THE PRESIDENT MAINE'S GUEST

CLOSED THE DAY WITH A SPEECH TO GREAT CROWD AT AUGUSTA.

Everywhere He Is Greeted by Great Crowds and Tendered Enthusiastic Ovations.

PAYS A TRIBUTE TO THE WORTH OF REED

DECLARES DEER RESTORED MAJORITY RULE IN THE HOUSE—SPEECHES AT LAWRENCE AND HAVERHILL YESTERDAY.

Augusta, Me., Aug. 26.—Roosevelt was enthusiastically greeted at Portland. At Dover, N. H., a bugler played a solo which was very impressive. The president made a speech in which he dwelt on the fact that Dover was one of the oldest cities of the oldest colony, and reiterated that the "only principle according to which it is possible to administer a republic, is the principle of treating each man on his worth as a man; the principle of recognizing facts as they are, of recognizing our material needs."

At Old Orchard Beach, Congressman Littlefield boarded the train. At Portland the president reminded his hearers that government by the majority in the lower house of congress had ceased when Reed, in spite of the fiercest attacks, set himself to the task of restoring government by the majority as the fathers knew it.

"Citizens," said the president, "ought to honor Tom Reed in the most affectionate way, as much as the nation is indebted to him for the work he did."

After a reception at the Cumberland club, the president went to Mr. Reed's house, then to that of Captain John H. Parker, where he drank coffee from a pot which both had drunk from before Santiago.

At Urban the democratic club gave the president a rousing reception and he spoke of the navy saying it was hard to realize that a whole broadside of one of Perry's ships could be carried in the vest pocket of a modern battleship. The president is being entertained tonight by Governor Hill who lives in former home of James G. Blaine.

The president made a speech on the porch of Governor Hill's house tonight to a great crowd. He eulogized Blaine.

Boston, Aug. 26.—After a night of refreshing sleep at his hotel in this city, President Roosevelt left over the Boston & Maine railroad to continue his tour of New England. Tonight he will be the guest of Governor Hill of Maine.

A brisk shower of rain failed to discourage the crowds that stood along the streets of Boston through which President Roosevelt passed last night on his way to the hall, where he addressed an audience of 5,000 persons. From the moment of the president's arrival at the North Union station from Lynn he was warmly acclaimed. He was officially welcomed by Governor Crane and Mayor Collins. The party was escorted to carriages, and guarded by the First battalion of cavalry, proceeded to the hall. Here every seat and every inch of standing room had been taken. To the strains of "Hail to the Chief" played on the great organ, the president appeared upon the stage, but the organ was soon silenced by the spontaneous wave of greeting.

Nahant and Lynn again divided honors in welcoming the president. He spent a quiet morning and afternoon at the Lodge house, and at 2:30 o'clock started for the platform in Nahant, where he was to deliver his address. Simultaneously with the moving of the procession a battery near by fired a salute of 21 guns. In the carriage with the president was the committee of selectmen, Senator Lodge and Secretary Moody were in the next carriage, followed by Secretary Cortelyou and Dr. Lung and the other members of the party. As the president appeared on the platform he was loudly cheered. About fifteen minutes were consumed in his address.

The drive from Nahant to Lynn occupied about twenty minutes. At the city line the president was met by Mayor Shepherd and a committee, and was escorted to the city hall by two companies of militia and one of the naval brigade. Fully 150,000 people lined the route followed by the presidential party.

Mayor Shepherd introduced the president. It was perhaps the largest crowd which he has addressed since his visit to Pittsburg.

From the city hall the procession was taken to the depot, where there was a wait for the special train. The president held an informal reception on the platform. He asked to be introduced to Harry E. Stiles, chief musician of the Eighth regiment band, and thanked him for rendering "Garry Owen," which was played at the president's request on the way from the city hall to the station. As the train pulled out on its way to Boston, cheers were given to the president.

Lowell, Mass., Aug. 26.—For 25 minutes today this city entertained President Roosevelt. He then left for New Hampshire and Maine. The president left Boston early this morning.

North Billerica turned out immense crowds and gave rousing cheers as the train passed by. At each place the president appeared on the platform and acknowledged the greetings.

Acting Mayor Badger and a committee of the city government met the president at Lowell. After a few words of welcome the party was driven to the Common, through streets lined with cheering people. Arriving at the speakers' stand, the president was presented to the people and made a short address.

Speech at Haverhill

Haverhill, Mass., Aug. 26.—President Roosevelt was greeted here by a crowd which packed the route through which he was driven from the station to Washington square, where he delivered a twenty minute address, and filled all available space around the stand from which he spoke. Constant cheering prevailed from the time the president arrived until he began his address, and interruptions while he spoke were frequent.

President Roosevelt said: "Naturally, at the home of Secretary Moody, I should like to say a word or two about the navy. You see that when one Massachusetts man would find another Massachusetts man to take his place. I think that whenever we touch on the navy we are sure of a hearty response from an American audience.

