who are fortunate enough to attend are guaranteed one of the very best attractions that has ever played this city. In "Metz in Ireland" the author has first of all written a lasting and laughing success, and in the second place provided the most popular of German comedians with a suitable vehicle-an achievement rather difficult to accomplish. Ample opportunity is allowed for the introduction by Mr. Wilson of several new songs that are among the best he has yet composed. Special mention can be made of "My Queen of Dreams, which will rival in pepularity any o his past song successes. In providing Al. H.
