

Wesson Snowdrift Oil

For Salads and Cooking

THE fine flavor and wholesomeness of food shortened with Wesson Snowdrift Oil is the final test of its unrivaled quality and uniform purity. Odorless, tasteless, convenient and economical, it has a wider range of usefulness than any salad oil or shortening known to dietetic science. Use three-fourths the amount of oil as of butter. Refined by the Exclusive Wesson Process, and is the height of quality which defies competition.

Webb Millinery Opening.
The average person, upon reflection, would be inclined to believe that every possible combination of modes and harmonies had been made and that we can have no new melodies; also, the average woman would assert that every conceivable shade and shape have been combined in millinery and that nothing absolutely new can be evolved in hats. But that this is an error one has only to visit the M. Webb millinery opening, today and tomorrow, to acknowledge. In fall millinery there are bewildering novelties. One that today awakened much comment was the little cap of white net, gathered about the crown with a narrow velvet ribbon, with a deep ruffle of lace-edged net for a brim, and a tiny spray of flowers. These quaint little things are worn under the evening hat; the hat is removed but the cap worn at the evening entertainment. These caps, as men fished last winter in these columns, came into vogue in Paris and are the latest thing in New York. They give to a young and pretty face a touch of quaintness. Also a novelty is the scarf to match the hat, and worn as an afternoon or evening wrap. With a large hat of black plush with the double brim, giving the effect of a black hat on top and a rose color one wit like upper brim (closed at one side, and with a trimming of rose flowers, is worn a scarf of black chiffon over rose. A black and gold satin scarf is the accompaniment of a large black hat with a single golden rose for the flower trimming. Turbans are largely shown, many of them simply draped, others of thin meshwork shape more definitely trimmed. Another new idea is the bonnet at the back, lifting the hat which tips becomingly over the face.

These hats have sometimes an effective trimming of flowers or willow plumes under the brim, at the back or side. The tailored models, in fact most of the hats, set down closely over the head and many of them are so soft they can be folded like a piece of cloth or velvet. An exquisite hat is of a gray, appearing like London smoke, with Persian trimming and a Coach bird as sole ornament. Pink and rose facings for dark hats are shown but the colors are mostly dark and rich, blending perfectly. The variety in shape and style is large and there is an equally wide latitude in price.

The opening today was thronged with city and "country" hats. This morning beautiful hats were already ticketed "sold." For another novelty of the season, was the unusually large sale of pattern hats that began as soon as these bewitching turbans, tailored hats and picture hats were shown to Asheville fair women.

Mrs. Alexander Entertains.
Mrs. J. L. Alexander entertained delightfully with a bridge party this afternoon at the Battery Park hotel. The card tables were placed in the green room, which was prettily decorated. Mrs. Alexander's guests were Mrs. J. H. Lee, Mrs. Massengale, Mrs. Locke Craig, Mrs. Graham Webb, made by John Minor of the High school class of June 1909, at the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor. Such achievement by the High school graduates is the best testimonial possible for the city school system.

The young ladies who are students at the Normal college in Greensboro, N. C. today began their winter's work. In the party were Miss Rose and Miss Lily Batherham, Miss Rena Cudger, Miss Mary Walden Williamson, Miss Ethel Bollinger and Miss Naomi Schell.

Carl Collins, who has held a position with the Hendersonville Telephone company for the summer, returns Saturday to Asheville and will leave the first of the week for Atlanta, where he is a student at Georgia Tech.

Misses Winde and Louise McMaster and Mrs. Tom Barringer and children of Winstons, S. C., who have spent the summer in Saluda, spent yesterday with friends in the city.

Miss Elizabeth Claxton of Knoxville, who has been spending the summer with Miss Alice Smith, has returned to her home, accompanied by her sister, Miss Helen Claxton.

Judge M. H. Justice of Rutherfordton is in the city today.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Lambertson and family will leave Thursday, September 22, for Greeneville, Tenn., where they will make their future home. During their residence of several years in Asheville the Lambertsons have made many warm and lasting friendships. Miss Eleanor Lambertson has been a favorite member of the younger social set, and the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Lambertson and their children will be regretted by a large circle of friends.