"The entire country is vitally interested in the navy, because an efficient navy is an adequate size is not only the best guarantee of peace, but it is also the surest means for seeing that if war does come, the result shall be honorable to our good name and favorable to our national interests. Any great nation must be peculiarly sensitive to two things: Stain on the national honor at home and disgrace to national arms abroad. Our honor at home, in domestic and international affairs is at all times in our own keeping and depends simply upon the national possession of an awakened public conscience. But the only way to make our honor as affected, not by our own deeds, but by the deeds of others, is by readiness in advance.

"In three great crises in our history during the nineteenth century—in the war of 1812, in the civil war and again in the war with Spain, the navy rendered to the nation services of literally incalculable worth. In the civil war we had to meet antagonists even more prepared at sea than we were. On both the other occasions we encountered foreign foes and the fighting was done entirely by ships built long in advance and by officers and crews who had been trained during years of sea service for the supreme day when their

WILCOX CASE UP ON APPEAL

HEARING OF ARGUMENT IN CASE BEFORE THE SUPREME COURT.

Judge Jones' Affidavit, as to Ringing Bell and Emptying Court House, read.

TAXING OF INCOMES OF FEDERAL OFFICERS

WILL BE MADE BY THE CORPORATION COMMISSION—NOTICE ISSUED TO JUDGE PURNELL, POSTMASTER BAILEY AND OTHERS—STATE COLORED FIREMEN IN SESSION.

Special to the Gazette. Raleigh, Aug. 26.—The corporation commission today issued notice to Judge Purnell, Postmaster Bailey and a number of other Federal officials, to show cause why their incomes should not be listed for taxation. The purpose seems to be to test the question of whether salaries from the Federal government are liable to state tax or not.

The appeal of Jim Wilcox, who was convicted of the murder of Miss Nell Crosey at Elizabeth City, was argued in Supreme court today. Attorney General Gilmer appeared with Solicitor Ward, W. M. Bond and E. F. Aydtlett appeared for Wilcox. An affidavit by Judge Jones was read, telling about the ringing of the court house bell and the emptying of the court house just as the defendant's lawyer was about to address the jury. The suicide theory was strongly urged by the defendant's counsel. As to the murder theory, it was argued that the evidence does not show the prisoner's connection with the crime.

The colored State Firemen's association met here today. Many cities and towns were represented. A parade will take place in the morning and contests in the afternoon.

From Fayetteville it was learned today that E. R. McKethan, a member of the legislature from Cumberland county, has announced himself an independent democratic candidate for congress in the Sixth district.

MILES' ORDER TO GO TO THE PHILIPPINES

REACHED WAR DEPARTMENT YESTERDAY—LIMIT OF HIS DUTIES.

Washington, Aug. 26.—Roosevelt's order to General Miles to visit the Philippines reached the war department today. General Miles is instructed to proceed about September 15 to the Philippines, "to inspect the army there, regarding instruction, discipline and supplies."

It is the understanding that though of superior rank General Miles will not interfere in any way with either Chaffee or his successor, General Davis, in the direction of the army in the Philippines. He will devote his attention entirely to matters of army regulation, not to political affairs.

In the absence from Washington of Miles, no one at army headquarters is fully authorized to discuss the details of the projected trip. It is believed that General Miles will return to Washington in January next.

was four to one in favor of Whitman. The question of which English player would meet Whitman had been in doubt until the men came out for the warm-up just before play was begun. The result was not long in doubt. It was seen early in the playing that the American was in poor form today, and save at intervals the Englishman did almost as he pleased.

In the first set Whitman got but one game. He braced up and won the second set, 6-3; and showed good work in the third, taking four games, but Doherty won. Whitman had no speed whatever in the fourth set, and Doherty won easily.

Championship single, final match: R. F. Doherty beat M. D. Whitman 6-1; 3-6; 6-4; 6-0.

EX-JUDGE DAVID SCHENCK DIES AT GREENSBORO

Special to the Gazette.

Greensboro, Aug. 26.—Ex-Judge David Schenck died here at 6 o'clock this evening, after a long illness, aged 71 years. He had been one of the ablest lawyers of his generation and was of a great political influence until he went out of politics to accept the position of state counsel for the Southern railway, which he held until ill health caused him to retire.

COL. HOLLOWELL ALSO TAKES A SHY AT US

THE EXTRADITION CASE OF ROGERS, WANTED IN DURHAM, HAS GREATLY AROUSED PEOPLE OF THE HUB CITY.

Boston, Aug. 26.—Governor Crane gave a hearing at the state house today upon the matter of granting requisition papers asked for by Governor Aycock of North Carolina in the case of Monroe Rogers, a negro, wanted in Durham upon the charge of arson. The case has attracted much attention here because of the interest manifested by prominent Boston people, as well as colored citizens, in efforts to prevent Rogers being turned over to the Durham police.

Those who have been fighting the extradition of Rogers openly said that he would be lynched without trial. Col. N. P. Hollowell was one of those who spoke for the prisoner. He remarked that, although Governor Crane and Attorney General Parker had received letters from North Carolina officials, "It is fair to judge by performance rather than by promise in a case of this kind," and produced newspaper clippings describing the lynching of two colored boys in Durham recently.

Rev. M. A. N. Shaw of the Twelfth Baptist church created a sensation when he spoke. He said the crime charged was an imaginary one; that it would be criminal for Massachusetts to turn Rogers over to a state where the
