STILL NO LUCK FOR PRESIDENT

ANOTHER CUB BROUGHT INTO CAMP, THIS TIME A CUB.

It Had Been Worried to Death by Dogs—Another Chance Narrowly Missed.

BEST PART OF PACK ON A LONG CHASE.

PRESIDENT AND A COMPANION CAME SO NEAR HEADING OFF THE BEAR AS TO GET A SIGHT OF HIM.

Snades, Miss., Nov. 15.—The president put in a hard day's hunting today, but without result. Another bear was brought into camp last night. It was a mere cub and was worried to death by the dogs. This morning the pack started out on a fresh trail. They split soon after starting and the best half of the pack struck off down the Little Snowflower. It has not been heard from since.

Mr. Foote, who was with President Roosevelt, said he thought he knew where the bear was heading for and he and the president made a detour to head him off. Foote's judgment was excellent but they were not quick enough. When the president and Foote arrived at the indicated spot they had the disappointment of seeing the pack cross their path thirty feet ahead, proving that the bear was not far ahead. The president pushed into the tangle after the bear and he espied the dogs fighting bruin, but they could not hold him at bay.

The president dropped into camp for lunch, and started out with Foote again, with a mere handful of dogs.

numerous subjects. Among the resolutions introduced was one asking congress to pension all laborers over 60 years old. The committee on local unions reported a number of rules regulating strikes. The delegates from Massachusetts presented a resolution scoring President Eliot of Harvard for his declaration in a recent address that "a scab" was a good type of a modern hero.

ATTEMPT TO KILL KING LEOPOLD

Brussels, Nov. 15.—Three shots were fired at the king of Belgium this morning as he was proceeding to the cathedral to attend the Te Deum in memory of the late Queen Henrietta. No one was hurt.

The man who fired the shots is an Italian. He stood in front of the Bank of Brussels, on the Rue Royale. The other chambers in the revolver were blank, so it is presumed that those fired were equally harmless. The man was immediately arrested, and the police had some difficulty in rescuing him from the hands of the crowd. He gave the name of Robino.

The royal cortege consisted of several carriages, besides that of the king, containing the count and countess of Flanders, Prince and Princess Albert of Flanders, the Princess Clementine and the aides-de-camp and ladies of honor.

A fuller investigation satisfied the police that Robino really fired a ball cartridge, the bullet of which smashed the window of Comte d'Eoultremont's carriage and grazed the grand marshal's face.

When rescued from the mob, Robino was placed in a cab and infuriated crowds of people immediately surrounded it and attacked the vehicle with knives and sticks. The police had great difficulty in forcing a way to the police station through the crowd, which shouted alternately "kill him," and "long live the king." The cab was badly hacked with knives. A search of the prisoner revealed a package of ball cartridges.

It is reported that Robino had been heard to express anarchistic opinions, and it was also said that he came to Brussels from London expressly to kill King Leopold and went to the cathedral today for this purpose, but refrained from shooting at the king for fear of killing soldiers who stood between him and his majesty. Robino is also reported to have said he was employed in the Italian secret service in London, and that he came to Brussels a fortnight ago with the intention of assassinating King Leopold.

The news of the outrage spread rapidly throughout the city and the greatest excitement prevailed. The people thronged the streets, eagerly discussing the attempt on the life of the king, and large crowds gathered in front of the various bulletin boards. The newspapers issued frequent editions, and these were eagerly bought. General abhorrence was expressed by the people at the apparently deliberate attempt to assassinate the sovereign.

King Leopold appeared to be quite unmoved by the attempt of Robino to kill him. After luncheon at the palace, his majesty entered a motor car and proceeded to the railroad station, where he boarded a train bound for Groenendaal.

