Bloated And Sour Stomach

Need No Longer Be Endured by Sufferers from Dyspepsia.

The stomach and intestines always contain, even in health, a small amount of gas. This gas, both from a chemical and mechanical point of view, is to be considered to some extent at least, to good digestion. A great deal of common air is swallowed with the food, and the remarkable facility with which air bubbles are formed in the saliva is referable to this gas in some way employed in the vital processes. But as gases are easily evolved by fermentation and decomposition of food in the stomach and intestine, and as saccharine and other fermentable matter dissolved in fluids are present in the gastrointestinal tube, it results that the aeriform contents are much more complex than is generally supposed.

When digestion is perfectly healthy there can be no fermentation and flatulence but as soon as indigestion occurs carbonic acid gas and various other gases are freely formed in the stomach and bowels, causing much discomfort. The remedies employed for the cure of flatulence may be classified as follows: Those which prevent fermentation, those which favor the expulsion of gas, and those which oxidize and absorb gases. Of the remedies which possess the above properties, charcoal is the only one which has the power of preventing fermentation and decomposition of food, and at the same time absorbing all excess gases in the alimentary channel.

Medicines which expel gases from the stomach, known as carminatives, are not to be compared with a remedy which absorbs the gases and prevents eruptions or belching. STEARNS' CHARCOAL LOZENGES are now used by thousands of people who were formerly subject to fermentation, decomposition, indigestion, flatulence, and from which disagreeable symptoms, through the use of these powerful absorbent lozenges, complete relief has been obtained.

They are made of the finest willow wood, treated by a special, exclusive, carbonizing process, and when sweetened with pure honey, a medicinal product is obtained which is at once palatable and wonderfully effective in curing these complaints. Purchase a box from your druggist at once for 25 cents and give them a fair trial; the result will more than please you. Send us your name and address and a free sample will be forwarded to you by return mail. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 299 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

JULIUS C. MARTIN THE NEW MEMBER

Is Chosen to Succeed Maj. Young, Resigned, as Member of the Police Commission.

MERRIMON AVENUE MATTER GOES OVER FOR A WEEK

R. B. Hampton, Electrical Inspector, Granted Leave of Absence—Auditorium Committee Makes Offer.

At the meeting of the board of aldermen last night, Julius C. Martin was formally elected to succeed Major L. W. Young, resigned, as a member of the police commission, and J. H. Wood was elected vice mayor; these elections being in accordance with a caucus held about a week ago. There was little else before the board save a large amount of routine work. The amendments to the plumbing laws were set for next Friday and a joint session ordered.

The request of F. A. Sommer for a grade for a sewer on Jefferson drive was referred to the sewer committee and the city engineer.

Jesse R. Starnes presented a petition for the opening up of a new street to be known as Elm street, from Merrimon to Central avenues, adjoining J. E. Rankin's property. The matter of widening Merrimon avenue was left open until another week; and the city engineer instructed to furnish an estimate of the cost of the work. A petition was presented from several property owners asking that their names be stricken off the petition for widening, as they understood that they would not have to bear any of the expense of paving. Dr. Ambler stated that he had assurances from the Asheville Electric company that it would bear one-third of the expense.

The resignation of R. B. Hampton as electrical inspector was ordered tabled and Mr. Hampton was granted a leave of absence, his place to be filled by a competent man while away.

The light committee reported unfavorable for lights on St. Dunstan's road, but ordered two on Senev street. The city engineer reported that the Southern railway culvert near Roberts street was 4 1/2 by 4 1/2, and that of the Asheville Coal and Lumber company was much smaller than that; and that the city's culvert was 4 by 4 feet, but recommended that it be enlarged by raising it one foot and arching it so as to avoid any possibility of danger from floods in the future. The city engineer further stated that in his opinion the city was not liable to the Asheville Coal and Lumber company for damages owing to a flood of water last day.

A motion was passed that owners of property on Roberts street be notified to rebuild culverts so as to carry the water; the street superintendent was notified to repair the sidewalk on Roberts street.

The public safety committee introduced an ordinance without recommendation that all vehicles whatsoever be required to have side lights at night. The ordinance failed to pass first reading.

The special tax committee reported that they had nothing to do with dance halls and recommended that the chief of police close them if they become nuisances.

A jury was ordered placed on S. Starnes' and S. A. Reid's property on northern Asheville avenue to assess damages for a sewer line through to Smith street.

The Asheville Auditorium company, through Duff Merrick, its president, formally tendered the auditorium to the city for $22,500, the price put on it by the board of appraisers. The matter of whether it should be accepted was referred to a committee consisting of the mayor, the corporation counsel, and Aldermen Glenn Patterson and Young to report next Friday night.

The bill of J. M. Campbell for $200 rent alleged to be due by the city on Newton academy was referred to the corporation counsel, as the bill is now in litigation between Mr. Campbell and the school committee.

The Asheville Electric company was ordered to repair the pavement between its tracks on South Main street; and the property owners on Merrimon avenue were ordered to lay a brick sidewalk from North Main to Orange streets.

Otis L. Green Hardware company was given the contract to repair the market house roof, and guarantee it for one year for $275.25.

The report of the jury on the grading of Blanton street was rejected, as there was $450 damages and no benefits.

The request for the re-establishment of a dunking in city hall was referred to the police commission with power to act. Alderman Van Winkle complained that hackmen were not observing the ordinance strictly regarding display of side lights at night with the number of their license. The chief of police was directed to rigidly enforce the ordinance. M. H. Kelly was awarded the contract for laying over 600 feet of water line on Spring street, for $492. The bid of J. B. Rich for this work was $647.16. Building permits were granted as follows: J. M. Kingsmore, 4 room residence, 123 O. street; estimated cost $460. C. T. Williams, 8 room residence, 54 Davidson street; estimated cost $1500. C. N. Brown, repairs, 23 Flint street; estimated cost $120. J. M. Street, estimated cost $1500. Bartlett street; estimated cost $1500. Hatfield Way, 2 room cottage, Mack street; estimated cost $200.

Capt. Fretzler to Command. Washington, Oct. 15.—Capt. Augustus F. Fretzler had been selected to command the new battleship South Carolina, which soon will be placed in commission.
