CARNEGIE AWARDS NUMBER OF HEROES

Thirty-Five Awards in Medals and Money Made by Hero Fund Commission.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 2.—Thirty-five awards in recognition of acts of heroism were made yesterday at the spring meeting of the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission and the issuance of nine silver and twenty-six bronze medals was authorized. In addition the money accompanying the medals amounts to $24,100 and pensions to widows of heroes total $1,510 annually.

The money is apportioned as follows: Six thousand dollars for worthy purposes; $2,200 liquidation of mortgages; $3700 for other indebtedness; $4000 purchase of homes; $14,000 for education; $2300 death benefits and $1000 for restoration of health.

In nine instances the heroes lost their lives, and the award is made to a member of the family. Twenty of the awards are made in connection with rescues from drowning, five from railway trains, four in runaways, five in mine or well suffocation cases, and one the rescue of an insane patient from a roof.

In the awards a number of heroes in the South are recognized as follows:

Richard C. Williams, aged 23, saved Melvin B. Mayo from train at Reussens, Va., June 17, 1906. Bronze medal and $1,000 for a home.
Park S. Rushford, aged 25, saved Elbert G. Cunningham from drowning at Mannington, W. Va., January 19, 1907. Bronze medal and $1000 for a home.

Benjamin J. Cottle, aged 24, rescued Morris M. Caldwell, jr., aged 3 from runaway at Wilmington, N. C., August 28, 1910. Bronze medal and $1000 as needed.

John R. Graham, aged 36, saved from drowning George W. Thompson and attempted to save C. L. Lipscomb at Thicketty, S. C., March 9, 1910. Bronze medal and $1000 to liquidate indebtedness and other worthy purposes as needed.

Albert J. Appleby, aged 18, saved Ruthells M. Harbeson from train at Bowyer, S. C., March 11, 1910. Bronze medal and $2000 as needed for educational purposes.

Thomas M. Christenbury, aged 38, rescued Rufus Long (colored), from a cave in a well at Charlotte, N. C., August 9, 1909. $200 to liquidate mortgage and silver medal and $2000 to educate children as needed.

Boyce Lindsay (colored), aged 16 saved E. Reynolds Smith from train at Spartanburg, S. C., May 26, 1910. Bronze medal and $200 as needed for educational purposes.

UNNECESSARY ELABORATION. "Give a girl the moonlight, a path through the trees, and a man, and she will lead him home engaged," says the Syracuse Herald. Why drag in the moonlight and the trees?—Chicago Record-Herald.

HERE IS MORE PROOF OF WHAT THE GERMAN REMEDIES HAVE DONE FOR OTHERS—ALL UNITE IN PROCLAIMING THEM THE MOST EFFECTIVE MEDICINES IN USE.

The Health Teacher, while in this city, told you through the columns of this paper that German Teutonia and Germania Oil would cure rheumatism, catarrh, kidney, liver, stomach and blood troubles, no matter how long you have been afflicted. They will cure where all other remedies have failed and we feel so confident about their curative properties, that we are willing to refund your money, if, after a week's trial the medicines do you no good.

If you suffer with constipation, quit using these five minute cures and quick reliefs, which invariably make you feel worse than you did before. This is dangerous. Come and get the medicine which gets to the seat of the sickness. If you or your children are troubled with worms of any kind and want to get rid of them completely without starving or taking poison of any kind, get German Teu-tonia, the same as these people have done and he made well. H. A. Dillard, Harriman, Tenn., writes that he had been under the impression for three years that he had catarrh of the stomach. Every morning got up feeling tired, as though he had not slept at all, had a bad taste in the mouth, foul breath, bloating and fullness of stomach after meals, food did not digest and would lay like a lump of lead on his stomach, any hard work would cause palpitation of the heart, had at times sour stomach and heartburn, very often would have enormous appetite, then again would eat very little. After using Teutonia two days 6 doses, all these troubles disappeared. He passed a tape worm that measured 46 feet, head and all, without pain or sickness. He certainly recommends this medicine to all similarly afflicted. Amelia Robinson, Charleston, W. Va., suffered for years with stomach trouble, constipation, bowels would never act without taking pills, pellets, salts or some strong purgative. Had poor appetite, weak, all run down, had headaches, buzzing, roaring, sound in ears when they lay down. After using German Teutonia one week, feels as well as ever. Mrs. W. M. White, Springfield, Ohio, had rheumatism, badly constipated, very nervous, had creepy sensation after going to bed, just as if something was biting under the skin. Now feels like a new woman. Clare E. Connel, 93 Water St., Springfield, Ohio, was afflicted with kidney trouble and pains in the side were so severe that he was in perfect misery whenever he tried to lay down. Used four bottles of Teutonia and it has made him well and strong. Recommends this medicine to all he comes in contact with.

Take Teutonia as a spring tonic. You will find it makes that tired no good feeling disappear in a jiffy and will put you in the best of spirits. It sells for $1.00 per bottle or three for $2.50. Germania Oil, the great assistant to Teutonia in cases of Rheumatism and Catarrh, as well as being the most powerful pain remedy in existence sells for 50 cents per bottle or three for $1.25. Keep it in the house for sprains, neuralgic pains, earache, toothache, chest pains, sore throat, cramps, dysentery, etc. German Salve promptly cures blind, itching or protruding piles in a very short while. Price, 25 cents. German Cough Syrup contains no opiates and promptly cures coughs and immediately relieves that tickling sensation in the throat. Price, 25 cents. The German Remedies are for sale at Grant's Pharmacy, 24 S. Main St.

Chance Seriously Hurt And Out of the Game

FRANK CHANCE, MANAGER CHICAGO NATIONALS.

Frank Chance, manager of the Chicago "Cubs," was seriously injured during a recent game in Cincinnati. The latest report has it that Chance will be out of the game for some time.

Mrs. Bacon—And why did you cook leave you? Mrs. Egbert—She wanted us to raise her wages. "And what were you paying her?" "Why, $15 a month." "And couldn't you raise that much?" "No, she wouldn't let me." Roughing It—"Serve the champagne in tin cups, Ostar," directed the owner of the bungalow. "Very good, sir." "These hunting parties like to rough it a trifle."—Washington Herald.

The Reems Creek Woolen Mills with the water power, machinery, 2 good residences and 1 store house, also 35 building lots. Here are some things this mill and power could be used for and made to pay handsomely; Flour Mill, Electric Light Plant, Broom Factory, Laundry, Knitting Mills, Hosiery, Mills. The Woolen Mill has paid and can be made to pay even more.

As a Flour Mill It could be made to pay because the great valleys for miles around produce an abundance of wheat, and Weaverville needs a Flour Mill.	As a Laundry It would pay for the cost of work would be less than half what it would cost in Asheville. Weaverville needs one.	As Electric Light Plant It would pay, for Weaverville is growing; hundreds of people are going to build around Lake Juanita, and everybody wants light.	As Broom Factory It would pay, as broom corn can be grown successfully around Weaverville. Broom Factories are paying everywhere and the farmers are anxious to grow the straw.	As a Knitting Mill It would pay for you have power already harnessed and your running expenses would be less than most anywhere.
