ALDERMEN TO CONSIDER LABORATORY QUESTION

Joint Meeting Held Last Night Recommends That $500 Be Appropriated.

The board of health, the finance and sanitary committees of the board of aldermen and Mayor Rankin held a meeting in city hall last night for the purpose of considering the question of establishing a city laboratory in connection with the sanitary department, and to make a recommendation to the board of aldermen at their regular weekly meeting tonight. They decided to recommend that $500 be appropriated to the establishment of a city laboratory and that L. M. McCormick, chief of the sanitary department, be put in charge. Further, that Mr. McCormick be given a leave of absence of a month or six weeks, with full pay, in order that he may visit the laboratories of large cities and get in touch with the work by acquiring all the latest methods in use. This recommendation was unanimous. It is generally believed that a laboratory will be of untold benefit to the sanitary department of the city, in keeping touch with conditions and preventing the spread of contagious diseases, while the benefit to the citizens themselves, who can have examinations made free of charge, is unquestioned. Much quarantine work will also be overcome, as it is generally admitted that much of it is unnecessary and, with the laboratory, this question will easily be determined. It is thought that the cost to the city will not exceed $10 a month and it is thought that Mr. McCormick can easily handle the work. There is little doubt that the recommendation will pass the board, as a majority was present last night and not a vote was cast against it.

Stubborn Colds May Lead to Consumption.

Did you ever have a cold that would not let go; a cough that persisted; that prevented sleep, and made waking hours miserable? Eckman's Alternative is the proper remedy in such cases. Perhaps some simple medicine may be effective where it is only a tickling in the throat; but when your chest is sore and simple remedies don't answer—then take Eckman's Alternative. Neglect often leads to more serious trouble; a case in point follows:

715 Cherry street, Phila., Pa. "Gentlemen: In July, 1907, I first noticed the conditions that showed I had Consumption. I lost weight rapidly; had a hollow cough, hemorrhages and very severe night sweats. My brother recommended Eckman's Alternative. In the fall of 1907 I began to take it. At this time I am perfectly well and robust. My appetite is good and my weight has increased from 110 to 140 pounds. Not a trace of my old trouble remains. I will gladly express the merits of this medicine to anyone." M. L. GERHARDT. Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever; Throat and Lung Troubles, and in up-bulking the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. For sale by Smith's drug store and other leading druggists. Ask for booklet of cured cases and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for additional evidence.

Exiled Princess Writes Memoirs

And Toselli, Her Pianist Husband, Tired of Scandals, Starts Action for Divorce.

The exiled Crown Princess Louise of Saxony and her pianist husband, Enrico Toselli, who is to institute proceedings against her for divorce, Toselli's action is the result of her determination to publish her memoirs, the sale of which is the source of her income and for this reason has instructed his lawyers, according to reports from Rome, to institute proceedings. The princess came into notoriety through her elopement with Giron, the tutor, who later deserted her, and she remained in Saxony as the wife of the crown prince who would now be queen. She now has an allowance of $10,000. When it was rumored she was writing her memoirs and that they dealt with the court life of Saxony, she was warned that if she published them the pension would be cut off. Her reply was that her publisher assured her $100,000 and perhaps more. The princess had one child, Princess Monica, born after she left the court. The child was given up by her in Florence, soon after her marriage to Toselli. The child now is in Saxony, and is being educated with the other children of the woman who sacrificed a throne to elope with a tutor who later deserted her.

POLITICS IN CANADA IS NOW AT FEVER HEAT

Issue No Longer Certain—Conservatives Claim Victory for Their Cause.

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 15.—Nominations took place yesterday in Ontario for the election of September 21. There are contests in every constituency in the province but one. In the county of Wood, W. M. German, Liberal, but opposed to reciprocity, was selected by acclamation. In East Toronto two conservatives are in the field. Both opposing reciprocity. The anti therefore start out with a lead of two in Ontario.

A proof of the thoroughness of the fight is shown by the fact that in previous elections several candidates of each party have been elected without opposition instead of only one, as yesterday. In this contest strong candidates were nominated by both parties and the result of the reciprocity issue will be awaited with interest. The political fight in Canada, which is at fever heat, is without question the most keenly contested that has been seen in the dominion since confederation. For the first time since the liberal victory in 1896 the conservatives have a chance of once more controlling the policy of the country. While it was a foregone conclusion a few days after the election was announced that Sir Wilfrid Laurier would be returned with an 1870 or perhaps a larger majority, it is now frankly admitted by liberals that the issue is doubtful, while conservatives claim that victory for their cause is assured.
