DIRECTOR OF BANK TESTIFIES HE NEVER PASSED ON NOTES

R. R. Rawls, Who Later Became ALL ARE EXPECTED Vice President of the First National Bank, a Witness Today.

ADDITIONAL NOTES FEATURE OF AFTERNOON SESSION

Names Procured by S. T. Dorsett of Mr. Penland's Instance-More About the Purefoy Loan, Etc.

Reuben R. Rawls, one time owner and proprietor of the Swannanoa hotel; a member of the board of directors and vice-president of the defunct in the Breese-Pendand-Dickerson trial before Judge Newman on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the bank and embezzlement of the bank's monies.

Mr. Rawls testified on direct exam ination that he was not connected with the discount committee; never passed on any notes; did not know of any discounts at time they were made; borrowed money from the bank and gave solvent security; owed the bank $3000 when it failed: the loan was secured. Witness testified that he was at times overdrawn; that if overdraft continued for any time it was covered with solvent security. Witness never authorized loan on Leonard, Ander-son, Parker, Bradley and Calais notes; never authorized any loans at all, never was consulted as a director in regard to the loans; knew little about the bank's management. Witness testified that if notes came before him at all and he did not recollect they were passed without examination; simply tallied notes with the list to see that they were all there. Mr. Rawls remembered signing a also identified another letter letter in Breese's handwriting. The letter stated that indebtedness of Dickerson had been reduced $2,250 and Penland's indebtedness reduced The letter referred to overdrafts and said "take Rawis' case. In reaching the agreement Senator Bailey intimated there would be considerable discussion of the proposed concurrent resolution to correct the hide and leather paragraph. This suggestion was endorsed by Senator Bacon, who said that several senators might desire to correct other paragraphs. This remark was interpreted to mean that the minority would make a diligent effort to have cotton bagging placed on the free list, at the same time duties on boots and shoes and harness and saddlery are lowered. The senate adjourned until noon tomorrow. Washington, Aug. 3 .- Senators to day agreed to take a vote on the tariff

No sooner had the senate convened than members were reminded of yes-terday's disturbance over th eleather schedule of the tariff bill. The sub ject was introduced by Senator Cul-berson, who, referring to the decision of the conference committee to bring in a joint resolution remodeling the letter to the comptroller of the currency with other officers including Breeze, Penjand and Dickerson. Every candidate bringing or sending to The Gazette-News office five new yearly subscriptions to The Gazette-News, $25, to be delivered by carrier, or six new yearly subscrip-tions to The Gazette-News, $24, to be delivered by mail, between Monday, July 26, and midnight, Saturday, August 7, will be awarded a voting certificate for 50,000 votes additional to the regular scale. two-years subscription will be counted as two yearly subscriptions.

This is positively the largest bonus offer that will be made during the entire contest and each candidate may secure as many of these clubs as possible. In order to be absolutely fair and impartial, this. offer will include all new yearly business heretofore

Candidates who have taken short term subscriptions for three months, four months, or six months, may secure credit for a full year's vote by getting the subscribers to increase the length of their subscriptions to one year, the contestant will be given credit for the difference between the number of votes issued on the short term subscription and the full number scheduled for a year, all subscriptions ex-tended to a full year will be counted in this great bonus offer. Where contestants can increase the term of a subscription from one to two or more years this same rule will apply Any one who has sub-scribed since this contest began will be considered a new subscriber throughout the life scriber will be credited according to the scale of votes on new subscriptions.

"I am master of my soul; I am master of my fate." Can you say this of yourself, or are you one of this army of contestants who lack control self, who cannot master the situation, who cannot command their own pow ers and faculties to carve out success? testant is the lack of self-control. Do not be among those who lose their capacity of getting subscriptions, and thereby securing votes. Canvass your self thoroughly, and find out why you have not secured enough new scriptions to win one of the 50,000 extra voting certificates, and you will find it is because you have not con-trolled yourself. You possibly have shown lack of interest and your shown lack of interest and your friends were not so willing to help you. Show them you are enthusiastic, you are in the race to win, and your
