Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 22.—Thousands of men began work today repairing the mines and placing the collieries in condition for the general resumption of coal mining which will take place throughout the anthracite region tomorrow. Those men who are directly engaged in cutting and handling coal will not, under the direction of the convention, return to the mines until tomorrow.

they applied to the superintendents of the collieries where they were formerly employed. They were principally steam men, engineers, firemen and pump-runners who struck on June 2 for an eight hour day and also to help the miners win their battle. These men wanted their old places back, but in many instances the company officials refused to discharge those who stood by them during the strike. There were many in the Wyoming valley, however, who were fortunate enough to find employment. The company officials maintain they will not discriminate against union or non-union men, and that work will be given all when there are vacancies. During the strike the companies were compelled to employ many incompetent men to help keep the mines free from water or from "squeezing" as a result of the lack of proper timbering. The majority of these workmen are still in the employ of the companies, and the strikers feel they will gradually be dismissed and the more competent workmen engaged.

A mine worker who came into the union headquarters from South Wilkesbarre today said:

"The superintendents are turning down a good many men on the ground that they are not needed. This is only a bluff, and they will be glad to get our men in a day or two. The workmen they have are in most cases, green and won't be tolerated about the collieries when the miners begin working full time to catch up with the demand for coal. The companies will not take the risk of having men killed or mines wrecked through the mistakes of some new man."

Although the strike is over, the path of the non-union workman is still a thorny one. They are disliked by the unionists, and it is not expected the relations between them will be improved when they get into the mines together. Reports were received here today that scores of the non-union men have given up their positions and are leaving the region.

President Mitchell today began the work of preparing the miners' side of the case for presentation to the arbitration commission. He will be the leading representative of the workmen before the tribunal, and will gather around him such experts in anthracite mining as will be necessary to properly present the case to the commission. He said today he did not know when he would make his first appearance before the commission.

about 2,000 tons. Not much attention is paid to washery coal, since mixed anthracite is assured in a few days: The company is devoting its efforts to preparations to rush coal to market when it is mined.

Pottsville, Pa., Oct. 22.—The striking miners are ready and eager to return to work, now that the strike is declared off, but several of the collieries in the Schuylkill region or not in condition to resume full-handed and some workmen will be obliged to wait for several weeks and perhaps months before they can be reinstated. This number, however, will be comparatively small. It will require some days to clean up gangways at the mines that are fit to be operated before any quantity of coal can be shipped.

Many of the pump-runners, engineers and others have already returned to their posts and are working. Indian Ridge colliery at Shenandoah resumed today.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 22.—John Markle of Jeddo, the independent coal operator, today made the following statement: "There seems to have been no question as to our position regarding the arbitration commission. We will abide by the decision of that commission under the conditions set forth by the presidents of the large coal corporations." G. B. Markle & Co. today issued a notice that all their men desiring to return to work shall make application to the Jeddo office.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 22.—All the delegates who attended the convention here today left for their homes, and strike headquarters presented a deserted appearance tonight. Reports from the small towns in the outlying regions are to the effect that celebrations of all kinds were held last night. Some of the larger towns will celebrate the ending of the strike tomorrow. The greatest celebration will be reserved for October 29—John Mitchell day.

President Mitchell has more than half a dozen invitations to speak at different places, but he will not accept any until he learns whether the arbitration commission needs his presence. A few engineers, firemen, pumpmen, machinists and some other men not directly engaged in mining coal have already applied for reinstatement, but were refused. The superintendent in most cases informed the men they will return their present employes.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 22.—Archbishop Elder has issued a proclamation to the clergy and members of the Catholic church in which he said the ending of the coal strike is occasion for rejoicing. The proclamation continues in part: "We rejoice that He has seen fit to turn from His chosen ones, the poor and lowly, the impending disaster of a long winter's misery. We rejoice that our chief ruler has found in his manly sense of right means of relieving the situation fraught with so much danger."

It asks prayer for the guidance of the arbitration commission, that its conclusions may contribute to peace and to the glory of God, and to this end directs that one decade rosary be recited after each mass on Sunday for a month.

Montpelier, Oct. 22.—The Vermont house of representatives today adopted resolutions offered by Father O'Sullivan, democrat, thanking the president for his action in regard to the coal strike.

VOLCANIC ERUPTION IN SALVADOR TOWN

New Orleans, Oct. 22.—Passengers arriving from Puerto Barrios report that the volcano Izalco, in Salvador, is in eruption. The eruption began September 7, when five large craters formed on the side of the volcano from which large quantities of lava and burning stones were ejected. People living in the town of Izalco and the neighboring country fled on the approach of the lava, and it is believed houses were completely destroyed. The volcano was still in eruption when the passengers left.

BEATEN UNTIL SKIN PEELED OFF HIS BACK

Columbia, S. C., Oct. 22.—A strange negro attempted to ravish a colored woman in Anderson county last evening and was caught by a mob. The white men turned the culprit over to the negroes on the promise that they would not lynch him. The negroes stripped him and beat him with leather straps until his skin was taken off in strips. He was then released.

