PRELIMINARY HEARING IN DAUGHTERY CASE. On Charge of Killing Milton Hamby, at Black Mountain, 12 Years Ago.

The preliminary hearing to inquire into the killing of Milton Hamby by Lawson Daugherty, which occurred at Black Mountain about 12 years ago, began before Magistrate Gudgeon this afternoon. The defendant is represented by Wells & Swain, the state by Solicitor Reynolds and the private prosecution by Jones and Williams. There are several witnesses to be examined and on account of the number of people desiring to hear the proceedings it was decided to hold the trial in the county court room. At the time of the killing Daugherty left Black Mountain and several days ago was captured in Knoxville. He was brought here and placed in jail and a few days later made bond of $4000. Preparation. "Are you still taking a cold plunge every morning?" "No, I quit that to save time." "Why, a cold plunge doesn't take more than a minute or two." "I know, but I used to spend three-quarters of an hour curled up in bed battling."—Harper's Magazine.

ELKMONT HEIGHTS LOT SALE SEPT. 27

Handsome Property at the Foot of Elk Mountain and Gooch's Peak.

A new resident section is to be developed on the Asheville and East Tennessee railroad, which is to be known as Elkmont Heights, at the foot of Elk Mountain and Gooch's Peak. It is the property formerly owned by W. A. Swain and was recently bought by Greenwood & Blackstock. The sale of the lots is in the hands of the Southern Land Auction Company, which has sold so many tracts of land recently and which placed on sale a number of lots at the new town site of Morris, a few days ago. Only 75 lots are to be sold now and it is believed, considering the location and topography of the land, that they will be sought for eagerly. The sale is to take place September 27.

The property to be developed was a part of the large Reynolds farm and some months ago, while owned by Mr. Swain, there was talk of buying it for the new golf links. Because of the beautiful rolling hills, of which it is partly made up, it was considered a fine location for that purpose; and for the same reason the company thinks that it will prove a popular resident section. The lots are now being surveyed and the streets laid. This tract is at the junction of the Macadamized Burnsville road and the sand-dam Beaverdam road. It is only a few minutes drive from the city and at the same time is within the ten-cent limit on the Weaverville car line. It is pointed out that the land on the Weaverville line has increased wonderfully in value and that this is no exception. There is a bold mountain spring from which the residents can be supplied with water. The company will furnish transportation to the place of sale. Valuable prizes are also to be given.

"SPREAD A LITTLE JOY" FINALLY COME TO GRIEF

Is the Story of Four Colored Boys Who Didn't Mean Any Harm.

John Johnson, Carl Dinkins, Ben Boyd and Skipper Davis were arraigned in police court this morning for taking a surry and team and a horse and buggy from the livery stable of Mr. White on South Main street last night, and taking a little sight-seeing trip over the city and suburbs between the hours of 10 and 11. Mr. White testified that between 12 and 1 o'clock last night he was called to the stable by a young colored boy, Mark Washburn, who had been left in charge of the stable, and was told that these boys had taken out the rig against his will and had forced him to go along with them. The horse and buggy was returned before he reached the stable and the other rig was brought in while he was there. He captured the boys and turned them over to the officers. Young Mark said the boys had come in, hitched up the teams in the face of his protests and then forced him to go along with them; that one of them procured whiskey and they forced him to drink several times; that several "colored ladies" were taken on the trip and when the party made a halt below Kenilworth park he made his escape and came back to town, reporting the matter to Mr. White.

