

SEN. DANIEL SLEEPS WELL

Beloved Son of Old Dominion Is Gathered to the Fathers—Death Came Last Night at 10:25 O'Clock.

RECURRENCE OF CEREBRAL HEMORRHAGE THE CAUSE

He Belonged to the Old Regime and in Point of Service Was Oldest Democratic Senator—The Funeral.

Lynchburg, Va., June 30.—John W. Daniel, senior senator from Virginia and for more than thirty years Virginia's favorite son, died at the Lynchburg sanatorium at 10:25 last night, his death being due to recurrence of paralysis. The immediate cause of his death was a cerebral hemorrhage sustained at noon yesterday in the right portion of his brain, involving the right side. This was in addition to the paralysis of the left side, which was sustained last winter, while in Florida for his health.

The statesman's illness began with a slight attack of apoplexy in Philadelphia last October, this keeping him from being in his seat at the opening of congress last December. Only once since that had he appeared before an audience and that was for an informal talk in January. Dissolution was very rapid, for when the final and complete failure of heart action began, it progressed with great rapidity and in five minutes the patient was dead.

Those present at the end were Mrs. Daniel and daughter, Mrs. Fred Harper, and son, Edward M. Daniel, Fred Harper, Mrs. S. W. Halsey, the only sister of the deceased and her son, and Dr. Waugh. Soon after death the widow and daughter were driven to the latter's home.

The city fire alarm was sounded for half an hour at intervals of 30 seconds, notifying the city of the statesman's death.

The sergeant at arms of the senate was notified of the senator's death and the family sent numerous messages, after which the members went to their homes.

Funeral Arrangements.

The funeral of Senator Daniel will occur tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock from St. Paul's Episcopal church. The obsequies will be simple in character. The family decided against having a state funeral and the body will not be taken to Richmond to lie in state in the capitol, which had been offered by Governor Mann for that purpose. So intense is the desire of the family for simplicity that there will be no public view of the body at the Daniel home.

Bishop Tucker of the Episcopal diocese of Southern Virginia will conduct the funeral. He will be assisted by Rev. Joseph B. Dunn and Dr. Robert H. Fleming, local ministers. Senators who will honor late Virginia.

Washington, June 30.—Vice-President Sherman appointed the following senators to represent the upper branch of congress at the funeral of the late Senator John W. Daniel, at Lynchburg next Friday: Messrs. Martin, Rayner, Smith of Maryland, Simmons, Dupont, Oliver, Warren, Kean, Bacon, Elkins, Wetmore. Money. House representatives will be represented by entire Virginia congressional delegation.

Representatives Payne of New York; Clark of Missouri; Bingham of Pennsylvania; Hull of Iowa; Tawney of Minnesota, also will be members of the house committee to attend the funeral. Two delegations leave Washington for Lynchburg on a special train at 10 o'clock Friday morning.

Belonged to the Old Regime.

The death of Senator John Warwick Daniel removes the oldest of the democratic senators in point of service. Of the entire list he was the only one who could be said to belong to the old regime. As he was the oldest in service he was one of the most conspicuous in popular favor.

For the past few years he had remained much in the background. His health had not been good and his growing years seemed to tell on him. He was not heard often in the senate and his recent efforts were not his best. But previous to this period he spoke frequently and held high reputation as an orator. In those earlier days his speeches were the signal for the gathering of large audiences, and by many an orator he was ranked with Voorhees, Ingalls, Wolcott and Vest. A man of extensive reading, liberal education and retentive memory, he commanded a voluminous vocabulary. He spoke fluently and with ease and seemed never at a loss for something pertinent to say. He was a strong advocate of free silver currency and took a prominent part in the debates connected with the silver legislation of the sixties.

For no personal trait was Senator Daniel so noteworthy as that of urbanity. Whether in private life or in his intercourse with his senatorial associates, his courtesy was unflinching. Even in the heat of debate and often under provoking circumstances he never failed to extend to opponents the courtesy which he himself desired.

