Cadwalader-Roebing Wedding.

Trenton, N. J., Oct. 21.—A wedding that united two families of great social prominence took place today, when Miss Emily Roebing, daughter of Charles G. Roebing, became the bride of Richard McCall Cadwalader of Philadelphia. The ceremony took place shortly after the noon hour in Trinity Episcopal church, the Rev. Hamilton Schuyler officiating. Many guests were in attendance from New York, Philadelphia and other points.

The bride is widely known in New Jersey for her charitable work and for her membership on the committee appointed by Governor Fort to inquire into the condition of the blind in this state. Her father is president of the John A. Roebing Sons company, and is one of the wealthiest men in New Jersey.

Mr. Cadwalader, the bridegroom, is the son of Richard Cadwalader, formerly of Trenton, and is a member of a prominent Philadelphia banking firm. He is a popular clubman and well known in society.

Want to Hold American Trade.

Berlin, Oct. 21.—A committee headed by Herr Schudekuppe, manager of the export department of the German potash syndicate, left for New York today for the purpose of negotiating direct with the American fertilizer companies in the hope that something may be done to save part of the American market for the syndicate's products. The syndicate has up to the present time controlled the potash business of the world, inasmuch as Germany has a monopoly of these salts, and it is now in danger of losing the whole American market, amounting to 60 per cent of the export trade, valued at $7,000,000, either to the German mines outside the syndicate or to members of the syndicate who contracted heavily with American fertilizing companies, while the syndicate was temporarily dissolved the early part of July.

This season Cecil Spooner, the comedienne, is to be seen in a new play, "The Little Terror," a drama by Amelia Wood Holbrook. Miss Holbrook first saw the story in a magazine, and gained the consent of the author and the publishers to its dramatization.

SURVEY OF STATE FROM THE CAPITAL

There Were 706 Convicts at the Penitentiary Yesterday, the Smallest Number in 40 Years.

MANY IMPROVEMENTS AT THE STATE FARM

Good Crows Are Attending the State Fair, and Weather Conditions Could Not Be Better.

The Gazette-News Bureau, Chamber of Commerce Rooms, Holleman Building, Raleigh, Oct. 21.

In the penitentiary there were yesterday only 706 convicts, the smallest number in the past 40 years. Few convicts have been sent in during the autumn, the number is dwindling all the time. The penitentiary authorities will have to expend about $6,000 on the improvements of the state farm on the Roanoke river, and on new stables there, and will have to sell about 49 males and young ones. This year at the farm there were in cultivation about 3000 acres, and about 700 acres of this land was flooded and the corn on it swept away. Last year a freshet caused the loss of 25,000 bushels of corn, and as much was destroyed this year, so that in the two years there was a direct loss of $50,000, simply because the dyke, which was swept away in 1901 were not rebuilt. It will require about three-fourths of a mile of dyke, about thirty feet high and about 30 feet wide at the top, according to experts, and the cost will be something like $50,000.

A circular was issued from the office of the adjutant general today stating that the war department will this month send out important studies, in tactics and maps, for field work, and officers are urged to study these subjects, so as to be better prepared for active service in the field.

Protection of Birds. It is said that in this county, where the Audubon Bird protection law is in force, it has been admirably kept, the warden saying he has not heard of a killing of any partridges, while in Johnston, where there is no law, the people have been shooting birds right along, one lawyer having told the warden here a few days ago that he had killed 17 partridges.

The crowd yesterday at the state fair was a record breaker for Wednesday. Weather conditions were fine and there is only praise for the exhibits at the fairgrounds, which very far excel those heretofore shown. The White Furniture company shows solid mahogany furniture, part of an order of $1500 sold to the war department for use in officer's quarters at various posts.

The Decrees Filed. The decrees of Judge Pritchard for the sale of the Norfolk & Southern Air Line and the turning over of the latter to the new organization, were filed in the district court here.

In the Federal court there was filed the papers in the voluntary bankruptcy of J. W. Thurman, merchant of Rocky Mount, the liability $3000, assets $500.

Young—Andrews. Maj. John H. Andrews, son of Col. A. B. Andrews, and for a number of years connected with the Southern Railway is to be married about the middle of November to Miss Mabel Young, daughter of Insurance Commissioner James A. Young.

The Southern Textile association met in the Pullen memorial hall at the Agriculture and Mechanical college yesterday with a very large attendance, representing mills and various parts of the south. The papers read were by Wm. Nelson, for years in the Textile school at Lowell, Mass., on weaving; Alfred N. Landau, on the spinning frame; G. F. King of King's Mountain, on power economy in mills; W. P. Hazelwood of Atlanta on Humidifiers; A. S. Winslow of Clinton, S. C., on care of the health of operators. The Central hospital for the Insane and Epileptics here decides to get elec-

Beautiful Line of Capes

This morning's express brought us some of the handsomest Capes you have seen this Fall. They are in Evening and Street Shades, and we wish you to pass your judgment on these beautiful garments. They are priced at from $16.50 to $27.50. Cheaper ones from $7.50 to $10.00. See window display.

trictly from the Carolina Light & Power company of Raleigh and water from the Raleigh Water company. The mains and wires are ready. In two weeks the colony buildings for epileptics are to be opened for use.

