PRESIDENT IN LEXINGTON; MANY STOPS MADE YESTERDAY

In his Speeches Yesterday There was a Decided Change in His Manner, and the Impression Produced by the Recollection That It was the Anniversary of McKinley's Death was Quite Noticeable.

Plans for His Reception in This City—Work of Decoration, Etc., Will Be Begun in Earnest Early Tomorrow Morning—No Stops to Be Made Except at Points Scheduled.

Theodore Roosevelt president of the United States, will on the day after tomorrow be, for the first time, the guest of the city of Asheville. The train bearing the chief executive and his staff is to arrive here from the west at 8:30 o'clock, leaving for Washington at 12:20 the same day.

It is expected that a vast crowd will greet him here. Reduced rates have been granted by the Southern, from a number of surrounding points, for the occasion. The platform, 40x80 feet in dimensions, from which the president is to address the crowd, will be erected tomorrow. It will be five feet high, and will be placed on the west side of the Vance monument, covering the iron fence and reaching across the sidewalk to the curb.

The work of decorating by merchants and business men will be begun tomorrow morning, and by night the city will present a gala aspect.

At Baltimore a large triumphal arch is to be erected, near the railway station. The frame was built yesterday. Chairman McNamee requests that all the members of the reception committee meet at the office in the auditorium tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Up to last evening, Mr. McNamee had heard nothing from Governor Aycock, to whom an invitation to be present, with his staff, was telegraphed on the preceding day. The message was sent to Raleigh. Governor Aycock was in Lexington yesterday, and the natural conclusion is that the message was not forwarded to him.

Captains of the two military companies request that the men report promptly at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening for special drill. The extra police are being selected, and will be sworn in tomorrow afternoon. Badges for the members of the reception committee can be secured at the office of A. J. Lyman, in the Paragon building, tomorrow between the hours of 10 and 11 a. m.

F. A. Hull has completed an immense portrait of the president, which will be placed near the stand.

The personnel of the president's party is the same as that on his New England trip, except for the addition of S. B. Hege, the general agent of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, and Col. L. S. Brown, the general agent of the Southern railway.

The southern trip will be a somewhat hurried one and no stops will be made at points other than those announced in the itinerary already published, namely, Wheeling, W. Va., Chattanooga, Knoxville and Asheville. The immediate object of the president is to attend the convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, in whose work he has always shown a deep interest. The train will reach Chattanooga at 8:30 this morning. Sunday will be spent in Chattanooga quietly and without public program. The party will visit the battleground during the day and the president will attend church during the evening. He will attend the firemen's convention Monday morning. The president and party is scheduled to reach Washington on the return trip over the Southern railroad at 6:30 o'clock on the morning of September 10 and to leave half an hour later in a private car attached to a regular train over the Pennsylvania railroad for Jersey City en route to Oyster Bay.

In a statement issued at the white house, it has been announced that the local committees of the four cities, at which stops are scheduled on the southern trip will be received at the places they represent, the limited accommodations of the train rendering it impracticable to take them on board in advance.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 6.—President Roosevelt arrived here tonight. There was a great crowd at the station. The president made a brief address. The day was a more trying one than had been anticipated. Although the president announced his intention to visit only one city a day, the urgent demands of the citizens of the three states through which he passed made it quite impossible for him to refuse to extend formal greetings in many towns and cities in which he did not mean to have the train stop.

The first stop after Wheeling, where he spoke on trusts, was Cambridge, O. Here he said he would defer his greetings to the people of Ohio until he again visited the state.

Just as he finished he caught sight of the portrait of McKinley, held aloft by a young man. The sight of the picture on the anniversary of Mr. McKinley's mortal wounding, made a deep impression on the president, and when he spoke at Columbus, his next stop, there was a decided change in the manner of his delivery. He referred to the fact that today was the anniversary of McKinley's assassination, eulogized the dead president and said it was a fitting occasion to think very solemnly on what the country lost by McKinley's death, and what was his life.

The president made brief remarks at Zanesville, Washington Court House, Newark, Midland City, Cincinnati and Ludlow, Ky.

Wheeling, W. Va., Sept. 6.—President Roosevelt and party arrived over the Baltimore & Ohio at 8:30 this morning, from Washington. He was greeted by a vast crowd at the depot and smiled his appreciation, despite his badly discolored face. His right cheek was rather badly swollen and contused and his left eye showed signs of discoloration. Mayor Sweeney, President Laughlin and Secretary Birch of the board of trade, Postmaster Hall and Councilman Waterhouse, formed a committee which received the president. The entire party, which embodied Secretary Cortelyou, secret service men and a staff of correspondents, entered vehicles and were driven to the McClure house, headed by a military band. Throughout the entire route enthusiasm was rife, the streets being lined with the people from western Pennsylvania, eastern Ohio and West Virginia. At the hotel the chief executive met a delegation of prominent citizens of Wheeling, introduced by Senator Scott. President Roosevelt seemed in a very jovial humor and joked with his newly made acquaintances. He addressed an enormous crowd from the balcony of the hotel, standing at the northwest corner where he had a range of four different states. He spoke long beyond his scheduled time, which necessitated the curtailment of the regular program.

