CITY NEWS

The Asheville Hardware Company. The work of moving the fire bell is now going on and in spite of the inclement weather men were at work all day yesterday. A scaffolding was built around the bell to enable the men to work with more ease.

Dog Catcher Black says that his captures number over 200, although some have been taken out of the pound by their owners. He is afraid, however, that his business is rapidly declining, as there are very few now in the pound and his catches have not been numerous for the past few days.

W. W. Goldsmith stated yesterday that there is no marked improvement in the condition of Mrs. Goldsmith, who is very seriously ill.

The next Y. M. C. A. Star course attraction will be presented sometime during December, but the dates have not been definitely arranged as yet.

Work on the car track on Government street has been resumed.

A marriage license was granted yesterday to Earl Surratt and Sallie King, of W. Combe.

The library will be closed Thanksgiving day.

The Willing Workers will meet at Trinity chapel today at 4:30 p. m.

N. B. Ellis, F. N. Clured and H. H. Gibson of Knoxville were at the New Oregon yesterday. They are in town with a large drove of horses which they intend to sell here.

Rev. George W. Muckley of Kansas City, Mo., arrived in the city last evening from Columbia, S. C., and is the guest of Mr. Omer, pastor of the Christian church. Mr. Muckley is corresponding secretary of the church extension board of the American Christian Missionary society. He has filled the office for twelve years and is a most enthusiastic worker, and under his wise leadership the fund has grown from a few thousand dollars to over $350,000. Mr. Muckley will make an address to night at 7:45 o'clock at the Christian church.

Rev. J. E. Gay, who in the future will have charge of the Haywood Street Methodist church, is secretary of the conference board of missions. Mr. Gay has been pastor of the High Point Methodist church for one year, before which time he had a charge in Charlotte for two years.

There were five cases in police court yesterday. Four women were up on charge of an affray. Two were acquitted and two were found guilty. One Edgar Baldwin had the privilege of paying a fine for wife beating.

The annual sermon to the Jr. O. U. A. M. is to be preached on the first Sunday in December by Rev. Frank Siler.

The French Broad council, Jr. O. U. A. M., intend to place a large U. S. flag over the new West End school house as soon as the building is completed.

Work on the Y. M. C. A. building has ceased for the past few days on account of a lack of material. Shipments of slate have been expected for several days.

A drove of mules arrived from Tennessee yesterday. Part of them will be sold on the Asheville market.

The Southern railway has completed laying a number of sidetracks at the depot. The main line track has been rebalasted for some distance in front of the depot. The work of painting the exterior of the station has been completed with the exception of the oblong roof extending to the sidewalk.

A rather novel innovation will be enjoyed by those who attend the Battery Park dance tomorrow evening. Traps will constitute part of the orchestra and will give much life and vigor to the music. The addition is one seldom had in the dances of the past. The invitation list is a long one and the event promises to be one of the largest attended affairs of the year.
