MR. HUGHES QUILTS GOVERNOR'S CHAIR

His Seven Word Resignation Makes
Horace White New York State's Chief Executive.

New York Herald Syndicate Special.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 8.—Handing his simple resignation, containing but seven words, to Samuel S. Koenig, secretary of state, Governor Charles E. Hughes relinquished his office and within an hour was on his way to Washington, where next week he will sit as a member of the United States Supreme court.

Lieutenant Governor Horace White of Syracuse, assumed the duties of governor immediately and will hold office until January 1 next.

The ceremony attending the change in administration was formal and brief. It took place in the main audience chamber of the Executive Chamber suite. It is provided by law that resignation of a governor must be addressed to the legislature, but that it takes effect immediately after it is filed with the secretary of state. On receiving this letter Mr. Koenig announced to Lieutenant Governor White that by virtue of the constitution he had become governor of the state. The oath of office was then administered.

Governor Hughes, by working day and night for the last several days, practically disposed of all pending important matters. He was at the executive chamber until late at night, and before he left for the executive mansion was in readiness to retire from office. He did not return to the Capitol until noon and remained only a short time.

During his administration Governor Hughes attracted nation wide attention. He was New York State's candidate for the presidency in 1908, and during the campaign that followed made several important speeches in aid of the election of President Taft.

Although urged by many friends to accept a renomination for a third term as governor he declined and accepted an appointment from President Taft as an associate justice of the United States Supreme court, since the death of Chief Justice Fuller he has been prominently mentioned for that vacancy.

Governor White served many years as a Senator from Onondaga county, being one of the leaders of that body. In 1908 he was elected lieutenant governor, but retired from public life on the first of the coming year.

"PORTUGAL'S WISE MAN IS BRAGA"

Occupies Something Like Tolstoi's Position in Russia, Says Diplomat in Washington.

New York Herald Syndicate Special.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Senator Theophile Braga, the new head of the provisional government of Portugal, according to a diplomat now on duty in Washington who spent three and a half years at the Lisbon capital, is "the wise man of Portugal."

This diplomat, because of his relations with his own government and his past relations with the government of Portugal, preferred not to be quoted by name in an explanation he gave as to the character of Portugal's new President.

"Senator Theophile Braga," he said, "is a very able and clever man. He is internationally known among Spanish speaking people. He is a philosopher, a poet, a literateur and a man of high moral character. He has written many books, and he is known throughout Portugal as their 'wise man.' He occupies in the minds of the people something of the position that Tolstoi occupies among the Russians."

"Braga is more than 60 years of age, and he is not a son of the people in any sense, as he comes of a very good family and has means. He has always republican ideas, and he is the most noted speaker in Portugal on republican ideas of government. He has been an instructor for a long time at the University of Coimbra, which is the oldest and largest institution of learning in Portugal, and has always taken the greatest interest in the quarrels between the republican and monarchic parties. He has made speeches everywhere, upholding the republican cause against the monarchic party, the latter being the royal party."

"On the whole, I should say that if the revolution had to come, although I am an intimate friend of King Manuel and his family and am sorry for any ill fortune that may be their lot, I think the revolutionists have done the very best thing in picking Senator Braga as their President. I have no hesitation in saying that the entire personnel of the ministry as announced is very good. They have selected the best possible men in Portugal. All of them are men of character and standing."

WEEKLY MEETING OF THE ALDERMEN

Appropriation Made for Inspection of the Watershed by an Expert Forester.

NUMEROUS MINOR MATTERS OF BUSINESS TRANSACTED

Contract for Painting Auditorium Let —Roller Skating Ordinance Passed
—Building Permits, Etc.

The board of aldermen in regular weekly session last night transacted considerable routine business; granted the request of the board of trade for an expenditure of a small sum of money for a forest expert to inspect the city's watershed; awarded to Mr. Miller the contract for painting the Auditorium and granted several building permits.