Brussels, Nov. 15.—The name of the man who attempted to kill King Leopold today is Gerone Rubino. He was perfectly cool during his examination before a magistrate. He said he came from London, where he was engaged to watch anarchists by the Italian government. It was discovered that he was furnishing information to the anarchists and he was dismissed. Thereupon he came to Brussels, resolved to strike a blow for the anarchists and kill the king. He said he had been in Brussels since October and had visited a number of places in the hope of seeing the king. He professed himself an anarchist.

He said he did not regret his act and hoped some one else would succeed better. He would have fired, he declared, at any king. Kings were tyrants and the cause of all misfortune. He said he had no accomplices. Rubino was formerly a sergeant in the Italian army.

MITCHELL IN A HEAVY FIRE

OF QUESTIONING ON STAND BEFORE THE ARBITRATION TRIBUNAL.

Did Not Make a Single Admission Damaging to His Side During Day.

THE DAY ILLUMINED BY FLASHES OF HUMOR

BUT THE WITTY SALLIES VEILED RANCOR ON PART OF BOTH McVEIGH, THE LAWYER, AND MITCHELL.

Scranton, Nov. 15.—President John W. Mitchell put in today another trying day on the stand before the strike commission. Early in the session he was rigidly cross-examined by Lawyer Wilcox of the Delaware & Hudson company and in the latter part he was turned over to the tender mercies of ex-Attorney General Wayne McVeigh, but try as they would, neither of them succeeded in wounding from Mitchell one admission damaging to the side of the miners. In fact, after considerable effort on McVeigh's part to corner Mitchell, he complimented Mitchell on the "adroit" manner in which Mitchell slipped around his interrogatory, and once in parrying an interruption by counsel for the miners, said he thought Mitchell "an admirable witness."

This afternoon's session was the liveliest yet and was illumined by flashes of humor on the part of both McVeigh and Mitchell that kept everyone in a good humor. A few of the jokes were at the expense of Mitchell, but on several occasions Mitchell turned the joke on McVeigh.

During it all Mitchell was never caught off his guard. The rancor in some of the questions asked as well as in some of the answers given was almost lost sight of in the play of wit and repartee. In the course of the examination Mitchell gave his reasons for advocating an eight hour day, and got into a controversy with McVeigh as to who was responsible for the increased price of coal placed on the poor. Mitchell acquitted himself well. Later McVeigh ineffectually tried to get Mitchell to admit that a prosperous mining town indicated the prosperity of the mine workers residing there. Mitchell gave some strong reasons why an armed coal and iron police should not be permitted in the coal fields.

It looks as if Mitchell will be on the stand the greater part of next week.

SWANNAHOA LAUNDRY BOUGHT BY MR. BROWN

The Swannanoa Laundry has been purchased from its former proprietors, Beedle and Morton, by Camie Brown. The former proprietors intend to return to their former homes in the north. All the present employees will be retained and the new management expect to equip the laundry with the most improved machinery and will be able to offer as good service as any in the state. They have already commenced repairing the original machinery and expect to introduce new in a short time.

Mr. Brown is one of Asheville's popular young men and his many friends wish him well in his new enterprise.

THE PRESIDENT'S SON IS SUFFERING FROM HIS EYES

New York, Nov. 15.—Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., left here last night in charge of three physicians, en route to Washington, says a World despatch from Groton, Mass.

He is said to be suffering from some trouble with his eyes, which made it desirable that he go home at once. No details are obtained here.

Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., passed through New York early today under the care of two physicians, on the Federal express, bound for Washington. The conductor in charge of the car in which the president's son was berthed, said he did not know how ill the young man was, or the cause of his trouble.

Washington, Nov. 15.—Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., son of the president, is coming to Washington to spend a week, that his eyes may be given a rest. Mrs. Roosevelt received a message from the master of the school at Groton, Mass., where the boy is attending, announcing that his eyes were troubling him and suggested a rest. He said Theodore might go to Washington for a week, if Mrs. Roosevelt desired. She at once gave the master permission to let him come here.

It is denied at the white house that doctors are accompanying him on the train and it is said no operation of any kind will be performed. The boy's coming will not interfere with the president's plans in any way. The federal express, on which he is traveling, is several hours late, having been fog bound at Jersey City.

