Free Remedy For Weak Bowels

There are two forms of bodily cleanliness, the external and the internal. The one is for your pride in yourself; the other for your life and health. Both are important, but of vastly more importance in the long run is the internal cleanliness.

This is one point that all should watch about their body—the cleanliness of the bowels. Keep them clean and free from obstructions. To do this you must have one or two movements of the bowels each twenty-four hours. If your system does not do this naturally, in the process of eating and drinking, then you must obtain aid of some kind. After finding out that cathartics, salts and such things injure you for a day, but bind you up worse than ever the next day, then try a purifier more natural, a remedy like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

For the skeptical the best way to begin is to give your name and address to Dr. Caldwell, care of his office, 1852 Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Use it as directed and if it convinces you that a brief continuance of its use will relieve you permanently—that it will train the stomach and bowel muscles to again work naturally at certain hours—then buy it of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, just as so many others are doing. They began with a sample bottle, then bought a fifty-cent bottle, and now, fully convinced of its merits, they buy the one dollar family size. All the members of the family can use it down to the very youngest.

A brief use of this grand laxative tonic will cure constipation in its worst form. Indigestion, liver trouble, sick headache, sour stomach and such ailments and keep you in continuous good health at a very small cost. Such is the experience of many families like that of Mrs. J. E. Daniel, Saratoga, Tenn., and hundreds of others that could be named.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a few lines and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. C. Caldwell, 1852 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

DR. FRAZER TO BUILD HANDSOME RESIDENCE

Purchases Two Acres in Kimberly Tract; Consideration $2,000.

Dr. Thompson Frazer has purchased from T. M. Kimberly and wife two acres of the Kimberly tract in the Edgemont park vicinity and near the Country club golf course, on which it is understood Dr. Frazer will erect a handsome $8,000 cottage as his permanent home. The price paid for the two acres, according to a deed of conveyance filed for registration in the register's office, was $2,000.

Dr. and Mrs. Frazer have made their home in Crow's Nest cottage in Albemarle park for the past several years, and their friends will be interested in the news that they are to build a home here.

AT THE PALACE.

'The Little Prince,' by Billows, Temple and Bellows, in a pleasing Little Playlet.

The unusual cold weather last night had a tendency to keep the people in and at the fireside and consequently the attendance at the Palace was not up to the Monday night standard, but those who braced the chilly air felt fully repaid and were well pleased with the offerings this week.

The moving pictures showed a splendid line of English and American battleships and implements of naval warfare, something which is never without interest to outsiders, and also gave a picture showing something of turkey raising and their preparation for market. This picture makes you wish Thanksgiving was not so far off.

The Great Keller, the European song and dance artist, gave a splendid exhibition of wire walking, but was handicapped on account of the smallness of the stage, he not being able to arrange his equipment to the best of advantage. He is a great equilibrist and would walk, lie down and even turn a back somersault on the wire with the greatest ease.

'All That I Ask of You is Love,' in the title of a very pretty illustrated love song, which is sung in a pleasing manner by Jesse Clark.

Bellows, Temple and Bellows, a trio who come highly recommended by press notice, presented a one-act drama entitled, 'The Little Prince,' featuring little Albert Bellows, who is a bright chap of only five years, as the Prince. The first scene is little Albert sleeping in his little bed and is awakened by the intrusion of a little 'h' man and woman. The little 'h' man, innocent of their intention to rob, begins talking to them in a divinely child-like manner, telling them of the rights and wrongs of life until their evil intentions are abandoned and the child's entreaties to do right are finally taken by both and they go forth resolving to live a better life. The moral of the playlet is good and it will do no one harm to see it.

Polk Miller.

Nearly every field of entertainment or of enterprise has its host of claimants for the coveted first rank; but when it comes to the delineation of that picturesque and ever-amusing character, the anti-bellum southern negro, Polk Miller of Richmond stands unique and without a rival.

Born and bred in the Old Dominion where 'possums, coons, and 'litle niggers' abound, Mr. Miller had all the opportunities offered by a typical plantation life to become familiar with every twist and turn of the ancient black man's point of view.

It was many years after he had fought his way through the civil war before Mr. Miller attempted to put this knowledge to practical use but finally he found his way to the platform and an ever-growing audience has kept him there since. The 'reason why' was once tersely expressed by General Fitzhugh Lee. 'He has had no predecessor,' said General Lee, 'has no contemporary, and will have no successor.' When Polk Miller is gone the man who can best tell of the old south will have passed away.

With his one-time comrade-in-arms and lifelong friend, 'Tom' Booker of Amelia county, Virginia, Mr. Miller will appear here on Monday night, March 21, at the Auditorium, in the Two Old Confederates, with banjo, song and story will furnish an evening of rare entertainment. To a southern man no more inviting program could be offered. Not the least attractive feature of the concert is the mere personality of the two performers—Virginia gentlemen of that much-criticized school, but steadily thinking 'old school.' There is no doubt about an audience for them in Asheville.

THE HOME PHYSICIAN

This Recipe Makes a Splendid Remedy for Coughs.

The home-made remedy described below will be found a very handy and effective thing to have in the house ready for use. It is simple, pleasant to take, easy to prepare, and lasts a family a long time. It wipes out a cough quickly.

Take a pint of Granulated Sugar, add one-half pint of warm water, and stir about two minutes. Put two and one-half ounces Pinex (50 cents worth) in a pint bottle and fill up with the Granulated Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

Cough preparations, as a rule, are mostly syrup. Granulated Sugar Syrup is both cheap and excellent. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway White Pine Extract and is rich in all the healing elements.

None of the weaker pine preparations can compare with the real Pinex itself. If your druggist hasn't it, he can easily get it for you. This recipe is also splendid for chest pains, whooping cough, hoarseness, bronchitis, etc.

Strained honey can be used instead of the syrup, and makes a very fine 'honey and pine tar' syrup.