JUDGESHIP FIGHT INTEREST'S CENTER

Allen and Manning Nine of Buncombe's Votes, 8 to 11. Stick Out for the Candidates.

CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATION CLAIMS ARE ABOUT THE SAME

Mr. Gudger Says Returns Now Show He Will Have Four Votes More Than a Majority.

The talk in local politics today centers about the coming county democratic convention, Saturday, when about the only important business to come before the meeting is the contest between the friends of Judge W. R. Allen who is contesting with Judge J. S. Manning for the place which he holds on the Supreme court bench of North Carolina. Both the Manning and Allen forces seem confident that things are going to their satisfaction. It is understood that the Allen forces offered to compromise the matter with Judge Manning by allowing Judge Manning to have the 24 votes which Buncombe has in the state convention. This the Manning lieutenants promptly rejected and, stated that they would only consider a proposition to divide the county's vote equally, giving Judge Allen 12 and Judge Manning 12 votes. This it is said the Allen leaders would not hear to, and now the fight, it seems, will go on to the convention. The Allen leaders today declared that they were going to have almost everything their way and that Judge Manning would not get more than four or five votes from Buncombe in the state convention, giving Allen 19 or 20 votes. On the other hand those backing Judge Manning were confident that Judge Manning would get a good share of the county's vote; in fact they place their claims at 13 and perhaps more votes for Manning.

The news from both Manning and Allen headquarters seems to indicate that both candidates are running very close. Both managers are claiming the majority. It looks as if only a convention fight will settle it. There has been little change in the congressional situation today. Former Congressman J. M. Gudger, Jr., today declared that the latest returns showed that he would have four more votes than necessary to nominate on the first ballot while W. J. Cooke, the next highest candidate, claims that Gudger will not have a nomination on the first ballot, lacking 30 or more votes. Friends of Mr. Cooke insist that he has a good chance of nomination at the hands of the convention July 12.

SUMMER TOURISTS FAST COMING IN

Indications Are That Asheville Will Have Prosperous Season—Trains Are Crowded.

The heavy tourist travel has at last turned toward Asheville, and incoming trains are daily bringing visitors, especially from the south, to Asheville and other mountain towns. In Asheville the hotels and boarding houses are being comfortably filled. They are seen on the streets, in the stores, and public places, in lively conversation and in seeming enjoyment.

One of the local business men said this morning that the tourists were arriving in large parties and that he felt sure that Asheville would be a very busy place for the rest of the season.

ROOSEVELT IS IN FAVOR COBB BILL

Former President Takes a Hand in Empire State Politics—Sends Telegram.

MARKET'S DOCTORS DISPOSED TO LET IT RUN ITS COURSE

Substantial Recovery in Afternoon, Reduced Business and Under-tone Heavy—Hedging.

New York, June 30.—Theodore Roosevelt yesterday made his first public utterance on a political subject since his return from Europe on June 18. In a telegram from Cambridge, Mass., where he had gone to attend the Harvard commencement, he advocates the enactment, with certain amendments, of the so-called Cobb direct nomination bill now before the extraordinary session of the legislature in this state. The telegram, which is addressed to Lloyd C. Griscom, chairman of the republican county committee of New York county, and sponsor for the amendments in question, follows: "During the last week great numbers of republicans and independent voters from all over the state have written me urging the passage of the direct primary legislation. I have seen Governor Hughes and have learned your views from your representative. It seems to me that the Cobb bill with the amendments proposed by you meets the needs of the situation. I believe the people demand it. I most earnestly hope that it will be enacted into law.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT." Colonel Roosevelt's statement, "I have seen Governor Hughes," must refer to their brief meeting at Cambridge. Both met for a short time, their first meeting since Colonel Roosevelt's return.

Mr. Griscom received the telegram late yesterday afternoon and made it public, together with an appended statement explaining the proposed amendments to the Cobb bill. The bill is now before the judiciary committee of the assembly. The amendments will likely be introduced in the senate senate today.

