TRIAL OF WATKINS CONCLUDED TODAY

Jury Was Given the Case This Afternoon at 1 O'clock—Judge Webb Gave Able Charge.

The trial of F. C. Watkins, charged with murder in the second degree for the killing of John Hill Bunting at the Gladstone hotel, Black Mountain, one night in August, 1909, was concluded this afternoon at 1 o'clock with Judge Webb's able charge and the jurors were immediately taken to dinner. After the meal the jurors began a consideration of their verdict.

The case was called for trial for the second time last Thursday morning. It has been stubbornly fought by both sides every point being vigorously contested. Argument by counsel consumed much time. Judge Webb did not limit counsel as to hours and the lawyers on both sides went fully into details of the killing and the evidence introduced. Judge Webb's charge to the jury was clear and forcible. He reviewed the evidence at some length and charged the jury as to the law. He charged that if the jury believed that when the officer Mr. Watkins went into the room where Bunting and Collins were and that the men were on the bed; that Collins arose and raising his hand in response to Watkins' alleged command "don't come on me" and that Watkins then shot and killed Bunting it would be the duty of the jury to find the defendant guilty of murder in the second degree. Judge Webb charged, however, that if the jury believed that when Watkins went into the room; that he struck a light; that the light went out; that he was grappled by the men; that he was on his knees; that he believed himself in danger of great bodily harm and that he drew his pistol and killed Bunting, then it would be the duty of the jury to acquit the defendant.

At 2:30 o'clock this afternoon the jury had not reported.

QUIET ELECTION IN ASHEVILLE TODAY

Democratic Nominees Have Opposition Only from the Socialists—Light Vote.

Asheville is today experiencing one of the quietest elections in the city's history. There is very little interest and a decidedly small vote. The electors are choosing officials for the next two years but the nominees of the democratic party are practically without opposition and the voters are showing their lack of interest by not going to the polls. The only interest in the election has to do with a vote on issuing $50,000 in bonds for improvement of school property and expressing an opinion as to a curfew law. The only opposition that the democratic candidates have today comes from the socialists and up to noon the socialist votes was not sufficiently large to be even interesting. The vote at noon was extremely light and this light vote is giving the advocates of the school bonds no little concern since it is necessary for a majority of the qualified voters of the city to vote in favor of the bonds before they may be legally issued. At 11 o'clock the largest number of votes cast was in the Fifth precinct where about 50 voters had participated in the election. At several of the precincts republicans voted for the democratic nominees.

REEMS CREEK WOOLEN MILLS WILL BE SOLD

Property Includes Water Power, Machinery, Residences, Lots, Etc.—Splendid Location.

On Thursday, May 4, the Southern Land Auction company will sell at auction what is known as the Reems Creek Woolen mills property, consisting of the mills with water power and machinery, two residences, one store and 35 building lots at Weaver-ville. The property is near Lake Juanita, which is now being constructed, and at present are said to be the most available building lots to the lake. The lots are otherwise pleasantly located.

The company calls attention to the fact that the mills and the power can be utilized as a flour mill, as a laundry, for the generation of electricity for lights, a broom factory or knitting mill, either of which will be welcomed by the people of Weaver-ville. It is also stated that the people of Weaver-ville are anxious for more progressive citizens and that the town is the best located resort town in the mountains. The company promises good terms, a free dinner and good music.

In a one-sided game yesterday afternoon between the Orange street team and that of College street, the latter was defeated by a score of 11 to 1. The feature of the game was an unassisted double play by Thompson, the Orange street first baseman.

Asheville friends of Col. J. T. Gardner of the N. C. N. G., will learn with pleasure that he has been elected mayor of Shelby. Col. Gardner was bitterly opposed by the present mayor, W. H. Jennings, but succeeded in winning the office by 94 majority.

Robert C. Coleman, an alleged post-office robber, was brought here yesterday and placed in jail to await trial at the present term of United States District court. It is alleged that Coleman robbed the postoffices at Kernersville, Mocksville and Walnut Cove.

Col. S. L. Brengle, the noted Salvation Army evangelist, arrived in Asheville last night to begin a series of meetings. He is accompanied by Emson Cook, who will have charge of the singing. The meetings will be conducted at West End where a large tent has been erected which will seat about 700 people.

C. J. Yates has bought the Windsor-Oxford hotel on South Main street and is having the entire building repainted and furnished throughout. Mr. Yates is an experienced hotel man and it is his intention to cater to the best trade and to run a first class house in every respect. The work of improvement is in the hands of B. C. Carpenter, a well known contractor.

The contest between the three teams selected from the membership of Swannanoa lodge, I. O. O. F., will close this evening. The contest is for attendance and new members and has been running three months. The prize is a supper to the winning team at the expense of the two others. The lodge will confer the first rank this evening and visiting Odd Fellows are invited to attend.

The papers in the case of Wm. F. O'Rourke vs. C. H. Rexford et al. were filed yesterday afternoon in the office of the clerk of the Federal court, following the removal of the case from the Superior court in Transylvania county, which was ordered by Judge Webb on the motion of Tecker and Lee, counsel for the defense. The case involves the title to about 6000 acres of land in Jackson and Transylvania counties.

In city police court this morning Judge Cooke disposed of a bunch of alleged negro gamblers. It seems that the negroes were caught playing "skin" in a place on College street yesterday afternoon and rounded up. Two of the negroes, Hemphill and Meadows, were found not guilty, while Collins, Brown, Johnson, Coleman, Thompson and Ford were found guilty and taxed with the cost. It was in evidence that the negroes were playing for 5 and 10 cents.

A motion has been filed in the office of the clerk of the Federal court in the case of Peter Hunley et al. vs. J. Sroop Styles by the attorneys of the defendant, Wells and Swain, asking that the case be dismissed from the Federal court for want of jurisdiction. A suit is pending in the Superior court in which Mr. Styles is the plaintiff involving the same issue and yesterday there was a motion by the plaintiffs to have judgment ordered by default, the defendants failing to answer the complaint within the required time. The case involves notes to the amount of several thousand dollars which Mr. Styles alleges that were obtained from him by fraud. A few days ago Judge Webb made an order disallowing case to be removed to the Federal court, which was petitioned by the defendants in the Superior court case.

Where Beauty Costs No More Why Not Have It?

The value of clothes is in the character they portray. It is in the lines, quality of material and finish. In this particular the Hudson "20" Roadster is distinctive. In addition, it has superior mechanical qualities, for its motor is powerful, flexible and quiet. It is famed wherever automobiles are used.

It is a type which others have adopted because of its great success. In every detail applying to stanchness, wearing qualities, the comfort of passengers and attractive appearance, the HUDSON "20" Roadster has set a standard for cars of its type.

Let us show and demonstrate it to you. Since beauty costs no more—why not have it? "The Most Widely Copied Car in America."