Miss Julia Brookshire left Tuesday for Greensboro to enter the Normal and Collegiate institute.

Frank Longbrun, accompanied by his sons, Richard and Lawrence Longbrun, and Robert White, left Monday for New York via Washington in his touring car. Mr. Longbrun will leave his son Richard at Washington-Lee university and Lawrence at St. Mary's college before returning. Mr. Longbrun and Mr. White expect to make the trip and return to Asheville in about three weeks.

Mrs. Ward and Miss Mary Neil Ward, who have been residents of Asheville for about 14 months, have leased 14 Orange street and are at home in their new residence.

Ray Schwartzberg, a graduate of the 1909 class of the High school, and who made an enviable record last year at the University of Virginia, leaves shortly for Chicago to enter the Chicago university.

Miss Alice Drummond is spending the week at Hixby hall.

Mrs. Beatrice of Wilmington, N. C., has returned to her home after a several weeks visit with Mrs. Trench Cox.

Mrs. R. B. Sanford of Mocksville, N. C., is the guest of Mrs. Mark Brown on Chestnut street.

Miss Florence Jeffress of Canton passed through the city today enroute to the State Normal college at Greensboro.

WARD POLITICS; WHOLLY LAWLESS

So the Ballinger-Pinchot Committee Regulars Characterize Others' Action.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Sept. 14.—Six republican members of the Ballinger investigation committee who met yesterday issued a statement condemning the action of the four democratic members and the one republican insurgent member who delivered a report at Minneapolis last Wednesday, demanding the retirement from office of Secretary Ballinger.

They declared the action of what they term the "minority" at Minneapolis to have been "according to the worst methods of ward politics."

The evidence in the Ballinger case was discussed but in the absence of a quorum, they state, no action on the case itself was possible. Adjournment was taken subject to call of the chairman, Senator Nelson.

As the "minority" declined to attend today's conference and took their adjournment at Minneapolis until the next meeting of congress it is probable that Senator Nelson will not call another meeting until the return of Senator Flint, who is in Europe and who, as the seventh member, would make a quorum.

The report is signed by Senators Nelson, Sutphen, Reed and Reuben, and representatives McCall, Cline and Denby—reviews at some length the findings of the democratic minority of the committee—the minority members are sharply criticized, the report declaring that "the spectacle was presented of five gentlemen out of a tribunal of twelve created by congress, assuming to act as the tribunal itself." Continuing in this connection the report says:

"These five gentlemen continued their proceedings to the end according to the worst methods of ward politics; and after pretending to adopt a report of eighty-nine pages which they brought to the meeting already prepared and which was never the subject of consideration or discussion or even read in committee, they gave it to the newspapers although the law required it to be rendered to congress and they completed their perversion of the purpose of the meeting by adjourning to December 3, so as to forestall, if possible, any action or consideration or discussion or evidence by the committee in the meantime and by solemn vote they graciously extended to the majority the leave to file a minority report."

"It does not need to be said that such action in both form and substance is wholly lawless, and it leaves it entirely unnecessary to ask what sort of justice any public servant could look for whose character was on trial in such a proceeding in the excitement of a political campaign. If there is any relation between lawless methods and the character of the results which they accomplish this so-called verdict condemns its authors rather than the official under investigation."

"This action of the minority in no way relieves us from our responsibility under the law. It is incumbent on us to sift the great mass of evidence and to reach and render a just verdict."

"Every effort was made to induce the minority members to agree to a meeting or some early day at Minneapolis or Chicago as might suit their convenience, but without avail."

RAISED A RUCUS ON EAGLE TERRACE

Two Men Hurl Stones and Brickbats—One Fined, Capias for Other.

