STRONG ADDRESS

Large Crowd Hears Judge Pritchard on Subject "Danial as an Example."

At the Y. M. C. A. men's meeting yesterday afternoon Judge J. C. Pritchard addressed a large audience the subject, "Daniel, as an Example for Young Men," drawing strongpractical lessons, which he applied to the young men of today. The meeting was made more pleasant by the musical selections of Miss Pearl Shope and Prof. E. B. Stimson, who the piano accompaniment of Miss Mabel Wolfe. Judge Pritchard reviewed the life and captivity of Daniel and his three ompanions, showing how they resisted the temptations put before them by the king, at the cost of losing the cing's favor; and he admonished the oung men of the city to meet tempations with the same firmness as did hings of life can be secured. The United States Marine band, which is booked to appear at the Auditorium September 29, is said to be the argest and best equipped musical organization in the United States, and one of the finest orchestras as well, Its orchestral capacity has been developed by its present leader, Lieut. William H. Santelmann. In Sousa's time the old organization was looked spon as a great and splendid band, but when Santelmann took up his baton he decided that it might just as well be an orchestra as well as a national band, and he has labored to this end, with the result that its reputotion as an orchestra is on a pa with its reputation as a band.
