CAREFUL DOCTOR Prescribed Change of Food Instead of Drugs.

It takes considerable courage for a doctor to deliberately prescribe only food for a despairing patient, instead of resorting to the usual list of medicines.
There are some truly scientific physicians among the present generation who recognize and treat conditions as they are and should be treated regardless of the value to their pockets. Here's an instance:
"Four years ago I was taken with severe gastritis and nothing would stay on my stomach, so that I was on the verge of starvation.
"I heard of a doctor who had a summer cottage near me—a specialist from N. Y., and as a last hope, sent for him.
"After he examined me carefully he advised me to try a small quantity of Grape-Nuts first, then as my stomach became stronger to eat more.
"I kept at it and gradually got so I could eat and digest three teaspoonsful. Then I began to have color in my face, memory became clear, where before everything seemed a blank. My limbs got stronger and I could walk. So I steadily recovered.
"Now after a year on Grape-Nuts I weigh 152 lbs. My people were surprised at the way I grew fleshy and strong on this food."
Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

Transferred—W. W. Peele, J. C. Wooten, F. S. Love, M. Y. Self, C. H. Ross, M. A. Smith, to the North Carolina conference; J. P. Hips to East Columbia conference; V. L. Marsh to Virginia conference; A. H. Whisner to the Baltimore conference.
The sessions of the conference yesterday were interesting in the extreme, as there was much to interest in the call of the twentieth question, when the preachers make reports of the year's work and it is learned in a general way that there has been success.
The introduction by Dr. Scroggs of a resolution to memorialize the general conference to change the name of the church to Episcopal Methodist was the time for objection by several, and the further work on the matter was delayed by a reference to the committee on memorials, where it will slumber or be brought out for an airing later in the day. Bishop Atkins is committed to this and to the brethren, so after the resolution had passed from the hands of the conference, saying that the church had lost more from the proscription in the name in the west with the exception of Texas, than from any other cause, and that every preacher sent into the great and rich west is handicapped at the very start.
"Come On, the World is Waiting."
Such were the words of Bishop Atkins to Rev. J. C. Wooten, when he reported his year's work at Trinity college and told the conference that there were 30 young men there preparing for the ministry. That reality that Prof. Wooten has transferred to the North Carolina conference and it was so announced. He lives in that conference and all his interests are there.
Baptizing Infants.
The reports of the preachers all called for the number of infants baptized and this brought out the fact that some are lax in this while others are very diligent in the matter. One brother said that there are no children in his flock, at which Bishop Atkins marveled, especially among Methodists. One man said that his baby crop was not ripe. But seriously, Rev. E. Myers has baptized 208 in four years, J. W. Jones 103 in two years, and Rev. J. M. Price 78 this conference year. Mr. Myers has the record for emersions also, having put 21 under the water this year, saying that it was the only way to get them in his church, and that he would try to convince them later. The bishop told that this was excellent.
Lexington Banner on Sunday School.
A. L. Stanford reports that his church at Lexington has a membership of 371 and a Sunday school roll of 774. Stress has been laid upon the fact that all churches should have as many in Sunday school as there are in the church, if not more, and the bishop has insisted on that all the same.

Managers Clarence E. Smart has secured a European team to furnish amusement for the patrons of the Gayety this week with the assistance of Claude Austin, a comedy juggler of the first rank, he feels no delicacy in inviting his friends and patrons to call at least once during the week and see the performance, knowing that they will be highly entertained and fully satisfied.
The moving pictures are changed three times each week, and tonight will be your last chance to see "The Actor Burglar," a picture telling the story of how a young man was awakened from his sleep by three burglars entering his house, how he telephoned for police assistance and how he disguised himself as a burglar, joined the party and kept them in the house until assistance arrived.
This is followed by Claude Austin, and eccentric comedy juggler, who is sure to make a hit by the clever way in which he handles dumb bells, cigar boxes, hats, balls or anything which comes in his reach.
George Gale and Maudie Wensley, a comedy sketch team just from Europe, have a string of original jokes which they tell in a pleasing manner, and their songs are sung in a sweet, sympathetic voice which tugs at the heart-strings of their auditors. Their rendition of "Mary's Calves at the Fair" elicited deserved applause.
The Gayety has secured the services of Frank Crommie, a pianist of sixteen years experience, who comes highly recommended, and hereafter the piano music will be a feature.
