THE LOGICAL POINT FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF FURNITURE.

The business men of Asheville from whom expressions have been received are mainly enthusiastic over the plan suggested in yesterday's Gazette-News for the formation of a people's manufacturing company. It is found that a number of them have been thinking along the same lines for months past, and we do not believe it is going to require a great deal of discussion to arouse popular enthusiasm for the plan.

One of the most encouraging things is the statement of an experienced and successful furniture man that of all places in the south Asheville is the logical point for the manufacture of furniture.

The objects aimed at are: To establish a manufacturing plant which shall be profitable to those who invest in it.

To demonstrate the profitable nature of such a business.

To offer an attractive opportunity for the investment of small sums of money.

The lumbering industry is the best thing in western North Carolina today. Profit piles up on profit to the owner of timber land, but by its failure to manufacture the more expensive products such as furniture, the community is not reaping nearly as large profit as it might.

But the peanut has not yet arrived to the extent indicated by the map. The commercial cultivation had been confined until recently to eastern Virginia, middle and west Tennessee, the Carolinas and Georgia. It has now found a new ground lately owing to the advances of the boll weevil.

IT WAS BIG BUSINESS. In a semi-official statement issued last evening from the White House the president explains the great display of force on the Mexican border in a manner which places most of the responsibility upon Big Business.

A NEW CHICKEN LAW.

The Greensboro Record publishes the following act of the recent legislature:

Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person in the counties of Cleveland, Cabarrus, Currituck, Bladen, Pasquotank, Alamance, Graham, Guilford, and Turnersburg township, in Iredell county, Edgewood, Merkleburg, Wayne and Surry counties, where the stock law prevails, to permit any turkeys, geese, chickens, ducks or other domestic fowls to run at large after being notified as in section 2 of this act, on any lands that may be cultivated in any kind of grain or feedstuff, or used for gardens or for ornamental purposes.

not so confined should be simple, and readily available. If the "complaining party" could go ahead and kill "said fowls" without being "deputized" the law would be a lot handier. In his speech at Phoenix the other day Col. Roosevelt said: "Now, my friends, while in the fullest way I thus acknowledge your right to form the constitution that you have formed and to be admitted thereunder to full membership in the Federal Union, I also wish it distinctly understood that while there are many provisions in your proposed constitution with which I most heartily agree, there are some with which I disagree, and notably among these is the provision of the recall especially affecting the judiciary." Now the people of Arizona have the satisfaction of knowing exactly what he thinks about it, and as for that matter, do the members of congress who refused to accept Arizona.

Those who know the facts about a political story which recently appeared in The Gazette-News, a special dispatch from Raleigh, are deriving a considerable amount of amusement from comment upon it by the brethren, who think they know a whole lot about it that they do not.

How radically opinions differ, even in the best informed circles. Senator Lorimer says it was Providence that saved him. Now that theory would not be tolerated for a moment in the office of Collier's Weekly.

Speaks the man in jail on the charge of killing two people, says he may be crazy, but he doesn't believe it. A good many other people agree with him, entirely.

PRESS COMMENT.

IN PRAISE OF PEANUTS.

If the boll weevil does not learn to behave we may live to hear of "King Peanut." So far has the humble rooster gone. It has for its future domain, reading the peanut man of the department of agriculture, all of the south except the Appalachian and Cumberland highlands, Kentucky and northern Missouri. To be exact it has taken a corner of southwestern Kentucky and then, to make up for its failure to reach east Tennessee, western Virginia and Alabama and Alabama has been aimed for its own "California" except the mountain heights, the Colorado and New Mexico mountains, the Illinois and Indiana lands. There is finally a peanut in northern Utah, southern Nevada and eastern Nevada, a territory about the size of Georgia. Did we say "finally"? We take it back. The peanut will probably grow in many other places with immunity from frost for three or four months and with loose soil in which the goddars can embed themselves.

But the peanut has not yet arrived to the extent indicated by the map. The commercial cultivation had been confined until recently to eastern Virginia, middle and west Tennessee, the Carolinas and Georgia. It has now found a new ground lately owing to the advances of the boll weevil. The cotton seed mills in many parts have been adapted to peanuts and peanut oil is being turned out in considerable quantities. The entire crop is now worth $12,000,000 a year, only pin money to what will be made from growing peanuts in the near future. The bulletin makes it plain that the peanut is equally valuable for human, animal and soil food. It is an admirable hay and it puts nitrogen into the ground. Even where the soil is not suited for growing peanuts for market it may be found that the crop will pay as a forage crop. Farmers who wish to know all about the subject may write for Farmers' Bulletin 431 of the United States department of agriculture—Knoxville Sentinel.

Lungs Declared Sound—Life Insurance Granted.

If you knew a remedy that really had cured Tuberculosis; that had saved from death quite a number of people, would you try to get Commission on the subject in it and induce them to take it; or would you say nothing about it, for fear of being ridiculed? We know the people cured—some of them. We have the stories of cures made, and affidavits from some. We advertise Eckman's Alternative to tell those who have lung disease what has been done by its use. Investigate the following: 1518 W. DuPont St., Philadelphia, Pa. Gentlemen: On the evening of May 12, 1907, I had five hemorrhages from the right lung. My hemorrhages kept up for one week—I had twenty-eight in all. Septic pneumonia developed. My doctor told me I had better go to another climate, as my left lung had also become affected. About that time I met Howard Klotz, 1518 Susquehanna Ave., this city, who had hemorrhages several years ago and who was cured by Eckman's Alternative. I started to take Eckman's about the latter part of August, 1907. My appetite improved at once and in about two weeks I started to gain weight. I improved steadily. Later, a very bad hemorrhage developed in my right leg and I commenced to get a lump on my right hip. My doctor told me I was getting a tubercular abscess and that it was affecting the sciatic nerve. The lumpness and lump gradually disappeared. I have not had any trouble of that nature since. I have advised several people to take Eckman's and those who took it fully believed the same results as myself." (Signed Affidavit) CHAS. MORGAN, Eckman's Alternative cures Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Affections. Ask for booklet of cured cases and write to the Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa. for additional evidence. For Sale by all leading druggists.

You will find nothing taken sold of an obstinate cough so quickly, usually ending it inside of 24 hours. Excellent, too, for whooping cough, sore lungs, asthma, hoarseness and other throat troubles. Mix 1 pint of granulated sugar with 2 pint of water and stir for 20 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (60 cents worth) in a pint bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. It keeps perfectly, take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. This is just laxative enough to help cure a cough. Also stimulates the appetite, which is usually upset by a cough. The taste is pleasant. The effect of pine and sugar syrup on the inflamed membranes is well known. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in quinine and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula.
