EACH DEPARTMENT IN GOOD HANDS

Prospects Look Better and Better for the Western North Carolina Fair.

AN EDUCATED HORSE SECURED FOR MIDWAY

One of the Most Remarkable Animals in the World—Mouse from Alaska, Etc.

Secretary Gudge, who was called to Knoxville at the close of the Appalachian exposition, has returned to Asheville and reports that he secured for the Western North Carolina fair the best of the midway attractions at Knoxville. This is California Prince, said to be the best educated horse in America. He is a more wonderful animal than the one shown at the Jamestown exposition, for whose killing a railroad was sued for $100,000. The owner receiving $30,000 California Prince is insured for $20,000. He was first shown at the Seattle exposition. He is exhibited by J. H. Cuthbertson, an animal training expert of Riverside, Cal., where the horse's owners live. With him is exhibited a bull mouse, captured last summer near Circle City, Alaska. This is, Mr. Gudge, feels sure, the best midway show in the south.

Every department of the fair is now under a competent, energetic manager. The swine department will be one of the best. There are entries for 27 pens—all that is needed to complete the exhibit is a razorback and one will be secured. R. S. Curtis, animal expert of the A. and M. college, Raleigh, writes Secretary Gudge that he will be here to assist in judging the live stock.

T. J. Abbott, who has charge of the concessions, will go to Winston-Salem tomorrow and will complete his contract with the association this week. The fair is now in progress there and it is thought he can look some shows.

NAMED AS DELEGATES FOR ROAD CONVENTION

Asheville Men Will Attend Meeting of Appalachian Association at Roanoke.

The Asheville and Buncombe county delegations to the Appalachian Road Road convention, which meets at Roanoke Wednesday and Thursday, will leave tomorrow morning for the convention. The delegation is not as large as it was hoped it would be but the men who are going are real good roads enthusiasts and may be depended upon to hold up Buncombe's end of the meeting. These will be H. W. Plummer, F. Stilke, leather, E. C. Chambers and W. F. Handolph.

A review of the program was given in The Gazette-News some time ago, and it promises to be one of much interest and instruction to road builders from all over this southern section who will attend. The questions to be discussed are all live ones, and the men scheduled to handle them are well versed in their subjects.

The delegates from this place will not forget Asheville on this trip and will take along some Asheville booklets and other reading matter published by the board of trade to distribute among the delegates, who may not be acquainted with this great section. They think that a little missionary work in this publicity cause is in order upon an occasion like this.

CITY NEWS

The board of education held a meeting this morning, at which detail matters connected with the conduct of the county schools were discussed and discussed.

It was announced yesterday at the First Baptist church that Locke Craig would deliver an address next Sunday at the church on the occasion of the "Back to Sunday School" meeting.

The board of county commissioners met this morning for their regular monthly meeting. The business transacted consisted, for the most part, of routine matters, the auditing of accounts and hearing a few complaints.

The fire escape for the Auditorium, which was purchased some time ago, has arrived and will be installed at once. It is to be placed on the north side of the building and if satisfactory another will be purchased for the south side. The escape is of the "shoot-the-chute" kind.

A damage suit has been instituted in Superior court by Robert Jenks against the Asheville Electric company, in which the plaintiff is suing for $5000, alleging in the complaint filed, that he was injured when one of the defendant company's cars was derailed several weeks ago, that he was bruised, cut and wounded.

The Spaulding trophy cup, which is offered to the winners in the class A basketball league of the Y. M. C. A., arrived today and is very handsome. It measures 21 inches in height and is artistically ornamented. It already has all proper engraving with the exception of the name of the winning team, and there is a space left for this which will be filled in when the cup is won.

Gus Dekas, a Greek, who came here from Augusta, Ga., about three months ago, died yesterday morning at his home on Victoria road. The deceased was a waiter and came here to work but has been ill ever since his arrival. The services will be held at the establishment of the Red Cross undertaking company tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock and the interment will be at Riverside cemetery.

The United States civil service commission will give examinations for the following positions on the dates designated, scientific assistant in the department of agriculture, salary ranging from $900 to $2400, October 17-19; plant pathologist in the department of agriculture, salary $2000 per year, October 25; and (male) in the bureau of standards, salary $500 to $720 per year, October 25-26; teacher of agriculture (male), salary 1200 per year, October 25.

Today is being observed by the congregations of Jews in Asheville as "Yom Kippur" or "Day of Atonement." The observance of this day began last evening, with services at the Jewish temple on Franklin street, and the Orthodox synagogue on Church street. At 8 o'clock an interesting service of 150 persons took place and Rabbi Eliaz, Ed. at the latter. Services will continue until tonight and the fast, which began last evening at 6 o'clock, will continue until 6 o'clock this evening.

The committee which was appointed a few days ago to go before the county commissioners and suggest that the children's home, which is now located at Woodbery, be combined with a reform or training school, which might be located at the site of the old Asheville waterworks, will probably meet with the board late this afternoon or tomorrow. This committee was appointed at a meeting of the committees from the board of aldermen and other interested people, when the above plan was suggested.

Upon agreement of the litigants in the case of Robert D. Marshall, trustee, and William Swagerty vs. the William Ritter Lumber company, which was instituted in the Circuit court of the United States a few weeks ago, Judge Pritchard Saturday signed order by which the case is retired from the docket, the plaintiffs to pay the costs in the action. It was adjudged that the title of the plaintiffs to a certain piece of land in the western part of the state was inferior to that of the defendants and by a small stipulation the matter was settled.

The police court docket this morning having a striking resemblance to all other Monday morning dockets, being a mass of drunks, disorderly conduct cases, gambling, etc. There were no cases of interest disposed of except those of two negro boys who were charged with riding bicycles at a dangerous speed. One was sent to the county home for 30 days and the other for 15 days, the latter also being taxed with the costs. Several cases were continued until Wednesday, two of those being retailing cases, in which Lawson Randall and Jim McBeth were charged with dealing in whiskey for personal gain.

A. E. Swayne and E. H. Miller of the Piedmont Directory company have just returned from Niagara Falls, N. Y., where they attended the annual meeting of the American Association of Directory Publishers. Among other things, arrangements were made at this meeting whereby many of the directories will be placed on file in such cities as Chicago, Detroit, Cincinnati and New York, which means much free advertising for the forty cities for which this company now publishes directories. Incidentally, the executive committee was instructed to call the 1912 annual meeting for Asheville.

Deputy Sheriff E. M. Lyda returned last night from Greenville, S. C., where he went to take into custody Sam W. Waldrop, a youth who is charged with stealing a bicycle from a boy named Meadows, about a week ago. It is said he was arrested while riding an icicle, the number of which corresponds to the one given by the Meadows boys. He was accompanied here by his father, and their home is at Greens. The defendant appeared this afternoon before Magistrate James. Examination was waived, and he was bound to court in the sum of $100.

Perfection in Little Things Have Made the Favorite

Some manufacturers throw their stoves and ranges together. They don't care how they make them—wantashowy outside appearance, in order to attract attention and sell the goods. The makers of the Favorite could build their stoves that way—but they don't. They have spent over sixty years climbing towards perfection in stove and range making, and we think they have now reached pretty close to the mark—that's why we handle the Favorite Line. The law protects you in the food you eat, but your own common sense is your only safeguard in buying stoves and ranges, and the confidence you have in the dealer from whom you buy. Come and see our Favorites. You'll be pleased with the beauty of design and thorough workmanship. After you have looked them over carefully and compared them with other makes they'll be your Favorites too. You will know what we mean when we say: Favorite means Perfection when applied to stoves and ranges. It means over sixty years of the very best endeavor in stove and range making.