There was trouble down on Eagle terrace—that "underworld" section of the town just east of South Main street—last evening and as a result of the disturbance two white men, Harry Calloway and George T. Penny, were cited to appear before Judge Cooke this morning and answer charges of assault and also of disorderly conduct, while several women of that section were present as witnesses. Penny, who came here recently as one of the auctioneers to sell a piece of real property, was absent. He put up a small bond with Patrolman Williams and then made a quick get-away. The bond was forfeited this morning and in addition an instant capias was ordered issued for the man and when next he puts in an appearance here he will be taken into custody. Calloway was present.

It was in evidence that the men went to the resort and raised a disturbance and that after leaving one of the houses they began chucking rocks and brickbats. The door of the home was lammed with rocks and brickbats while other stones were hurled against the lattice work. It was also in evidence that one of the men threatened to shoot any person who stuck his or her head out of the door. A short distance from the original scene of trouble, so the evidence ran, Calloway attacked a negro and knocked him down.

Judge Cooke fined Calloway $25 and ordered that an instant capias be issued for Penny and that if the man could be found he should be brought into court. He said that the woman on Eagle terrace had a right to the protection of their homes just as any other citizen. Calloway said that he came from Salisbury and that he was on his way to St. Louis. He paid the fine and the cost.

DUMB GIRL SET ADRIFT IN FAR WESTERN STATE

The Pitiable Case of Miss Carrie Sorrels of Limestone—Will Probably Be Sent to D. and D. School.

In charge of Mrs. M. A. Baldwin of the municipal department of public safety for young women of Portland, Ore., Miss Carrie Sorrels, a mute, was brought here today and placed in the Children's home by Clerk of the Court Marcus Erwin, until the arrival of the girl's father, who lives near Arden. The case is a very pitiable; the young lady drifting to the far west with relatives some months ago and being left by them, it is said, to make her way for herself, was taken charge of by the auxiliary of the police department. The girl was unable to make her way as she, not having schooling in the sign language of a deaf-mute, could not make herself understood.

The girl's father is expected to come here shortly and take her to his home in Limestone township. She seems to be a bright girl, and will probably be given an education at the state deaf and dumb school.

There was trouble down on Eagle terrace—that "underworld" section of the town just east of South Main street—last evening and as a result of the disturbance two white men, Harry Calloway and George T. Penny, were cited to appear before Judge Cooke this morning and answer charges of assault and also of disorderly conduct, while several women of that section were present as witnesses. Penny, who came here recently as one of the auctioneers to sell a piece of real property, was absent. He put up a small bond with Patrolman Williams and then made a quick get-away. The bond was forfeited this morning and in addition an instant capias was ordered issued for the man and when next he puts in an appearance here he will be taken into custody. Calloway was present.

It was in evidence that the men went to the resort and raised a disturbance and that after leaving one of the houses they began chucking rocks and brickbats. The door of the home was lammed with rocks and brickbats while other stones were hurled against the lattice work. It was also in evidence that one of the men threatened to shoot any person who stuck his or her head out of the door. A short distance from the original scene of trouble, so the evidence ran, Calloway attacked a negro and knocked him down.

Judge Cooke fined Calloway $25 and ordered that an instant capias be issued for Penny and that if the man could be found he should be brought into court. He said that the woman on Eagle terrace had a right to the protection of their homes just as any other citizen. Calloway said that he came from Salisbury and that he was on his way to St. Louis. He paid the fine and the cost.

DUMB GIRL SET ADRIFT IN FAR WESTERN STATE

The Pitiable Case of Miss Carrie Sorrels of Limestone—Will Probably Be Sent to D. and D. School.

In charge of Mrs. M. A. Baldwin of the municipal department of public safety for young women of Portland, Ore., Miss Carrie Sorrels, a mute, was brought here today and placed in the Children's home by Clerk of the Court Marcus Erwin, until the arrival of the girl's father, who lives near Arden. The case is a very pitiable; the young lady drifting to the far west with relatives some months ago and being left by them, it is said, to make her way for herself, was taken charge of by the auxiliary of the police department. The girl was unable to make her way as she, not having schooling in the sign language of a deaf-mute, could not make herself understood.

The girl's father is expected to come here shortly and take her to his home in Limestone township. She seems to be a bright girl, and will probably be given an education at the state deaf and dumb school.