"The amendments," says Mr. Griscom's statement, "while affecting the law throughout the state in some particulars, are chiefly important to New York city."

Of these he says: "The second amendment provides that a voter in New York city changing his residence after enrollment shall lose his right to vote at the primary election. The alleged removal of an elector from one place to another within an electoral district has been a fruitful source of fraud at primary elections. The proposed amendment will, therefore, make for greater honesty at primary elections and will disfranchise a comparatively small number of people who might otherwise be legitimately entitled to vote.

"Other amendments provide that delegates to conventions and political electors need not necessarily reside in the district from which they are elected. In the selection of delegates to national and state convention it is often desirable to send delegates of party prominence, such as Nicholas Murray Butler, Senator Root, Seth Low, Steward L. Woodford, Otto T. Bannard, Henry L. Stimson, etc., from districts other than those in which they reside, and the amendment is intended to allow the continuance of a well-established practice."

FATAL AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT IN OHIO

Motor Car Was Ditched and a Preacher and Merchant Killed—Two Others Hurt.

BLOCKADING ON THE INCREASE; MORE SPECIAL AGENTS NEEDED

Fight Agents Are Sent to Oklahoma, Tennessee and North Carolina—The Cause.

Washington, June 30.—Commissioner of Internal Revenue Cabell recently gave orders dispatching eight agents to Oklahoma, Tennessee and North Carolina to assist in enforcing the laws against illicit distilling. Reports received at the bureau show the great extent to which the business has developed in states of the south and southwest which local prohibition laws have relegated to "dry" territory. Mr. Cabell says there is more illicit distilling now than ever before known in the states referred to. The field force has been increased to the limit of appropriation. Round-ups of moonshine outfits are frequent and a count kept recently showed that five agents or deputies had been shot in a period of 60 days.

Large Fire Looms

Wymore, Neb., June 30.—Fire destroyed a block of buildings today, including the City National bank, with a loss of $200,000.

NEW LOW RECORDS MADE IN MARKET

Another Wave of Liquidation—Important Issues Score Declines of 4 to 7 Points.

MARKET'S DOCTORS DISPOSED TO LET IT RUN ITS COURSE

Substantial Recovery in Afternoon, Reduced Business and Under-tone Heavy—Hedging.

New York, June 30.—Another wave of liquidation swept over the stock market today, pulling the price down to new low records. The tide of liquidation was at its height at noon, when such stocks as Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, St. Paul, Atchafson, Reading, Great Northern, Northern Pacific, Rock Island, United States Steel, American Smelting, Amalgamated Copper, and a score of less important issues scored declines ranging 4 to 7 points. There was practically no support during the morning session. Financial interests were disposed to let the movement run its natural course. The market made a substantial recovery in the early afternoon and the volume of business was on a reduced scale, but the undertone continued heavy and hedging.

REDUCTIONS IN RAILROAD RATES

Sweeping Cut Made by Interstate Commerce Commission in Rates in the West.

WORK TO BEGIN IN THE IMMEDIATE FUTURE

The Lands Paid for and There Is Much Interest in the Rockefeller Gift of $50,000.

Washington, June 30.—Decisions were handed down yesterday by the interstate commerce commission country wide in importance. They affect freight rates—both class and commodity—on all trans-continental lines operating between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans. Extensive reductions were ordered. The decisions are in what popularly are known as the Pacific coast cases. The cases were heard last autumn by the commission on its six weeks' trip to the Pacific coast, and have been under consideration ever since. In every instance reduction in the existing rates complained of were made, and in some instances they amounted to nearly 50 per cent. The commission found through its inquiry a remarkable rate situation existing on the Pacific coast, and even more remarkable one in the inter-mountain territory. This is notably true of the rates to and from Spokane, Wash., and Reno, Nev.

