In a season that is remarkable hiefly because of attacks by press and clergymen upon certain managers secause of their alleged tendency to produce plays of questionable mora one, it is worthy of more than pass ing comment that "Polly of the Cirwith the charming Ida St. Leon as Polly, under the direction of Frederic Thompson, which comes here of September 18, for a matinee and night performance at the Auditorium in all ts massive entirety exactly as seen at the Liberty Theater in New York City for one full season, has been the subject of special commendation from more than one hundred pulpits fr churches throughout the country, and has been pronounced as the cleanes nurest, genuluely American play that he stage has seen in years. That the great majority of theater oers have no taste for picturesque rench farces or other dramatic offerings with vicious tendencies 1 shown by the fact that "Polly of the Circus," with its unusually refreshing pictures of the lives of simple people in the small towns, is one of the greatest financial successes in stage history and there is no doubt that its loca visit will attract one of the largest udiences the theater has ever held After the matinee performance, a reception will be held upon the stage for the children in order to give them chance to romp and play with "Polly" and the ponies. Tickets are now selling at Whitlock's clothing store for both the matinee and night performance.
