"NEW" FARMING AND DRY SEASON

Latter Has Served to Show Possibilities of the Former—Demonstrators to Meet.

MR. WEAVER BEGINS HIS FALL WORK SOON

All Demonstrators in State May Meet Here Before Beginning the Fall Work.

E. D. Weaver, the agricultural demonstrator for Buncombe county begins his fall work October 1. This work consists in directing the farmers who have cultivated crops under his advice, in harvesting their crops and in making out their reports of methods and results, which will be sent to the agricultural departments of the state and United States.

Before the county demonstrators begin their work in the autumn, it is the custom to have meetings which all are required to attend. At these meetings questions pertaining to their work are discussed and experiences are related. Two meetings are held for the demonstrators in this section, one which all the demonstrators in the state attend and one at which those in western part of the state are required to be present. These meetings are to be held before October 1.

Arrangements are now being made for the state meeting. Some are in favor of holding it in Washington but it is not held there it is likely that the demonstrators will meet in Asheville.

Notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Weaver has not been in touch with the work during the summer months—his work is in spring and autumn—he is thoroughly familiar with crop conditions in the county and he stated yesterday that he is sure that the crops will not be as short as some of the farmers are expecting.

Mr. Weaver stated that in some respects the dry season has done much for improved farming, in that it has demonstrated to the farmers that good crops can be made even in the driest weather by these methods. He told of one farmer who had planted several acres of corn for ensilage, who thinks he will get 30 bushels of corn to the acre from it.

MITCHELL TRAIL IS SATISFACTORY

Excellent for the Amount of Money Expended—Asheville Party's Enjoyable Trip.

The party of Asheville people, including most of the directors of the Buncombe County Good Roads association, who made the trip to Mt. Mitchell for the purpose of inspecting the trail recently completed to that famous peak, returned yesterday very much pleased with the trail and with the whole trip. They left Asheville Friday afternoon and spent the first night at Rattlesnake lodge, the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Ambler. In the morning they started to Mt. Mitchell by way of Big Richland, Lone Pinnacle, Craggy, and Bull's Head, passing these before noon; and in the afternoon they reached the peak, passing over, or around, Blackstock knob, Potato knob, Clingman's Dome and Steep's gap. They spent the night in the log cabin recently erected by a lumber company, and in the morning witnessed a glorious sunrise. On the return trip they again spent the night at Rattlesnake lodge and reached the city yesterday.

When asked about the trail this morning E. C. Chambers of the Good Roads association stated that they were satisfied with it, that it is a great deal better than he had hoped to find it, considering the small amount of money that was spent. He thought that when the surface of the trail is packed it will afford excellent traveling.

For the most part the trail follows the route of the proposed "Crest of the Blue Ridge" highway. In two places, where it was not practicable to do so, the route was left for a short distance.

MRS. B. S. GAITHER

Morganon Lady Died Sunday in Hospital at Leeds—Well Known.

Mrs. B. S. Gaither of Morganon died Sunday morning in the hospital at Leeds at the age of 82 years. She was the daughter of Col. D. G. Corpening of Burke county and surviving are two brothers, W. G. Corpening of Asheville and L. H. Corpening of Burke county; and one son, Sidney Gaither, who is a merchant in Morganon.

The deceased was well known here and her death will be learned with regret.

CITY NEWS

Secretary Brown of the Y. M. C. A. has secured the services of Dr. C. E. Reed to instruct the young men in teaching the Bible.

There is an exceptionally strong bill at the Palace theater this week. The features are especially pleasing and have excited much comment.

Lunch will be served at the meeting of the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. at 6 o'clock this afternoon, at which the winter work is to be considered.

In the membership campaign, which is to be started at once by the Y. M. C. A., it is the intention of the officers to try to increase the membership to 800. There are now about 700 members.

The funeral services of Mrs. John M. Given, who died yesterday at Black Mountain, will be conducted from the residence, 2 Cumberland circle, Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, by Dr. R. F. Campbell.

The meeting of the finance and sanitary committees of the board of aldermen and the board of health, which was to have been held last night to consider the establishment of a laboratory for the city, has been postponed until Thursday night.

Miss Grace Maxwell of Bridgetown, N. J., Miss Annie B. Orblison of Philadelphia, and Miss Isabel Allison of Indiana, Penn., arrived today to take positions at the Home Industrial school. They filled the same positions last year. The school will open tomorrow.

Rev. Dr. N. G. Buckley of Chattanooga will give one of his famous lectures at the First Christian church tonight at 8 o'clock. Dr. Buckley is a noted speaker and he will no doubt draw a large audience. The public are invited and there is no charge for admission.

The meeting of the committee on arrangements for the convention of the North Carolina Postmasters association, which was to have been held here yesterday, may be deferred until tonight or until tomorrow since some of the members of the committee have not yet arrived.

"Bose" Horn, the young negro man who was given a preliminary hearing yesterday at Weaverville, before Magistrate Deagan, on the charge of attempted criminal assault on Alice Baird, a colored woman, was bound to court and in default of $500 bond was placed in the county jail.

The sale of the lots at the new town of Morris, on the Asheville and East Tennessee railroad, yesterday was according to the promoters, entirely successful. The rain interfered somewhat with the sale but many of the lots were disposed of. They were sold by the Southern Land Auction company.

Letters addressed as follows, in answer to want advertisements, are at the business office of The Gazette-News and unless called for will be destroyed: "E. B. M.", "R. B.", "L. E.", "X.", "H.", "J.", "Barber", "X. Y.", "E.", "J. R. L.", "James B.", "R.", "A. W.", "R. W.", "F.", "W. B.", "H. E.", "M. C. S."

Judge J. C. Pritchard will speak at the Y. M. C. A. men's meeting Sunday afternoon on the subject, "Daniel as an Example for Young Men." Invitations are especially extended to young men. Two solos will be sung, one by Miss Pearl Shope, who will sing "Forever with the Lord," and one by Prof. E. B. Stinson, who will sing, "The Son of Ruth." Miss Mabel Wolfe will play the accompaniments. The boys' orchestra will also render music.

The Asheville Ministers' association held a meeting this morning in the study of Dr. Byrd, at which Secretary Ed. B. Brown read a paper on the subject, "Working Together—the Churches and the Association." It was interesting to a degree and was appreciated by the ministers. Nearly every member of the association was present and after the paper was read some important business relating to the work of the ministers was considered.

Secretary Owen Gudger of the Western North Carolina Fair association is now distributing the catalogue and premium list of the fair to be given next month. The booklet contains 22 pages, is well arranged, and the premiums are especially attractive, rivaling even those of the State Fair association in some instances. About 500 premiums are offered. The appearance of the booklet will doubtless arouse much more interest in the coming fair than is already existing.

Preaching services at the Oakland Heights Presbyterian church will be resumed next Sunday after the summer vacation. Rev. Clarence G. Reynolds will conduct the services. A week from that date the special hospital contribution will be taken to be added to the Hospital Sunday fund. The reason for it not being taken sooner is that the congregation will probably be rather small and it is the purpose of the church to raise as large a contribution as possible.

The French Broad presbytery will begin their regular fall session this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Riceville Presbyterian church and the sessions will continue until tomorrow afternoon. The sermon this evening will be preached by Rev. C. A. Duncan, D. D., the retiring moderator, of Knoxville. The main feature of the sessions will be an address tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock by Dr. Thomas Lawrence of Asheville on the "Inspiration of the Bible." Dr. Lawrence is a well known and powerful speaker and this address promises to be one of his many masterpieces.

Records of the weather kept for the last quarter century indicate that the foggiest of London's atmosphere is decreasing.
