The house vas raided and all inmates were re mired to put up bond for appearance this morning. The second raid on the house occurred about 2 o'clock this morning when, according to Patrolman Jones, in passing the house on his regular beat he heard the vilest talking and the greatest disorder that he had ever seen or heard while on the force. The inmates were again all arrested.

Judge Cocke fined the Wilson womin $10 and costs for being drunk and disorderly and $50 and costs for runent council also held special meet-ngs and took up such matters as Bible ning a disorderly house, with the warning that the next time the woman mission study, membership and was before him a jail sentence would be imposed. ### MR. HOWLAND'S BIPLANE ALL READY EXCEPT MOTOR

The Shed Also Completed-Date Cannot Yet Be Fixed for Initial Flight.

The Airship garage, or barn, or shed, or whatever the home of an air-ship may be called, which Mr. Howland has been building at Weaverville, has been completed, as has also the airship with the exception of the mostruction for the past few weeks. There it sits, or rests, or perches, almost filling the large building which was erected to receive it.

In design it does not differ in any essential from the photographs one sees of other biplanes, and indeed it is just like the others since it was built a contractor of Weaverville, from plans and blue-prints furnished by the

Farman company. The hardware was furnished by a ompany in New York that builds airships, while the wood used in the construction of the craft is the lightest obtainable and was furnished Mr. Howland by a local lumber dealer and was specially kun-dried for the pur-
