EXAMINERS' COMPLETE WORK

REPORT ON STATE INSTITUTIONS FILED YESTERDAY WITH GOV. AYCOCK.

Total Appropriation About $10,000 Less Than Those Made by Last Legislature

$45,000 RECOMMENDED FOR BUILDINGS AT A. & M. COLLEGE

$7,500 RECOMMENDED FOR PERMANENT IMPROVEMENTS AT STATE NORMAL COLLEGE, AND SMALL AMOUNT FOR MORGANTON INSANE ASYLUM—REPORT FAVORABLE TO ALL INSTITUTIONS.

Special to the Gazette. Raleigh, Nov. 18.—The examining board of state institutions have completed their work and presented a report to Governor Aycock. It makes 120 printed pages. This board is composed of Messrs. W. P. Wood, I. P. Jeter and T. W. Patton. They have been at work several months. This committee was created by the last legislature and is to provide information and facts about state institutions on which the legislature will act at the coming session, instead of sending legislative committees on hurried and hasty trips to make investigations. The report is very favorable to all the institutions. It shows that North Carolina will not have to make as great appropriations for state institutions as did the legislature of two years ago. More will be required for maintenance and support, since the institutions have all grown, but the saving will be in permanent improvements needed. The total appropriations by the last legislature amounted to over $700,000, while this time the report of the board recommends only about $600,000 in total appropriations. The difference between what is necessary for this legislature to give and what the last legislature did is about $115,000. The board makes very few recommendations for appropriations for permanent improvements. Only what is absolutely necessary in the judgment of the board is recommended while in many cases the board adds some things that are needed.

in case the legislature is able to do the work. The recommendation for permanent improvements is less than $75,000. Of this sum the major part is $40,000 for buildings at the A. & M. college to supplant those that were burned. The council of state authorized the borrowing of money to do this, and a sum sufficient to pay back what was borrowed is included in the board's recommendations for permanent improvements. The state normal at Greensboro gets $7,500 for permanent improvements and the insane asylum at Morganton a small sum for building some cottages. The board also recommends putting in waterworks for the Central hospital for the insane here, and says that more ground is needed for the farm. The board is in favor of cutting off some of the colored normal school appropriation and concentrating this work.

Governor Aycock thanked the members for the work they have so faithfully done. The members left for their homes this afternoon.

KENILWORTH INN TO BE SOLD TODAY

Much interest centers in the sale of the Kenilworth Inn property which will be knocked down to the highest bidder at auction this afternoon. Senator Joseph M. Gazzen of Philadelphia, one of the largest owners of the property, is here to attend the sale. Other than the intimation that George W. Vanderbilt would be a bidder at the sale, no other prospective purchaser has been named. Denial was made yesterday that Mr. Vanderbilt will put in a bid.

PRESIDENT LEAVES "CAMP ROOSEVELT"

Smedes, Miss., Nov. 18.—Camp Roosevelt on the Little Sunflower was abandoned at 6 o'clock this evening and President Roosevelt departed without having killed a bear, or even had a shot at one. Guide MacDougald was the only one of the party who killed a bear, and the carcass is now in an ice box being taken to Washington where it is Roosevelt's purpose to have a bear dinner at the White House. The president is well satisfied with his trip though, as he has had a magnificent outing, and has enjoyed personal meetings with southern planters and business men.

He is charmed with their personality and feels that he has come nearer to understanding the southern point of view on delicate questions than he could have got at ten thousand interviews at the White House. The party were entertained tonight on private car of Stuyvesant Fish of the Illinois Central as the train was speeding toward Memphis, where the president will deliver a speech tomorrow night.

SOCIALISTS WILL CAPTURE FEDERATION

New Orleans, Nov. 18.—The socialists have begun an active campaign to capture the American Federation of Labor, and failed today only by a few votes. At the convention last year the socialists were overwhelmingly defeated, and the remarkable show of strength today shows that the radical element will surgly capture the federation next year. Victor L. Berger, delegate from the Milwaukee council, is leading the socialist element. The vote today was on a proposition to pension all workmen over sixty years of age. There was a lively debate on the measure which was defeated by the close vote of 94 to 85. Gompers is not a socialist, and at the next election his defeat is looked for.

PLOT TO KILL ROOSEVELT

A CONVERTED WOMAN ANARCHIST MAKES SENSATIONAL DISCLOSURE.

Fate of those Chosen and Pledged at Different Times to Assassinate President.

THREE MEN AND A WOMAN TOOK THEIR OWN LIVES

THE WOMAN DECLARES THERE ARE MILLIONAIRES IN THE ANARCHIST ORDER WHO ARE FASCINATED WITH ITS DOCTRINES.

New York, Nov. 18.—Mrs. Lena Dexheimer, of Hoboken, a close acquaintance of Emma Goldman and until recently one of the inner circle of an anarchist group tells a remarkable story of plots to assassinate President Roosevelt. The woman was recently converted at Hoboken in the First Methodist church and her confession made to her pastor, Rev. Charles Meade. The woman says she held active relations with the anarchists for nineteen years and knew of their plans. In her statement she says the anarchists first planned to assassinate Roosevelt on November 15, 1901, at the Yale bicentennial at New Haven. A Frenchman named Melor was the anarchist chosen to do the deed. He arrived on a Red Line steamship and Mrs. Dexheimer with other anarchists met him at the pier.