Mr. Stokely Grand Dictator. The Grand Lodge of Knights of Honor, in session here elected R. J. Stokely of Asheville Grand Dictator; R. J. Peele of Williamstown vice-grand; P. C. Carlton of Statesville, reporter; S. C. Scofield of Davidson College, treasurer; G. L. Kirkpatrick of Kinston, guardian; J. F. Hardison of Jamesville Guide; F. O. Hawley of Charlotte, chaplain. There are 48 subordinate lodges.

The state board of health says that only 16 cases of pellagra have been reported to it in North Carolina. The papers have had a lot to say about mysterious rains which fell in some neighborhoods and was found to be due to little insects, which are thick on the stems of certain trees and drink the juices, which falls in a spray upon the grounds. These are aphids, plant lice, or some people call them ant cows, because certain ants drink the juice from them; in fact stroke them with their antennae or feelers, in order to make them "give down" the juice which the ants love.

The Supreme Court. Before the Supreme court yesterday there was argument in a case involving the question of five new bridges over the Cape Fear and Deep rivers, these having cost about $15,000; the point being what per cent of the cost should be borne by Chatham county and how much by Lee, the latter county having been largely taken from Chatham. Some Chatham people have said that Lee was the vest part of the county, but others deny this.

In the Hall of History in the State Museum the homewardbound pennant flown from the main top of the cruiser Raleigh on her return to the United States after the battle of Manila, in 1898, has been draped, with very pleasing effect. Its length is 550 feet long and it is a very fine China silk, bought by the soldiers on the vessel. The ship's flags are also in the Hall of History.

The A. and M. Cadets. The A. and M. College cadets are a decided attraction at the fair. Such experts as Gen. Carl Woodruff, Lt. J. S. E. Young say they never looked so smart as they do now. There are four large companies, and a very good band. The battalion has never been out of Raleigh and this is regretted. It ought to be taken to some of the great celebrations, at such points as Asheville, Charlotte, Greensboro, Wilmington, etc., and it would certainly make a brave show at the Taft celebration at Wilmington. It is really a credit to North Carolina, and yet it is only on view to the public once a year, and once in each four years at the inauguration of the governor.

store building on their lot near the Southern depot. It is to be a two story structure.

Declares Dividend. The French Broad Hustler company, incorporated, had declared a 20 per cent dividend to its stockholders, of which 5 per cent is to be paid in cash, while the remaining surplus will be expended in new material. The capital stock of this company is $5000. M. L. Shipman is president and T. R. Barrows business manager.

Water Question Settled. That Hendersonville shall have pure water in the future is the determined outcome of a recent meeting of the council. It was ordered by this body that all springs furnishing water to the reservoir shall be cemented up and all water piped to the reservoir. The lowest estimate of this work is $1000.

Oscar Drake was tried before Magistrate Dornid yesterday on a charge of larceny. He was accused of stealing a shot-gun, for which he was found "guilty," and bound over to Superior court under a $50 certified bond.

Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Drafts are visiting in Asheville.

Misses Juno and Brownie Morris have returned from a visit to Asheville.

Judge J. L. Pace left yesterday to attend court in Polk county. Mrs. Lyn Carter of Idaho has arrived in Hendersonville for an extended visit with relatives and friends. The following are among those registered at the Hotel Gates: J. E. Merrill of Jacksonville, R. H. Morrow of Toxaway, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Raymer of Statesville, S. E. Guire of Jonesboro, Tenn., T. A. Lynn North Carolina, John C. Orr of Asheville. Mr. Pearson had a talk this forenoon with Judge Ewart and republicans and left at 10 o'clock for Asheville.

IF YOU HAVE CATARRH

Let Me Send You a Treatment of My Catarrh Cure. It's Free.

I am Willing to Take Any Case of Catarrh, No Matter How Chronic, or What Stage It Is In, and Prove, ENTIRELY AT MY OWN EXPENSE That It Can Be Cured.

Curing Catarrh has been my business for years, and during this time over one million people from all over the land have come to me for treatment and advice. My method is original. The treatment is both local and constitutional effecting a cure by first curing the cause. Thus my combined treatment cures where all else fails. I can demonstrate to you in just a few days time that my method is quick, sure and complete because it rids the system of the poisonous germs that cause catarrh. Send your name and address at once to C. E. Guass, 5793 Main St., Marshall, Mich., and he will send you the treatment referred to. Simply fill in name on dotted lines below.

RAILROAD TOOLS CAUSING A STIR

Arrival of a Car Load of Them Indicates to Hendersonville Something May Be About to Happen.

The Gazette-News Bureau, Hotel Gates, Hendersonville, Oct. 21.

The sight of a solid car load of railroad contractor's tools shipped here, consigned to W. A. Smith, has created a stir among Hendersonville citizens. While nothing definite has been made known, yet it is rumored in connection with the above that T. C. McNeely has been entirely successful in his northern trip in securing necessary funds towards constructing this end of the Appalachian-Interurban railroad.

Mr. McNeely is expected here today or tomorrow and until his arrival, the meaning of a car load of railroad tools shipped into Hendersonville will not be known to the anxious public.

Cement Crossings Placed. The board of aldermen has given the contract to Henry Jordan for the placing of cement crossings on all side streets leading into Main and Anderson streets. The contracting price amounts to $1250, to be paid out of the Main street sidewalk bonds. To Erect Store Building. W. M. Orr and H. K. Pace will shortly give the contract for a modern
