connected with the court, went to the station with the funeral party. J. M. Green was the character witness summoned by the defense, and Mr. Green was followed on the witness (Continued on eighth page.)

MRS. FLAGLER'S NEPHEWS GET ONE-HALF SHARE

OF HER GREAT FORTUNE, IN THE EVENT OF HER DEATH.

New York, August 2.—Evidence, hundreds of pages of it, has been taken by J. E. Hedges, referee, who has prepared his report for the supreme court as to kinship of relatives of Ida A. Flagler, formerly wife of Henry M. Flagler, of the Standard Oil company. The estate of Mrs. Flagler which has been in charge of the court since she was declared to be incompetent, amounted to $2,273,000 on August 4, 1899, and has increased. The net increase runs from $116,000 to $117,000 a year.

An important point in the proceeding was whether Mr. Flagler had, through his divorce, lost his interest in the estate of his wife if she should die first. Mr. Flagler laid no claim to such an interest but the question has not been adjudicated.

The referee will report that Mr. Flagler has no interest whatever in the estate.

A mass of evidence was sifted as to how three foundlings, who are nephews of Mrs. Flagler, came to learn of their kinship. Mrs. Flagler's maiden name was Shrouds. Her sister, Mary Emma Exler, died on February 23, 1864, and Mary's husband, Edward W. Exler, gave the custody of their three sons, William, Richard and George, to the New York foundling asylum. Ten years later they were apprenticed to farmers in Iowa. In 1901, William, who had become a harness-maker, became interested in his family tree, and hence the discovery of his relationship to Mrs. Flagler. Richard, one of the three foundlings, is a painter, while the third is an engineer of the Northern Pacific railway.

The proportion each will get of her estate if she dies is:
Chas. F. Shroud, brother, one-quarter; Stephen E. Shroud, one-quarter, and the other quarters will go to the three Taylors.

The referee advises that $4,000 a year income be paid now to the three Taylors so that each will get a third of it. The two brothers and sister of the incompetent have previously obtained orders for $4,000 a year each from the surplus income of Mrs. Flagler. All charges against the income of Mrs. Flagler, including allowances made for her support, leave a surplus income of about $60,000 a year.

ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION OF LOUBET RUMORED

Paris, Aug. 2.—It is rumored that an attempt was made to shoot President Loubet at Rambouillet yesterday. It is said the president requested that the matter be kept quiet. He was uninjured.

The Press (newspaper) says a man fired a shot at the president, but missed him.

STATE COMMISSIONER YOUNG SAYS INSURANCE WAR IS AT AN END

Special to the Gazette.
Greensboro, Aug. 2.—State Insurance Commissioner Young is here looking into the war of the Southeastern Tariff Association on the Greensboro Fire Insurance company for refusing a raise of twenty-five per cent on its premiums. He says:

"I have been watching the fight but took no part until it had passed lawful bounds. When the association notified certain citizens of the state to surrender their Greensboro policies or theirs would be cancelled, and further insurance denied, I had to take a hand. "Since my coming here these notices

A HOT WRANGLE IN CONVENTION

THE WAKE COUNTY DEMOCRATS DEVELOP INHARMONIOUS FEELING.

Screws Put on Instructed Delegates who were Disposed to Disregard Instructions.

SENTIMENT UNFAVORABLE TO PRIMARY SYSTEM

PENITENTIARY DIRECTOR MAKES THE USUAL PREDICTION THAT PENITENTIARIES WILL PAY THIS YEAR—DELEGATES TO FARMER'S CONGRESS.

Special to the Gazette.
Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 2.—The Wake county democratic convention today was a warm number. Everything was settled in primaries except one county commissioner, but that made trouble. Early in the proceedings notice was given that certain delegates intended to disregard instructions, and that precipitated a storm. A heated and protracted wrangle was finally settled by putting the screws on instructed delegates. The first ballot resulted in the nomination of W. A. Ellington. The legislative ticket was nominated as follows: Senate, Herbert E. Norris; house, C. Drewery, F. A. Whitaker, A. B. Hunter.

After the ticket was completed the convention broke up without waiting to hear speeches from the candidates. As the delegates were pouring out a motion was made to adjourn and declared carried. Much feeling was shown throughout the proceedings. The sentiment of the delegates was strongly unfavorable to a primary system but no action was taken, probably because they wanted to go home.

