PATHETIC STORY OF A BILLY GOAT

was consigned the express agent gave it up; but he asked the old porter where he thought the goat was going. The old negro looked up, and after scratching his head and turning around about three times finally answered: "Well, I tell you, boss, you don't know and I don't know, an' de goat dun cheened up de fact" and so it is with every candidate and the contest man. He doesn't know, nor you don't know, nor does anyone who will win the prizes, and in this manner will the contest be conducted down to the last and when everybody will be excited and nervous and still a number will be suspicious of their own grandfathers, much more someone outside of the family.

Candidates are cautioned and urged to take advantage of the present bonus offer, and remember the extra votes for 30,000 additional to the regular vote on old business expires at midnight Saturday, August 21, which will be the last chance to secure this number of votes on each club of old subscribers. Also remember you have but five more working days in which to earn a voting certificate for 10,000 votes additional to the regular vote on new subscriptions. This offer expires midnight Wednesday, August 25. By a little consistent and conscientious work you will have no trouble in winning one or more of these certificates so wake up and get busy now. Don't be a Rip Van Winkle, however. Old "Rip" was a very lucky man so watch the somewhat ancient song, for then Rip was not very long on industry, effort, activity, energy, ambition, or any of that sort of thing that goes to make up prize-winning contests, where things of great intrinsic value are at stake.

And the way some of the contestants are sleeping away their opportunity is enough to give the contest manager a headache right now, and to give some of those same disciples of Rip a worse one when the race is over, and they could have won so easily, by securing one or more of the extra voting certificates the contest department is so generously offering.

Those Magnificent Prizes.

Some of the contestants are putting up a nice fight. There are quite a few good live hunters who will not doubt make it interesting for the public cars, but how about those district prizes, aren't they worth a little work and considerable thought? Just think of it—five Story & Clark pianos, five one-hundred-dollar bank accounts, five bedroom suits, five $65 ladies' and gentlemen's tailored suits, five $50 Turkish rockers, five $25 alligator bags, five $20 Eastman kodaks. Anyone of the above is worth looking for, especially when your "work" is as easy as falling off a log, and that is what contestants say about getting subscriptions to The Gazette-News. One of the pretty little misses said the other day, "Why, it is not the least bit of trouble; it only gives me an opportunity to get out and see my friends, and those whom I can't see in person, all I have to do is to drop them a line and tell them the name of the paper for which I am soliciting and a check for a year's subscription follows in the next mail." Now that little girl's friends are not only helping her to win a prize, but they are getting value received for their money; why not settle on the prize you most desire today? Get busy and start out at once and don't put off until tomorrow, remember that one today is worth two tomorrow, also bear in mind that the source of power is in human emotion—in human desire—one generally gets what they work for, and in just the measure they work for it. The measure of success is the measure of desire. Opportunity is now battering at your door, what are you going to do about it?

HIS LIFE CRUSHED OUT BY BAND WAGON WHEEL

Unknown Negro Conveys Man With the Haag Shows Killed—Had Gone to Sleep.

An unknown negro, who had been working with the Haag shows, was crushed to death last night at the show grounds, near the passenger depot by the band wagon. All efforts to identify the negro, who appeared to be about 20 years of age, have been without success, as the showmen said that they did not know his name; that they had picked him up when passing through Manassas, Va., some time ago. No very close check is kept on circus conveyances. An inquest was held last night by Coroner E. R. Morris, and the body turned over to an undertaker for burial, at the expense of the Haag shows.

It seems that the negro had gone to sleep under the wagon, and when it was moved last night to load on the train, the wheel of the heavy vehicle passed over the body, crushing his left shoulder and the skull. The man was pushed along the ground for a space of more than a foot before the wheel passed over him. Some papers, with the name Clifford Johnson, aged 28, was found in his pockets, but as he does not seem to be that old it is thought that the papers do not bear his name. It was some time after the wagon had passed over the body before it was noticed.

BLOCKADING IN CHEROKEE.

Four Stills Broken Up in July—The County Has Paid Out Some $500 for Stills.

