NO MORE PAVING TO BE UNDERTAKEN

After That Already Ordered Is Completed—Minor Matters Before Aldermen.

REBATE TO MR. RAYSOR ON HIS WHISKEY TAX

Will Discontinue Sale—Reports of Committees, a Number of Permits to Build, Etc.

The meeting of the board of aldermen last night was mostly taken up with the consideration of street and sidewalk matters, hearing complaints and special requests and the routine of reports and reading of bills.

According to an order of the board last night no other paving will be done except that already ordered, since the appropriation for this purpose is exhausted.

Certain residents on Flint street asked that the order to have that street paved be reconsidered but as the majority of the property owners wished it done the order was allowed to stand.

The board of health was instructed to take action in the matter of the Atkins dairy, which is within the city limits, as it has been reported a number of times.

Lizzie McDonald of Catholic Hill asked that the alderman prohibit the Western Union Telegraph company from making additional charges for delivering messages in that part of the city and this was referred to Corporation Counsel Glenn, to see if the board has authority in the matter.

The light was ordered on Sassafras street; a sidewalk was ordered laid on the south side of Eagle street from Market to Valley street, and on the west side of North Main street from North Catawba street.

The question of laying a sidewalk on Lexington avenue, near the old Banner warehouse, was referred to the street committee and the board of health was advised as to conditions about the building that require attention.

The laying of a sidewalk on the west side of Haywood street was discussed at length and it is likely that committee will report on this at the next meeting.

On request of C. A. Raysor that he be allowed a rebate on his whiskey tax, since he intends to discontinue the sale of whiskey after October 1, the clerk was ordered to prepare a voucher for the amount, according to the agreement made at the time Mr. Raysor took out the license in order to dispose of the whiskey he had on hand when the $100 tax was imposed.

A building on Southside avenue belonging to F. S. Foster and one belonging to J. H. Lange on Valley street were condemned.

To the city engineer was referred the matter of laying a sewer line on Vivian and Dorset avenues, which was requested by H. P. Claudius.

There was a petition filed from the property owners of Pearson drive asking that that street be paved.

The matter of improving and paving the space between Treadway's store and the railroad track was referred to the street committee.

In widening Charlotte street it was decided that the city would stand the expense of resetting the curb while the property owners will be charged with the extra paving. It is said the widening is to be made from Clyde street to the city limits; the width of the sidewalk is to be reduced from 10 to seven and a half feet; and does not refer to the proposed widening for the Asheville Electric company.

The following building permits were granted:

E. L. Mull, eight-room residence on Orr street; estimated cost $2000.

J. C. Arbogast, five eight-room residences on Courtland avenue; estimated cost of each $2600.

Mrs. M. H. Harris, twelve-room residence on College grounds; estimated cost $4000.

C. N. Allison, one-room addition to residence on Pearson drive; estimated cost $75.

E. E. Collister, one-room addition to house on Merrimon avenue; estimated cost $250.

Carl Shaw, six-room residence on Pearson drive; estimated cost $1500.

J. Selvey, one-room addition to house on Josephine street; estimated cost $255.

J. C. Abernathy, two-room addition to house on Flemmons street; estimated cost $250.

J. L. Thipon, barn on Spruce street; estimated cost $35.

E. E. Collister, one-room addition to house on Asheland avenue; estimated cost $200.

Viola Wells, one-room addition to house on Catholic avenue; estimated cost $25.

Sheriff Williams today received a message from the Greenville, S. C., authorities stating that they have captured a man known as Wakefield, and by various other names, who is wanted here on the charge of stealing a bicycle. Deputy Sheriff Lyda left this afternoon to take the man in custody.

It is said that Wakefield hired a bicycle about a week ago from a boy named Meadowood; that he immediately checked it and left. He was traced to Greenville and the authorities there were notified. They found him in possession of a bicycle, the serial number of which corresponds to that given by the boy.

CITY NEWS

The management of the Theatre on Pack square has put in a new moving picture machine, which is improving the pictures shown.

