ASHEVILLE TO BE A HORSE MARKET

Plans For a Large Sale Stable in the Near Future.

Horses Are Getting Scarce in the Kentucky Market.

Asheville Uses a Large Number of Superior Horses.

It is quite probable that Asheville will become an important horse market within the next year. The city is now widely known as a town with many horses, both fine and well bred. A gentleman from a distance is in the city with the idea of opening a sales stable some time next spring. It is his purpose to establish a permanent, substantial horse business that will depend principally on outside markets for support. He said that Kentucky was still the producer of fine stock, but that northern buyers had practically drained the market. Said he: "The first place most of the buyers of fine horses go to is Lexington, Ky. From there they travel the entire blue grass section in search of stock. It is almost impossible to get a car of horses within a radius of a hundred miles. I think that Asheville is a good place for a horse market, as the city itself uses more stock than any town of its size in the south, and many animals can be found in Tennessee and North Carolina to supply the demand for good, sound horses."

Asheville horsemen have experienced much difficulty of late in supplying their demand for horses. Wiley Brown returned from Kentucky within the last two weeks with a car only half filled with stock. He wanted more, but couldn't find them in Kentucky. It costs just the same to ship 18 as it does eight. Dick Weaver went to Lexington, Ky., last week with a New York gentleman for the purpose of buying several horses. Mr. Weaver said every effort possible was made to find desirable horses. The only team offered him that was satisfactory had a $600 value on them. He says they were nothing extra, either. These statements tend to prove the idea that it is profitable to see other markets than those of Kentucky for horses.

MISSOURI Y. M. C. A.

St. Joseph, Mo., Nov. 20.—The twenty-sixth annual convention of the Y. M. C. A. of Missouri has attracted to this city a crowd of earnest Christian workers not only from all parts of this state, but from other states as well. The First Baptist church was crowded to the doors this afternoon when the convention was formally opened with a prayer service, led by E. W. Peck, state secretary of Missouri. The sessions are to continue through Sunday. Prominent among the speakers to address the gathering are Walter Williams, editor of the Columbia Herald, Rev. W. A. Quayle of Kansas City, C. S. Ward, field secretary of the international committee, Fred B. Shipp, railroad secretary of the international committee, Judge Selden P. Spencer, of St. Louis, and John Lake of Kentucky. In addition to the interesting papers and addresses the convention will be made unusually attractive by a fine musical program.

NEW SYSTEM AT HENDERSONVILLE

To Be Installed by Asheville Telephone Company.

Will Be Similar to the One Used in Asheville.

Talk of Bell Company Also in Stalling System.

The Asheville Independent Telephone company is about to launch another big enterprise. The company proposes to build an entire new telephone system in Hendersonville. All the necessary material and appliances have been ordered and the company will begin the work right away and have the new equipment finished within the next month. The present plant, a common return system, will be replaced by a metallic system, such as the one used in Asheville. Manager Proctor said yesterday that everything connected with the plant would be new. The old poles and wires will be torn down and a new switchboard installed. This means much for Hendersonville and will be an advantage to Asheville, as communication with persons in Hendersonville will be much more satisfactory in the future, because conversation can be more easily understood. It has been said that the Bell Telephone company intended installing a new plant in that town if they could secure enough subscribers in advance to justify the expense.

DELAY IN SALE OF ROAD

Utica, N. Y., Nov. 20.—This was the date set by the United States circuit court for the sale of the New York and Ottawa railroad, but as an appeal has been interposed no further steps in the direction of disposing of the property will be taken until the Supreme court has passed on the question. It is said that the Delaware and Hudson Canal company and the New York Central company are both anxious to get control of this road, which touches many adirondack points and has a valuable right of way through other sections of the mountain region.

THE LIFE OF

The Man Behind the Desk.

"Coffee soaked me hard for about three years and I was troubled with indigestion, headaches and drowsiness; I had no appetite and could not sleep and I was steadily losing flesh all the time. I had spent a small fortune on medicine and doctor's bills; I consulted several doctors, one told me that I had liver trouble, another told me that I had kidney trouble, others prescribed remedies for numerous complaints, but none helped me and I finally looked upon my bad stomach as a part of my miserable existence, giving up all hope of ever being myself again. I knew that the cause of it was all due to office work, which precluded sufficient bodily exercise and the eating of non-nourishing and non-digestive food, and the drinking of tea and coffee. I had to quit my work as I lost my mental and physical strength. A friend of mine, who weighs about 240 lbs. and who looks the picture of health advised me to use Grape-Nuts as a food and drink Postum Cereal Coffee. He said that his perfect health was due to the use of these two pure cereals. He said that they would build up the delicate cells of the brain and body and restore me to health. I acted on his advice and have no cause to regret it. I have now been using Grape-Nuts and Postum Coffee for some time and am in perfect health and weigh 10 lbs. more than I ever did. Grape-Nuts Food is the crystallized essence of all cereals. I eat it four times a day, prepared with cream, and also by pouring some of it out of the box into my hand and then eating it. Postum Coffee has also helped me greatly." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

BREESSE'S THIRD TRIAL BEGINS

Mr. Holton's Motion for a Continuance Is Denied.

The Jury Is Composed Entirely of Farmers.

S. T. Dorsett First Witness Introduced by Government.

Special to the Gazette. Charlotte, Nov. 20.—The trial of Maj. William E. Breese, charged with being implicated in the wrecking of the First National Bank of Asheville, was begun in the Federal court here this morning. Judge Henry C. McDowell is the presiding judge. The selection of the jury only consumed a short time of the morning session of the court. The 12 men who are to pass upon the guilt or innocence of the three defendants—Breese, Dickerson and Penland—are all farmers and hail from the counties of Mecklenburg, Polk, Rutherford, Cabarrus and Cleveland. It is an intelligent jury and a business-like one. After the selection of a jury and the hearing of several minor motions, the court took a recess from 12 to 2 o'clock. At the opening of the afternoon session District Attorney Holton asked for a continuance in so far as Breese was concerned, because of the absence of government witness, who, it is claimed, is in Chattanooga. The motion was denied and Judge McDowell ordered the trial of the cause to proceed.

S. T. Dorsett of Asheville, formerly teller of the bank, was the first witness introduced for the government. His testimony was of a technical nature, showing the condition of the bank at a certain period; also as to the condition of Breese's account with the bank. The prosecution expect to show by Dorsett's testimony that Breese was drawing money out of the bank when he had none to his credit. Prominent witnesses for the government are expected to arrive tonight from New York and Richmond. Judge McDowell ordered that the court would hold a two-hours' session nightly.

NOVEL IDEA IN CHESS.

Living Game Planned on Gigantic Scale For Delhi Durbar.

Living games of chess are not new, but that form of the entertainment which has been half seriously, half jokingly, suggested as one for the Delhi durbar is a decided novelty, says a cable dispatch from London to the New York American and Journal. The idea is said to have been suggested by a noted Indian chess player named Khurshedjee Sorabjee Jussawalla, but the scheme is so ambitious that Lord Curzon hesitates about giving it his official sanction.

It is suggested that each square of the "chessboard" should be of a superficies of twenty feet, that the players should be clad in glittering silver and gold dresses, that a band should play during the performance and 101 guns be kept in readiness to be fired singly at every "check" and all together at "checkmate."

Spare elephants and camels, all trained, are to be kept in readiness to replace any who get into difficulties during the game, and the kings are to drive motors. The "chessboard" will be 25,600 feet square.