"Four blockade stills," says the Cherokee Scout of Murphy, "were captured by the local authorities during the month of July, one on Beaverdam and three on Hangingdog. For each of these stills the officers were paid $20, making all told $80. The county has paid out close to $500 for the capture of blockade stills since this law went into effect some six or eight months ago. Deputy Sheriff McDonald says that in his opinion Cherokee county is free of blockading than it has been in several years, that he hears of but two more stills and he means to have them. We hope he is right, for if many more stills are captured the county will go broke."

What would you think of a person who would try to fill a jug without first pulling out the cork? 7 2 2 2 I think the same thing of one who sleeps out doors and expects to get fresh air into the affected part of the lungs when his chest is six inches too small and has less than half normal expansion. My expansion is 9 1 1 2. What is yours? Yours, Prof. Herbert.

YOUTHFUL ADVENTURER HELD BY THE POLICE

Waynesville Lad in Durance Until His Folks Send Someone to Get Him.

Kenneth Shelton, a boy 12 to 13 years of age, who says he is a son of Mrs. Robert Shelton of Waynesville, was arrested this morning at the passenger station by Patrolman Condon and held at City Hall to await the arrival of someone from Waynesville to take Kenneth back to his mother. While there is no specific charge registered against the boy, it is said that he was attempting to board an east-bound train this morning, having along with him a small white phobias dog, which had "taken up with him." The conductor noticed him, and finding that he had no ticket, and was evidently trying to "hobo," turned him over to the officer.

Sergeant B. H. Williams this morning communicated with the chief of police of Waynesville concerning the boy, and received instruction to hold him until he could be sent for, as his people in Waynesville were apprehensive as to what had become of him, and were making a search for him. Kenneth was very uncommunicative when seen at police headquarters this morning. He said that he left Waynesville yesterday afternoon with his brother, and came to Asheville to see the show. He would not say where he spent the night, but did say that he saw his brother on the train this morning as it was pulling out and wanted to get on the train with him. Asked if this was the first time he had ever left home this way, Kenneth would only say no, but would not tell anything further. He is a bright looking boy, light, tan hair, barefoot, and has face and hands and feet covered with soot and dirt. He says he is only 11 years of age. While the sergeant was busy this morning writing up the police report, Kenneth found some blue ink on another desk, and soon he had his hands blue, and blue ink spots on his face where he had touched his fingers and had blued up the desk and some paper on it.

Kenneth Shelton's brother came over from Waynesville this afternoon and took Kenneth back to Waynesville. He said that the boy ran away yesterday afternoon, but came to Asheville to himself.

MRS. JOHNSON KNOWS

She Says That Parisian Sage is the Only Hair Tonic That Ever Benefitted Her Hair.

Parisian Sage is the quick acting hair grower that can now be obtained in America and that is guaranteed by Smith's drug store to cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

Mrs. Johnson is too modest; she fails to state that she has a most charming and luxuriant head of lustrous hair.

"Parisian Sage is the only hair tonic that ever benefitted my hair, which was very thin on the top of my head. I began using Parisian Sage and used it daily for a while, afterwards I used according to directions. I am absolutely positive that it will thoroughly cleanse the scalp and hair, stop irritation, eradicate dandruff, stimulate the growth of the hair, prevent baldness, and make the hair soft and silky. I would not be without Parisian Sage."

—Mrs. Sue Johnson, 229 4th street, Frankfort, Ky.

Parisian Sage is a most delicately perfumed hair dressing and has not a particle of stickiness or greasiness in it. It will not stain or dye the hair and contains nothing that would injure any hair or scalp.

It is the only hair preparation that is absolutely sure to kill the dandruff germ which Dr. Sabouraud has proven to be the cause of all hair troubles. Women who desire beautiful and luxuriant hair that will attract and fascinate, should use Parisian Sage, leading druggists everywhere sell it. Smith's drug store sells it in Asheville for 50 cents a large bottle, and guarantees it to give satisfaction, or money back. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package.