The Spokane rate case had been before the commission in one form or another for several years. The shippers of that city complained insistently of the rates which they were charged by the railroads on freight classes and commodities from eastern points of origin. All of the reductions ordered by the commission affected the rates from Mississippi river and Missouri transfer points to Pacific coast terminals and inter-mountain territorial points.

In the case of the city of Spokane against the Northern Pacific and Great Northern Railway companies and other carriers, the commission held that the present rates charged from eastern points to Spokane are unreasonable and excessive. The rates established for the future are materially lower—approximately twenty per cent. on both classes and commodities—but they will not be effective immediately. In the Nevada and Arizona cases, including the Sacramento-Reno case against the Southern Pacific company, and the Meropica Country club against the Atchafson, Topeka and Santa Fe and other carriers, a heavy reduction in class rates is ordered, some of the reductions being high as 33 1-3 per cent. The commission finds that the existing rates are practically without precedent or parallel. The average rate per ton per mile on all ten classes from Sacramento to Reno is 9.16c, an unprecedented figure. The class rates between Sacramento and Reno are reduced approximately 30 per cent, the rate on first class freight being lowered from $1.29 per 100 pounds to 85c a hundred pounds. Similar reductions in the class rates are made from Sacramento to other points in Nevada and Utah.

In the case of the railroad commission of Nevada against the Southern Pacific company and other carriers, the commission ordered the existing west bound class rates from eastern points to Nevada. In this connection the commission declares these rates to be the "highest main-line rates found in the United States."

Astonishing facts were developed by the commission at its hearings concerning the earning character of the Pacific lines. The commission shows "that during the last two years the operating revenues of the Southern Pacific company's Pacific system had increased $5,000,000, while its operating expenses had decreased $5,000,000, thus producing an increased operating income of over $10,000,000 or a net increase of about $2,000 per mile of road."

PLANS OUTLINED FOR DEVELOPMENT

Blue Ridge Association for Christian Conferences and Training Is Held at Montreal.

WORK TO BEGIN IN THE IMMEDIATE FUTURE

The Lands Paid for and There Is Much Interest in the Rockefeller Gift of $50,000.

At a meeting of the directors of the Blue Ridge association for Christian conferences and training held at Montreal Monday plans were outlined for the development of the 880 acres of land which is to become a permanent home for the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A. and Young People's Missionary Movement. This is the project which W. D. Weatherford and C. K. Ober recently presented to Asheville people. While it is the plan of the committee to have the auditorium, cottages, etc., erected in time to hold the next year's conferences on these grounds, yet it takes a long while to develop a property on the large scale as planned by the association. Work is to begin in the immediate future.

At a meeting of the business committee of the association composed of C. H. Hobbs, chairman, Judge J. D. Murphy, C. K. Ober of New York, W. D. Weatherford of Nashville, and Miss Anna D. Casler of Charlotte, it was decided to place a saw mill immediately upon the property which is heavily timbered and proceed at once to get out hardwood lumber for the buildings. It is estimated that there are 1,800,000 feet on this land. The cutting of the timber is to be under the direction of C. H. Hobbs of Asheville, an experienced lumber who is greatly interested in Y. M. C. A. work. Mr. Hobbs has agreed to gladly give his time and experience to this work.

The plans for the buildings have been made by a New York firm of architects who have designed the Naval Y. M. C. A. building in Brooklyn.

Lands Paid For.

Not the least uninteresting in connection with the developments is the fact that the lands have been secured and paid for. The materialization of the plans, however, have been brought nearer a reality by the generous offer of John D. Rockefeller that he will give $50,000 towards the construction of the $100,000 buildings and improvements in the grounds, provided the friends of the association in all parts of the south contribute a sum equal to $50,000. Those behind the movement are happy indeed that Mr. Rockefeller should agree to give this and beginning in October a simultaneous campaign will be made in all the large cities of the south to secure the balance of the $50,000. The business committee has guaranteed to raise $10,000, while every college in the south will be asked to bear a proportionate part. To obtain the Rockefeller gift, the additional money must be raised by May 1, 1911, or be secured by pledges.