"I pleaded with him late," she says, "not to be an assassin, and I caused the police to be notified and he was closely watched while here. He returned to Paris and committed suicide because he had failed to fulfill his oath. Mrs. Dexheimer says there are millionaires in the anarchist order who are fascinated with the reds doctrine.

INQUIRY WILL BE LONG DRAWN OUT

Scranton, Pa., Nov. 18.—Another large crowd was in attendance today when the arbitration committee began its fourth day's sitting. Mr. Mitchell, who has been on the stand since last Friday, took his place in the witness box and his cross-examination by Wayne MacVeagh, for the Erie company, was resumed. It was the general opinion of attorneys today that some arrangement will have to be made to shorten the inquiry. At the rate progress is now being made it will take many weeks to hear both sides to the controversy. If counsel takes no action it is likely the commission will suggest that something be done. The commissioners recognize that President Mitchell is the most important witness while he is on the stand. He being the president of the union, his opinions are looked upon as official and also as reflecting the policy of the organization.

Before proceeding to the examination, J. T. Lenahan, of Wilkesbarre, one of the attorneys for the non-union men who want the commission to take up their case, handed to the commission a list of 2000 names of non-union men as his authority for appearing before the arbitrators. He did not wish the commission to make the names public at this time, but as Chairman Gray said everything filed with the commission was public matter, the names were unofficially handed in and were not given out for publication. He also filed a statement of the non-union demands which were published this morning.

Mr. MacVeagh, in resuming his cross examination, said he would be glad to get an expression as to the influence of acts of violence upon the temper and disposition of union men said to have been committed by them. The witness said that he would not assume that the acts of violence were true. "If," said he, "Forest City," which had been referred to, "would be an example of all towns and cities in the anthracite field, it would indicate that we were a very law-abiding, religious people."

"The question," Mr. MacVeagh said, "is whether or not you have taken the proper method to prevent a repetition of violent acts when they have occurred."

He did not care, he said, by whom these were committed. "What I am trying to show," he continued, "is that there is a growing spirit of violence and disregard of law in your organization and that your influence over them is insufficient to keep them law-abiding and peaceable as you desire them to be."

Under this arraignment of the union, Mr. Mitchell retained his complete composure. The question met with a ready response.

"The fear that my influence," said he, "is not sufficient to deter men from the commission of crimes is a contradiction of the claims often made about me."

He was free to say that some men have been deterred from going to work because of violence, but the strike itself lost more in public opinion by reason of that than it could possibly gain.

The cross-examiner and the witness then plunged into a spirited colloquy over the question of whether one man has a right to prevent another man from selling his labor. The best answer Mr. MacVeagh could draw from the miners' chief was that he did not approve of any one committing an unlawful act.

Mr. MacVeagh read a statement regarding the right to strike as belonging to the personal freedom of workmen. He also took the view that in exercising that freedom those who cease to work must not interfere with the liberty of others who wish to work.

"We do not want anarchy," said Mr. Mitchell, "and that is anarchy pure and simple—the right of every man to do absolutely as he pleases regardless of its effect on society."

"This is the language of a very carefully disguised anarchy," said Mr. MacVeagh, "because it is the language of Archbishop Ireland."

Archbishop Ireland never expected it to be used in that sense. I might say Archbishop Ireland is a member of a committee of which I am also a member, which has declared for a trade union idea."

Answering a further question, Mr. Mitchell declared that if Archbishop Ireland's statement meant that men have no right to picket, he disagreed with him. Mr. Mitchell added that he did not know that the archbishop was regarded as a supreme court on trade union matters.

The council and the witness wandered from the rules in the cross-examination and indulged in argument over the propriety of any one criticising acts and decisions of courts.

Mr. MacVeagh thought it was wrong to follow such a course and that it tends to breed anarchy. Mr. Mitchell said he was pleased to say the courts as a rule are fair, but he regretted that in the course of his experience he had found some judges against labor. He referred to Judge Jackson, of West Virginia, who, he said, had made a great many serious reflections on men who gave up their lives to the cause of labor. He added that there were no anarchists in the trade unions.

Replying to Mr. MacVeagh's questions regarding union men belonging to the national guard, Mr. Mitchell said no "local" in his union had ever expelled a man from the union for belonging to the guard and that no national labor union of any kind had ever done such a thing. A little union in New York state, he said, had taken such action and it had been heralded over the country. He was not responsible for what some other organizations did.

Mr. MacVeagh concluded his cross-examination at this point.

Francis R. Gowen, representing the Lehigh Valley Coal company, followed Mr. MacVeagh and questioned Mr. Mitchell regarding his comparison of wages paid in the bituminous fields as against those paid in the anthracite.