A penitentiary director today said the state prison this year would pay all expenses from its resources independent of the Roanoke farm. As the crop is estimated worth $90,000 it is asserted that much profit will be made on the year's operations.

Among appointments by Governor Aycock of delegates to the national farmers' congress at Macon, Ga., October 7 to 19, are the following: Tenth district, George F. Weston, Biltmore; Appalachian Park commission, Charles McNamee, Biltmore.

BORALMA BROKE DOWN IN CHARTER OAK RACES

WON THE FIRST RACE EASILY—IN NEXT HEAT BROKE AND WAS INJURED.

Hartford, Aug. 2.—A crowd of 15,000 gathered at Charter Oak park today to witness the trotting match between Lord Derby and Boralma for sixty per cent of the gate receipts and a bet of $20,000 a side bet between the owners, Thomas Lawson and E. E. Smathers. The conditions were the best three in five. Lord Derby was the favorite. The match resulted in disappointment as Boralma was unable to finish the race. Gerse, Lord Derby's driver, won the toss. On the start Derby broke, but on the second attempt both were sent away head and head. Boralma soon took the lead and won easily in 2.08. Derby won the next heat handily in 2.09 by two lengths. In the third heat Gerse went away in the lead. Boralma broke going to the turn. From that on it was a procession. Derby winning in 2.18. Boralma broke three times in the last half and showed he was either away off or short on staying powers.

At the conclusion of the heat Boralma was driven to his box followed by a large crowd. A veterinary surgeon was asked for. An examination showed that Boralma had a battered quarter, which he sustained during a break in the second heat. His hind shin also was gashed and it looked so hazardous to chance another heat that he was announced "out by permission of the judges." Derby then jogged a walk-over a mile in 3.44 to win the money.

FOUR THOUSAND HEAR W. J. BRYAN SPEAK

ADVOCATES FREE SILVER AND DENOUNCES TRUSTS AND IMPERIALISM.

Cumberland, Md., Aug. 2.—Four thousand heard Bryan speak on "Problems of the Hour" at Mountain Lake park today. He said: "I hope you will give me credit for possessing a higher ambition than that which ought to be satisfied with the office of president. I am too democratic to covet the ambition that only a few in one generation can share. I prefer the honor of being a private citizen, an honor greater than that of king. He declared the present administration had developed the tendency to amend God's laws: "Thou shalt not steal; thou shalt not kill; thou shalt not covet," by adding an apologetic clause, "save when done on a very large scale." He denounced trusts and imperialism and advocated free silver.

MISS YOHE LEAVES LONDON FOR PARIS

ACCIDENT NECESSITATES HER BEING LIFTED INTO THE TRAIN.

London, Aug. 2.—May Yohe left Charing Cross station tonight for Paris. She has taken rooms at the Hotel Windsor, in Paris. Captain Strong, it is said, left his address at the Hotel Windsor. Miss Yohe fell from a cab today and hurt the ligaments of her leg. She was unable to walk and was wheeled down the platform and lifted into her compartment. Her physicians advised that she remain in London but she insisted on going to meet "Bradley, if I have to be carried every step."

CORONATION A DOMESTIC EVENT

WILL BE CARRIED OUT QUIETLY AS SUCH AN AFFAIR CAN BE.

No Truth in the Rumors that Another Postponement is Probable.

INTEREST IN EVENT IS NO LONGER KEEN

NO REASON TO DOUBT THAT THE CORONATION WILL COME OFF ACCORDING TO THE REVISED PROGRAM.

London, Aug. 2.—During the past week there have been constant rumors and reports as to the king's condition being such that another postponement of the coronation is probable, or that it will be necessary for him to sleep in the deanery on the night before the ceremony of August 9.

There is no truth in these reports. There is not the slightest reason at the present moment to believe the ceremony will not come off according to the revised program.

A movable chair is being prepared for his use in certain parts of the service, if necessity arises. The coronation will now be a purely domestic event, carried out as quietly as events of such character can be. Interest in the event is not keen.

The publication of the official program of the procession shows no special changes from the original arrangements, but ceremonies in Westminster Abbey have been curtailed by the omission of the litany and sermon and by the recital of the recognition once instead of four times.