At the conclusion the party re-entered the train of carriages and were driven over a route of the principal thoroughfares of the city. The decorations were of an elaborate and festive order. All along the route vast crowds cheered the president to the echo. The party was driven to the southern portion of the city where the Baltimore & Ohio special was boarded, and the trip to the south continued.

WEST VIRGINIA COAL STRIKE ENDS

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 6.—The coal miners' strike in the Kanawaha and New River fields involving 15,000 miners, which has been in existence since June 7, is practically at an end. Each local union is instructed to go back to work on the best terms possible without regard to the action of any other local union. Several of the largest operators in the New River field have made terms with their men and will resume on Monday. No concessions have been granted, and from the miners' standpoint the strike is a complete failure, the men returning to work at the same rate as before the strike. There is great activity here among the operators getting ready to start up. Old men will be given employment where possible. Most of the strikers are happy that it will soon be over, as many went out under protest in the beginning.

Tamaqua, Pa., Sept. 6.—Fearing that an effort would be made to stop the non-union men in the Panther Creek valley from going to work this morning, Major Gearhart sent company F, Twelfth regiment, out on patrol duty. Although a number of strikers gathered on the streets there was no disturbance.

The Philadelphia & Reading company has issued orders that winter quarters be erected for the deputies on duty at the various collieries. The men are all being supplied with blankets and heavy clothing.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 6.—The mining village of Hudson, where a house occupied by a non-union workman named Lawrence Paranski was wrecked last night by a mob, was very quiet today. Sheriff Jacobs sent a large number of deputies to the scene and upon their arrival the crowds that had gathered on the streets dispersed.

Trouble was threatened at the Franklin mine of the Lehigh Valley Coal company this morning. A number of strikers gathered to interrupt non-union men on their way to work. Deputy sheriffs hurried to the place and dispersed the crowd. Vice President Lewis of the United Mine Workers, who came here from Virginia last night, had another conference with President Mitchell. He then left for the south.

Bramwell, W. Va., Sept. 6.—About a thousand or more striking miners resumed work today in the Norfolk and Western, making a total of 2500 to resume since yesterday morning. All armed guards have been withdrawn from the coal mine property. Hundreds of miners' families are today moving from the little tents on the mountain side back into the company houses in the narrow valleys from which they were evicted since the strike began. Many mines are today running in full, employing more men than before the strike. Business in this region will be fully resumed by Monday.

MEXICAN LABORERS TO TAKE NEGROES' PLACE

New Orleans, Sept. 6.—In consequence of the scarceness of negro labor in districts of Louisiana and Mississippi the planters of these states have arranged for the importation of Mexican cotton pickers. The first party of 300 has arrived at Alexandria, and was distributed among cotton planters in the neighborhood of Lecompte. The imported laborers came from western Texas, along the Rio Grande, and their importation is therefore not in violation of the imported labor law.

FELL DOWN AN ELEVATOR SHAFT

About 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon Mrs. Frazier of Savannah fell the distance of two stories down the elevator shaft of the Windsor hotel, sustaining very severe injuries. Her right arm was broken in two places, her head was bruised, her back hurt and, it is feared, she sustained internal injuries. The exact nature of her injuries cannot be ascertained at present.

RECORD OF THE FASTEST VESSEL IN THE WORLD

The Arrow Travels at Rate of 44.2-5 Miles an Hour.

New York, Sept. 6.—Charles R. Flint's steam yacht Arrow broke the world's record in a speed test this afternoon over the government measured mile course on the Hudson near Irvington, with a flying start of three miles. She travelled at the rate of 44.2-5 miles an hour, covering a mile in 1.32. The English torpedo boat Viper's record is only 42.48 miles an hour. As the Arrow sped through the water she never left her sailing lines. A great bow wave swept the deck almost to the stern.

A BATTLE IN VENEZUELA

Washington, Sept. 6.—Minister Bowen cables the state department today from Caracas, Venezuela, saying that the government troops routed the revolutionists yesterday after a four hour battle in the mountains, just in the rear of the American legation. The noise of the fight was distinctly heard at the legation.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS WANTED

Editor of the Gazette:
It is the desire of the Daughters of the Confederacy, that all old veterans shall attend the rendition of "Under the Southern Cross," next Thursday, September 11, at the Grand. They want these old soldiers to march in a body, and have placed their admission at 25 cents. Gen. James M. Ray will sell them tickets and give all needed information.

No one should fail to be present next Thursday night.
Local talent seldom undertakes anything so difficult as "Under the Southern Cross," but as this piece is under the training of Mrs. Platt, a fine rendition is assured—she knows how to instruct and has most excellent material for every cast.

THIRD PLACE ON LEGISLATIVE TICKET LEFT OPEN, TO BE SUPPLIED BY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE—OTHER COUNTY NOMINATIONS.

The convention which met in the court house yesterday to nominate a Citizens' ticket was one of the largest that ever assembled for such a purpose in the county. Not only was it strong numerically, but it was representative of the best citizenship of the county.

Preceding the convention a caucus was held in the court room to give the delegates an opportunity to talk over informally the business with which the convention had to deal. This caucus was also well attended, there being few vacant seats in the court room when it was called to order. T. J. Candler was asked to preside over the conference. The transactions of the caucus were of course of a secret nature, but two or three incidents occurred that are "too good to keep" as some would say. It would be a pity, in fact, to withhold them from the public.

Attention was called to the fact that there were several present who had no