It was in evidence from the other side that Mark was as much in it as anybody else; that he was sitting on a seat by one of the "ladies" on Eagle street and could easily have gotten away or called an officer if he hadn't wanted to go along. Mark would evidently have been in as bad as the others had not Mr. White and C. C. Brown plead for the court's lenient consideration, as they believed he really did all he could and he was evidently scared of the others, who were larger than himself. All of them except Mark said that

When shall we be freed from the symphonies of Beethoven?—Gaston Carraud. Bring, O time, the hour that frees Us from Ludwig van Beethoven. Shall there be no symphonies? Matching those this god has woven? Must we always gasp and gape When his wondrous words are played? When, O when, shall we escape From the mighty Ludwig's shade? Bring the hour that frees us, too, From another fond obsession; nev'ry. Did he quite exhaust expression? How much longer, pray, must we Take him, as we'd take a pill? When, O when, shall we be free From the plays of mighty Will? Shall the long-accepted page Always shadow our endeavor? Has a god no youth and age? Once a god, a god forever? Must we always bend the knee? Must we pipe eternal praise? When, O when, shall we be free? From the gods of other days?—Chicago Tribune.

TURNED BLIND ALMOST FELL

Mrs. Hansen Says At First Her Case Seemed Hopeless, but She Finally Won Out.

Mobile, Ala.—"For seven years," says Mrs. Sigurd Hansen, of this city, "I suffered with womanly troubles, and, at last, was operated on. I felt better for a time, but soon I had the same trouble as before. I had dizzy spells, and would turn blind and almost fall over. I had pains in my back and side, and was not able to work. Half the time, I could not eat my breakfast, and I always felt weak and had a headache. One day, my husband got me a bottle of Cardul, and I tried it. I felt better, so I took some more. Now, I am well and feel better than ever. I have a good appetite and sleep well. It is all due to Cardul. I only wish every suffering woman would try it. They would soon feel as good as I do." You may be sure, when Cardul will relieve and cure such a serious case as that of Mrs. Hansen, that it will work much more quickly and certainly, help those women who have no serious symptoms, but are just weak and ailing. Are you? Try it. N. B.—Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

Skipper Davis, a little black negro, who was continuously moved to tears over the situation, did not help plan the trip and joined the crowd on Eagle street. Skipper was called to the stand and told to open up and tell the truth and he might get off. He said he got in the surry on Eagle street upon invitation and, when asked if they told him where they were going, replied that his information was that they were "jest goin' to spread a little joy." As to what was done on the trip he knew very little, as he said he was asleep most of the time. He was turned loose; he and Mark were both soundly reprimanded and told that it would be best not to appear in court again. The others of the gang were bound over to court, for probable cause, on a charge that amounted to horse stealing.

DR. HASTINGS H. HART LECTURED LAST NIGHT

Makes Interesting Talk on the Subject of Child Helping at Y. M. C. A.

At a meeting of the Child's Welfare Association at the Y. M. C. A. last night, which was opened by an introductory talk by Judge Pritchard, Dr. Hastings H. Hart of the Russell Sage foundation, delivered a most interesting and educational address. Dr. Hart has been dealing with child problems for the past 24 years and his experience is a most valuable asset to the work. His remarks last night should prove of much benefit to the work of reclaiming young offenders in this city. Dr. Hart emphasized the importance of a playground and boy scout movement, as the best way of keeping boys out of trouble from the first. He was heartily in accord with the methods in use here for the reclaiming of the insipient criminal, and complimented the work being done by Judge Adams, with the help of Probation Officer Gorham. He said that a probation officer could do great things for the boys by being a friend to them and showing them the right way to live; but he added that in cases where there are lapses into criminal acts, a reformatory or reclamation school is essential. The speaker also referred to the part played in the rearing of a boy by his parents, saying that the foolish ones, who did not manage their homes well, are often the main factor in driving a boy into crime. He also said that physical weakness might do this and could be overcome by tact on the part of parents and teachers. After the lecture Dr. Hart conferred with the members of the association.

Is Like Trying to Get Rid of Dandruff Without Herpicide. Did you ever see any one trying to wash themselves without soap or water? If you did what would you say of him? It is every bit as foolish to try to get rid of Dandruff and to prevent Baldness by feeding the germs which cause it, with Cantharides, Vaseline, Glycerine and similar substances which form the principal ingredients of most so-called Hair Growers.