The Athletic Grounds.

Included in the developments and great athletic grounds on a plot about 3000 feet above sea level where there is room for some three baseball diamonds, numerous tennis courts, basket ball courts, while a half mile track will be an attraction. A hotel to accommodate some 500 guests, an auditorium, large dining room, gymnasium, bowling alleys, etc., will be constructed. A large lake is also included in the scheme of development where boating and fishing will be provided. F. C. Abbot of Charlotte had been chosen as secretary-treasurer of the Blue Ridge association and will give much of his time in seeing that the plans are carried out. Among the Asheville members of the executive committee are Judge J. D. Murphy and D. L. Jackson, while Mr. Hobbs is chairman of the business committee. Following is the new executive:

1910.
Miss Mabel Cratty, New York
Harvey Wade Hicks, New York

BETTING TODAY IS TEN TO SIX

And the Odds Are, as Usual, on the Big Boiler Maker—Instances Odds Offered at Ten to Seven.

PLENTY OF "JACK" JOHNSON MONEY HAS COME FORWARD

The Arena, Where the Big Fight Will Take Place, Is Practically Complete—Jeffries Visits the Boxing Platform.

Reno, Nev., June 30.—The announcement of the appointment of Charley White of New York, Jeffries' choice, to fill the position of alternate referee, stirred up a vast amount of interest. White is a sporting celebrity, and is looked upon by the ring fraternity generally as one of the most experienced ring men.

Langford's Manager Ordered Off Johnson's Grounds.

Reno, Nev., June 30.—Joe Woodman, Sam Langford's manager, was ordered off the grounds at Johnson's camp today. Johnson first sent a deputy sheriff to Woodman and when the latter refused to go, came out himself and requested Langford's manager to leave. Woodman drove back to the city at once.

Betting on the big battle has been light here so far. The principal reason is because of the uncertainty thought to exist among the gambling class regarding Rickard's designation as referee. No great amount of Johnson money has come forward even at tempting odds of ten to six and ten to seven.

Jeffries is expected to visit the arena today to test the boxing platform. The arena is practically finished. Jack Johnson's training quarters was the Mecca for the picture men this morning. A large crowd gathered at the camp to watch his work-out exhibition. Every man who enters the big arena Monday will be searched for weapons by sheriff's deputies. Only armed men in the building will be deputies.

Coffroth's Dictum Stimulates Betting.

New York, June 30.—James Coffroth's declaration that Jim Jeffries will "blow up" when he finds he cannot lay a glove on Johnson has suddenly stimulated betting on the outcome of the fight for the championship. Johnson's followers, waiting to place money on the short end of 2 to 1, were satisfied to bet 7 to 10 on the negro.

Still Ten to Six in San Francisco.

San Francisco, June 30.—Betting odds on the fourth of July fight remain ten to six in favor of Jeffries, to which rate they lengthened yesterday. There is no lack of Johnson money ready to be placed.

SHOT AT CRANE; STRUCK BUCKNER

Accident in Reems Creek Section That Would Have Proved Serious but for Distance.

A farmer named Buckner, living on Reems creek, was accidentally shot in the face a day or two ago by a man named Lunsford. Although the wound was not serious, by reason of the fact that the ball was nearly spent, it still struck with enough force to cause a very painful and ugly wound.

Lunsford was riding along the road which parallels the creek at that place, on a bicycle carrying with him a rifle. A crane in the field above the road, and young Lunsford, dismounted and took a shot at it, and Mr. Buckner, working in his corn some distance away, received the bullet intended for the crane. Had the bullet not been so nearly spent, its effect would have been more serious. However, Mr. Buckner did not greatly blame the young man, realizing that it was entirely accidental, although rather careless.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 30.—This is "Powers day" in the American baseball league, no championship games being played by that league in the east as a mark of respect for the late "Mike" Powers, one of the catchers of the Philadelphia Americans who died several months ago, resulting from injuries sustained during the game.