JENKINS CASE TO BE CALLED WEDNESDAY

Special Verine Will Be Selected From Outside Asheville and Fairview Townships.

In Superior court yesterday a number of cases were disposed of. In the case of state against W. J. Greer, charged with an assault upon A. Kosky, the judgment of the court was that the defendant pay the doctor's bill and a fine of $50.

Frank Brown, colored, was charged with an assault with a knife upon one Alice Frickard, Spears Reynolds, counsel for the defendant, took the position before the jury that the wound inflicted upon the prosecuting witness was an accidental one and was received in play. The solicitor took the position that the accident theory was a "fake" and that the evidence showed that the defendant was guilty of a brutal assault. Verdict, not guilty.

The solicitor announced the next business of the day to be the formal arraignment of Gus Jenkins, charged with a criminal assault upon Mrs. Lillian M. Spivey, on the 29th of September, 1902. The prisoner was in court and plead not guilty.

Frank Carter of counsel for the defendant asked that the special venire be selected outside of Asheville and Fairview townships. This motion was granted and the order made. The case will be called for trial at 2:30 next Wednesday.

A SPECIAL SESSION OF CONGRESS LATE IN MARCH

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 15.—More important than the endorsement of Congressman Cannon for speaker was the positive assurance given at a meeting of the Wisconsin congressional delegation today that it was the intention of Roosevelt to call a special session of congress late in March to revise the tariff. Congressman Babcock was the bearer of this information and while Senator Spooner, who was present, would not say anything for publication, members of the delegation said he admitted that this is the program.

HUYLER PARTY RETURNS

No Meeting of Mountain Retreat Association.

John S. Huyler, T. J. Gaines, Sr., Mr. De Klyn and Mr. Dunham, who have been spending some time at Asheville and at Montreat, left the latter place Friday afternoon returning to their home in New York.

Mr. Huyler owns quite an extensive tract of land adjoining Montreat which is strictly preserved; and this fact enabled the party to enjoy a little shooting. Mr. Gaines proved the crack shot of the party, killing a considerable bag of quail. His crowning exploit was the killing of a large wild gobbler.

YALE DEFEATS PRINCETON

HOT BATTLE IN WHICH BOTH STUBBORNLY CONTESTED EVERY INCH OF GROUND.

Superior Physical Condition of Yale's Team Gave Them the Victory.

CHAPPEL HILL LOST GAME TO GEORGETOWN.

ONE OF THE NORTH CAROLINA BOYS INJURED—UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE DEFEATS UNIVERSITY OF MISSISSIPPI.

Princeton, Nov. 15.—Yale defeated Princeton, 12 to 6, today. The contest was the hottest of the season. Both sides stubbornly contested every inch of ground. Yale's victory was due to superior physical condition.

Princeton and Yale met on the old Nassau field in their annual football game. No football contest of the year is fraught with so great interests. This fact was made apparent early yesterday, when the advance guards of graduates and friends of both teams began arriving. This transient traffic continued until the last train at night and began again on the first train this morning.

The crowds began to enter the grounds as early as 12 o'clock. Half an hour before the time to begin there was scarcely a vacant seat in the huge amphitheatre. The weather was ideal for the onlookers, but a trifle too warm for the players.

At 2 o'clock the Yale team trotted into the field. Three minutes later the Princeton eleven came on, headed by Jim Robinson, carrying a pet tiger in a cage.

Princeton won the toss and chose to defend the south goal, and at 2:15 o'clock the game began.

Bowman kicked off for Yale. After five minutes of play Yale fumbled and Pearson, getting the ball for Princeton, carried it 15 yards to Yale's 35-yard line. Dewitt dropped immediately and made a beautiful try for a goal from field, missing by less than five feet. Dewitt kicked a goal from the 25-yard line. Princeton 5; Yale 0.
