Anderson succeeded in reaching the surf near the shore when a portion of wreck struck him, causing his death.

Fred Miller, aged 13, son of the captain, together with three seamen and the negro steward, reached the shore on bits of wreckage after fighting through a mile of pounding surf. All the survivors are in a pitiable condition.

The Converse was bound for St. Francis, Cuba, with a cargo of coal and ran into the hurricane off Savannah.

Judge Council signed the judgment this afternoon in the case of George and described his formula in making H. Smathers, receiver, et al., vs. West-ern Carolina bank, Lewis Maddox, et al., confirming the report of Referee Stevens, to which report both parties two thirds.

Stevens, to which report both parties to the suit took exceptions. Motions and arguments in various suits were heard this morning. This action of the court means that the stockholders of the Old Western North Carolina bank which went in-to the hands of a receiver in 1857 will have to pay about $50,000. This sum it is said, will be enough to practical-ly pay the depositors all that is still due them.