The proposition from the board of trade, contained in a letter from Secretary Buckner, was in effect that State Geologist Pratt had offered to send a forest expert here to inspect the watershed in the Mount Mitchell section and instruct the city's wardens how to prevent forest fires and preserve the water supply. The city was asked to appropriate $20 for expenses. The request was granted and the mayor was authorized to draw a voucher for the amount.

The street committee recommended that South French Broad avenue, between Bartlett street and Southside avenue, be paved with bitulithic. There was some objection to the paving of the street by reason of the steep grade, at points 12 per cent. The majority of the board, however, favored the paving and the order was made.

A petition was presented the board requesting that the Asheville Electric company be instructed to discontinue the use of the steam whistle at the power plant to signal for linemen. The request was made by residents of the section in which the plant is located. Referred to the mayor and the corporation counsel.

Upon motion of Alderman Fitzpatrick the board instructed the city engineer to advertise for bids of 1000 to 5000 feet of concrete sidewalk on Ora street. The board desires to remedy the muddy condition in that vicinity.

Judge H. B. Stevens was before the board representing the Grant Realty company with a request that Courtland avenue be paved. Judge Stevens was informed that the matter was now in the hands of the committee and that a report would be made shortly.

The Modern Woodmen of America through a representative requested the board to permit a carnival to exhibit here at a reduced rate of taxes. The request was granted and the tax was fixed at $100.

The special tax committee made report recommending that the tax collector be instructed to collect from all side shows of circuses, etc.

Alderman Van Winkle, chairman of the Auditorium committee, stated to the board that Mr. Miller, who had submitted a bid to paint the Auditorium, had made a mistake of $100 in his bid. It was found, however, that with an added $100 the bid was lower by less than $20 than the next lowest. The bid was accepted.

Complaint was made of the alleged bad condition of streets in and near the depot section. Referred to the street committee.

The ordinance prohibiting roller skating on sidewalks and paved streets was passed on second and final readings.

The request of the board of trade that the city pay over to the board of trade $484.85 of the advertising fund was granted and the mayor was authorized to sign a voucher for the amount.

Building permits were granted as follows:

J. A. Ware, addition to residence on Orange street; estimated cost $150.

Sam Finestien, building on Depot street; estimated cost $4500.

Methodist Protestant church, 7-room building on North French Broad avenue; estimated cost $4000.

H. C. Johnson, warehouse back of on Rock hotel; estimated cost $1,200.

H. C. Johnson, warehouse on Roberts street; estimated cost $400.

Good results always follow the use of Foley Kidney Pills. They contain just the ingredients necessary to tone, strengthen and regulate the kidneys and bladder, and to cure backache.

DEMOCRATS NOMINATE A "TEMPORARY" CANDIDATE

Boston, Oct. 8.—Massachusetts democrats were still waiting today for the announcement of a regular nominee for governor. At the convention yesterday Frederick Mansfield of Boston was nominated as a stop-gap candidate with the understanding that he would withdraw later to make way for a candidate to be chosen by a committee, but today the leaders of the party were all uncertain as to the identity of their next standard bearer. The committee of four appointed by the convention gathered for a second time last evening, but at its close were apparently no nearer the selection of a candidate than before. The committee adjourned until today.

Meanwhile F. W. Mansfield of Boston and Clifton Loring of Medford have been settled upon as the temporary candidates for governor and lieutenant governor and their names will be filed with the secretary of state today, the understanding being that they will withdraw when the convention settles upon who shall be the regular candidate.

Capt. Bogardus Agin Hits the Bull's Eye. This world famous rifle shot who holds the championship record of 100 pigeons in 10 consecutive shots is being in at Lincoln, Ill. Recently interviewed, he says: "I suffered a long time with kidney and bladder trouble and used several well known kidney medicines, all of which gave me no relief until I started taking Foley Kidney Pills. Before I used Foley Kidney Pills I had severe backaches and pains in my kidneys with suppression and a cloudy voiding. On arising in the morning I would get dull headaches. Now I have taken three bottles of Foley Kidney Pills and feel 100 per cent better. I am never bothered with my kidneys or bladder and again feel like my own self." Sold by all druggists.