A special meeting of the directors of the Buncombe county Good Roads association has been called for this afternoon at 5 o'clock, in City hall.

J. H. Tucker will speak at the Y. M. I. song service tomorrow at 5 p. m. The Bible class will meet at 4 o'clock.

The fire department was called to 115 Bartlett street this morning and found a slight blaze, which was put out with chemical extinguishers. It is said the blaze was due to a defective fuse.

The Asheville & East Tennessee railroad will inaugurate its winter schedule Monday. The cars will run on the odd hours from Asheville until 7 o'clock, the last car. The early car schedule will remain as at present.

Rev. M. M. Wambolt of White Springs, Fla., will preach at the First Baptist church tomorrow. Mr. Wambolt has a summer home in West Asheville and has consented to preach several Sundays, while the pastorate is vacant.

According to custom the members of the Asheville Merchants association will close their stores after October 1, at 6 o'clock this winter, instead of 6:30 o'clock, which has obtained during the summer. This does not apply to Saturday's, when the closing hour will be the same.

It is announced that the city ticket office of the Southern railway will observe the winter schedule effective October 2, and the office will be open during the week from 9 o'clock in the morning to 6 o'clock in the afternoon. On Sunday's only one hour will be observed, from 12:30 to 1:30 o'clock.

C. F. Ray has moved his photographic studio to No. 2 North Pack square, over Nichols' shoe store. The studio will occupy the entire top floor, which has been remodeled, making it one of the largest and best equipped in the state. The business office is located on the second floor.

Secretary Gudgeon of the Western North Carolina Fair association has sent out notices to the stockholders of the organization of a meeting to be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the board of trade rooms. All the stockholders are asked to be present and are informed that the prospects for a successful fair are bright.

In the close and hotly contested game of football yesterday afternoon at Riverside park between the SA and 85 grades of the Asheville high school the former won by a score of 5 to 0. Hunt, Brown and Jordan did fine work for the A's, while the star performers for B grade were Wilson, Wood, J. Y. Jordan, Jr., and Case.

There was a meeting of the county school teachers this morning at the High school. Secretary Gudgeon of the Western North Carolina fair association was present and made a talk about the fair, which is to be held here. It is likely that the teachers and pupils all over the county will attend the fair one day while it is in progress.

The fall schedule of the Asheville Electric company will go into effect Sunday, October 1, 1911. The most important change is that on Montford avenue line—a 15 minute schedule is inaugurated. West Asheville line will have a 30 minute schedule until 10:30, the last car. Biltmore line, 15 minutes schedule until 9 p. m., then every 20 minutes until 11, last car.

The regular session of police court this morning was rather light, there being only one "drunk" before the court and a charge against an old colored woman, Lizzie Cross, for fighting her mother-in-law. Lizzie was found guilty, but owing to the fact that she is blind, the judgment in the case was suspended and the costs remitted. The retaining cases against J. B. Lange were brought up in a continued session at 11 o'clock.

Today is the last day in which the two per cent discount may be had on city taxes. This special offer has been in effect for the benefit of the city taxpayers and a large number of them have taken advantage of it. However, there are more who have not and, for the benefit of these, City Tax Collector Bartlett stated this morning that the office will be open until rather late this evening and all wishing to take advantage of the discount in paying their city taxes will have an opportunity until 8 o'clock this evening, or possible later.

The Asheville Ministers' association will meet at Central Methodist church next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. The subject of the paper will be "Church Federation." Three very important matters will be discussed: A Church Attendance Campaign, "A Mission to Strangers," by all the churches of the city; and the matter of conducting nondenominational services for men during the Lenten period next year. All resident and visiting members are cordially invited to be present.

In Superior court the evidence in the case of Sherman Patterson vs. Asheville Steam Laundry was concluded this morning and part of the argument was heard. The case was taken up yesterday morning. The plaintiff is suing the defendant company for $10,000 for personal injury, alleging that he was hurt while he was in the employ of the company by his clothing catching on a nut on the line shaft. The plaintiff is represented by Locke Craig and Judge P. C. Coker; the defendant by Merriek & Barnard.