TAMMANY HOLDS A BIG POW WOW

A SPEECH BY DAVID B. HILL AND A LETTER FROM GROVER CLEVELAND.

Hill's Remarks Were Directed Mostly to Consideration of Tariff Question.

CLEVELAND APPROVES OF CAMPAIGN'S CONDUCT

HILL'S SPEECH ENTHUSIASTICALLY APPLAUDED—CLEVELAND MENTIONS "SENSIBLE EFFORTS TO SECURE HARMONIOUS ACTION."

New York, Oct. 22.—Tammany held a big ratification tonight. Hill was the principal speaker. A letter from Cleveland was read calling Tammany a great organization. It was enthusiastically applauded.

The Manhattan club gave a reception to the state candidates. A letter of regret was read from Cleveland. Coler, in a lengthy speech, reviewed the issues of the campaign. Ex-Assistant Secretary of the Navy McAdoo and others also spoke.

New York, Oct. 22.—Ex-Senator David B. Hill in a speech at Tammany hall tonight chiefly discussed the tariff. He declared the scattered constituencies were compelling the republicans to come out for revision of the tariff, especially on coal and trust made articles. He quoted from the senate records to show that the republicans voted for the tariff on anthracite coal, with the exception of Platt, who, he said, with "characteristic shrewdness" dodged the vote. He declared the only way to obtain immediate relief from the extortionate price charged to consumers of coal, from the exactions of the beef trust, steel and other trusts, was the removal of the tariff. His remarks were enthusiastically cheered.

A letter was read from Grover Cleveland to Leader Murphy, regretting his inability to accept Murphy's invitation to attend the meeting. The letter says in part: "It is most gratifying to learn from the terms of your note that the democrats of the city of New York fully appreciate how vitally the underlying principles of our party are involved in the pending canvass, and also to know of the determination that they shall not be forgotten in its campaign efforts."

"The great democratic organization of the city of New York is so important a factor in controlling the results of party endeavor in its broadest field that no campaign in which it engages can be considered, sufficiently local to free it from the responsibilities of its influence upon the party prospects, everywhere and at all times. This responsibility has been well met in the present campaign by the selection of trustworthy candidates, by intelligent party work, and by sensible efforts to secure harmonious democratic action."

Cleveland closes by expressing the hope that the democrats will be restored to power in the senate and that the meeting will be successful. Cleveland also wrote to President Trust of the Manhattan club, regretting his inability to attend its reception to the New York state democratic candidates tonight, expressing the hope that the results of the campaign will demonstrate that the political sentiment of the people of the state is still in favor of safe and conservative democracy.

A BITTER HARANGUE FROM ROBT. B. GLENN

Delivered to a Good Sized Crowd Here Last Night.

Capt. R. B. Glenn of Winston addressed a fair sized audience of voters at the court house last night.

The democratic party needs votes in Buncombe county, but if the state committee sent Captain Glenn here to win them from the republican party, his mission was fruitless, for the character of his remarks could but have proved insulting to republicans and those who entertain independent inclinations and do any thinking for themselves. He wanted, he said, to "turn back, oh, time, in your flight," to the period of '68. Among other declarations, Captain Glenn asserted that the republicans had almost turned the state capitol into a house of ill fame, and, assuming a melodramatic pose, the speaker cried in passionate tones: "Oh, God, strike from my mind those memories."

Captain Glenn spoke of republican and populist rule as a time when the "black flag of death" was raised, and a moment later talked of the time when the "damnable black flag was lowered." He said the Filipinos were being murdered, and spoke of the "robberies, corruption and shame" to be noted under the Dingley tariff.

In fact, it was the first speech of the extravagant kind that has been delivered in Asheville thus far during this campaign. Captain Glenn apparently made a geographical error and was laboring in ignorance of the fact that such methods of campaigning are no longer in vogue in the mountains. His every statement was ill-tempered.

GOV. ODELL FLAYS D. B. HILL

ANSWERS CHARGE THAT HE USED OFFICE TO FURTHER HIS OWN INTERESTS.

Says Hill Descended Lower Than Any Man Ever Honored as Governor.

MADE SACRIFICES OF HIS BEST FRIENDS

THE GOVERNOR'S SPEECH WAS HEARD BY FIVE THOUSAND PEOPLE, AND WAS VIGOROUSLY APPLAUDED.

Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 22.—Governor Odell in an address here tonight stigmatized the charges that he had utilized his office to further his financial interest by compelling state institutions to buy supplies from concerns in which he was interested, as a base slander. He flayed ex-Senator Hill for his references to the charges, and said Hill had descended to the lowest level of any man ever honored with the office of governor. "Never," he said, "has a man used his office for his own personal advantage as Hill has. This man, who has never known the love of woman, and who never took delight in the prattle of children, has more than once sacrificed his best friends, with whom he has broken bread, to his own personal advancement, and I know what I am talking about. Five thousand people heard the governor and vigorously applauded him."
