SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

Personal Mention, News of the Societies, Meetings, Etc.

Redmon-Pritchard.
One of the prettiest and most interesting weddings of the season will be solemnized at the Baptist church in Marshall tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, when George Pritchard will be married to Miss Mary Robena Redmon. Mr. Pritchard is a son of Judge Jeter C. Pritchard of Asheville and is now engaged in the practice of law at Marshall. Miss Redmon is the daughter of one of Marshall's leading business men and is prominent socially in this section. Both young people have a host of friends throughout western North Carolina. Many Asheville people will go down to Marshall to witness the ceremony and a few of the more intimate friends and relatives of the contracting parties have already gone. Extensive preparations have been made for the event and it promises to be one of the prettiest weddings ever seen in this vicinity.

Col. Jones' Week-End Party.
Col. S. A. Jones entertained another week-end house party Saturday at his Ruby lodge beyond Balsam. The guests, who have returned to their respective homes, were Mrs. Tate, Miss Tate, and Mrs. Barton of New York, who are now guests at the Manor; Mr. and Mrs. Woolsey of Waynesville, Mr. and Mrs. Alden Howell and their little daughter, and their guest, Mrs. Walker, and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hildebrand. The party enjoyed the outing to the utmost.

Col. Jones has rendered his little mountain lodge, with its picturesque setting, uncommonly attractive by cultivating in the immediate foreground a garden of old-fashioned flowers, and there is a mint-bed, the cultivation of which, Sam Blythe, in writing of the home life of John Sharp Williams, calls a gentlemanly and scholarly occupation.

The best autumn season in years is now being enjoyed by Mountain Meadows Inn. The season of the year is really the most delightful of all for a stay at this unique inn or for a drive out over the six miles of road with its unsurpassed scenery and mountain views. This is being found out by a large number of tourists still remaining in the mountains and, besides the large number staying at the inn for the short balance of the season, there are five or six dinner parties every day composed of people from Asheville, who drive out for dinner and return in the evening.

Mrs. Charles L. Minor was the hostess at the Country Club Saturday afternoon and poured tea for an exceptionally large number of guests, including a few from out of town. The finals in the mixed foursome handicap golf tournament between Mrs. Vance Brown and E. L. Frost and Miss Eleanor Morrison and H. F. Seymour resulted in a tie. The match will be played off one day this week, as soon as Mr. Seymour returns from a business trip to Cleveland.

The report that Miss Beatrice Stowe would not be in the city this winter and that her dancing class would be discontinued is a mistake and the class will be continued as usual in the Battery Park ball room, where Monday afternoon socials will again be the regular weekly social event during the long winter months. The young people of the city, who have long been accustomed to these weekly dances, will be delighted to know that they are not to be discontinued.

A party composed of Misses Mabel and Lucille Moore, Anderson and Race; Prof. Caldwell, R. R. Williams, R. C. Daniel and Master Jack Fessenden, went out to Graybeard yesterday morning and returned in the afternoon. The party climbed to the summit and, although the heat was rather intense for such strenuous exercise, they nevertheless report a most enjoyable time. Miss Race chaperoned the young people.

There is to be a called meeting of the Rectory's Aid society at Trinity church this afternoon at 4 o'clock at

"BLACK HAND" METHODS LAND YOUTH IN JAIL

Salisbury Man Released Under Bond Made by the Man Whom He Threatened.

Special to The Gazette-News.
Salisbury, Sept. 18.—Under a warrant sworn out by Postoffice Inspector Bulla, Charles F. Stewart, a well known young Salisbury man, charged with using the mails for fraudulent purposes, was Saturday night released under $1000 bond, given by the man he threatened, and is being held for trial tomorrow. The affair caused a sensation here on account of the circumstances leading to the arrest. It is stated that W. F. Snider, cashier of the Wachovia Bank and Trust company in Salisbury, a leading business man of this city, had received a number of black hand letters during the past two weeks. In these letters a large sum of money was demanded under threat of death.

No attention was given the demands until the last one came demanding that Mr. Snider appear at 9 p. m., September 15, at a certain bridge near Salisbury, that he carry a white flag over his head and proceed along a road until a bell should ring. At this place he was to find a bag into which he should place the money. Sheriff McKemie, Deputy J. R. Cruise, Inspector Bulla and a number of the circumstances leading to the arrest. It is stated that W. F. Snider, cashier of the Wachovia Bank and Trust company in Salisbury, a leading business man of this city, had received a number of black hand letters during the past two weeks. SLAYERS OF MASHBURN SENTENCED TO PRISON

Special to The Gazette-News.
Robbinsville, Sept. 18.—In the trial of W. J. Hyde, O. R. Crisp and Jim Hollifield, charged with the killing of Tom Mashburn about six months ago, which was concluded Friday, Judge Webb, who is presiding over the Graham county Superior court, sentenced Hyde and Crisp to 12 months and Hollifield to four months imprisonment, after they had been convicted of manslaughter. The men were found guilty of murder in the second degree but counsel for defense succeeded in having the verdict set aside. Thereupon the defendants submitted to a verdict of manslaughter.

The three men went to arrest Mashburn, who had escaped from the chains of one of the Georgia counties. It is said that he was unwilling to accompany the officers and was shot by Hyde. Hyde says Mashburn was cutting at him with a knife and that he shot in self-defense.

Dow Cornsilk, an Indian, who was tried for killing John Smoker, another Indian, was acquitted.

DAUGHERTY BOUND OVER AT HEARING

In a preliminary hearing before Magistrate Guder in the county court house late Saturday afternoon, Lawson Daugherty, charged with the killing of Milton Hamby about 12 years ago at Black Mountain, was bound to Superior court under bond of $4000, which he immediately gave.

Only two witnesses testified at the hearing. These were John White and A. B. Hamby, father of the dead man, and after they testified counsel for Daugherty waived examination of the remaining witnesses. Daugherty was represented by Wells & Swain and the prosecution by Solicitor Reynolds and Jones & Williams.

Daugherty was arrested in Knoxville some weeks ago by Deputy Sheriff Theatro wants to see you tonight.
