BINGHAM VS. LENOIR AT RIVERSIDE TODAY

Bingham an Unknown Quantity This Year, but Team Confident of Victory.

The Bingham football team this afternoon meets the Lenoir college team and a good contest is anticipated. The Bingham team is not considered as strong as it was last year since several of the old players are not here and their places have been filled with new men. However, the local team defeated the Lenoir college last year by a good score and the players are confident of putting up a good game today.

As stated in The Gazette-News a few days ago, Hickman, McDonald, Angier and Norton are the only old players that will appear in today's game.

BACK TO SUNDAY SCHOOL DAY; SPECIAL SERVICES

Tomorrow is known as "Back to Sunday School" day and preparations are being made at some of the Sunday schools to make the services interesting in an effort to have as great an attendance as possible.

At the First Baptist church Hon. Locke Craig, who is one of the teachers, will talk on "Sunday Schools" and it is stated that the members are trying to have an attendance of 1000 at this church.

Special plates have also been made at the Sunday school of Central Methodist church. Each member is asked to attend himself and to bring a friend with him. There will be talks by Rev. Dr. C. W. Byrd, the pastor, and Capt. W. T. Weaver.

This movement was started some weeks ago, and the object is to persuade people to attend Sunday school, regularly, especially those who used to attend and no longer do so. It was suggested by the "Back Home" movement and good results are expected from it.

MINIATURE DISTILLERY CAPTURED IN BURKE

Deputy Collector McCoy has returned to the city from Burke county bringing with him a miniature distilling apparatus, which he found in the shop of a manufacturer of such things. The still proper is shaped like a coffee pot and will hold about three gallons. On the top is the cap, to which the worm is attached. The whole is of copper and it is made in a workmanlike manner.

It is said that it was made to use on a stove. The advantage of a still of this size is that it can be easily hidden, as it is a sort of pocket edition, and could also be carried about very easily on outings or side trips. The worm would take up the most room, although it could be carried in a bucket.

Indicted For Handling Beattie Evidence.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 7.—Indictments charging the publication and mailing of the Beattie murder case have been returned here against the Richmond Evening Journal and the Richmond News-Leader, afternoon newspapers, by the grand jury in the United States circuit court.

The cases are based on an interview with Beattie himself which appeared in the News-Leader, while the girl was held in jail, as a witness and the publication by the Evening Journal of certain parts of the evidence during the trial at Chesterfield.

Postoffice Inspector Saffel was the principal witness against the papers.

CITY NEWS

Lon Cochrane was bound over to Superior court under a bond of $200 by Judge Adams this morning, on a charge of larceny.

Prof. J. H. Michael, principal of the Hill street school, will speak at the Y. M. C. A. song service tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock.

The hearing before Judge Pritchard in the case of Cherokee Tanning and Extract company vs. George H. Leonard et al. of Boston will probably be concluded this afternoon.

The directors of the Farmers Union Supply company are holding a meeting this afternoon for the purpose of electing a manager for the store which they propose to establish in the East section of the city.

The market house committee, which was referred to the city board for creating city hall, has decided to have the Western North Carolina market house erected to have this market house. J. J. Hendrickson of Virginia is to be employed to do the work.

There will be special services Sunday night at the old brick academy on South Main street at 7:30 o'clock, consisting of communion and foot-washing and sermon by Rev. W. H. Bishop on the subject "The Resurrection of the Dead." The public are invited.

At Judge Pritchard's little class for men at the Y. M. C. A. last night there was an attendance of over 40, composed of business men and young men in the different walks of life. Judge Pritchard talked on the Sunday school lesson of last week, "The Watchman on the Wall," and it was very interesting to the hearers. The order supper was much enjoyed and it is certain that these classes are going to prove of great benefit to men of the city who attend.

There has been a considerable bit of inquiry as to what day during the fair next week will be designated as "School Children's day." The management announces today that the children may come any day, but that Wednesday or Thursday will be preferable. The school board at a recent meeting decided to let the teachers and pupils take a day off to attend the fair and it is probable a large number will attend on the day decided upon.

There was a report on the streets about noon today that a fireman engaged in splicing cables for the Asheville Telephone and Telegraph company was killed on Montford avenue by coming in contact with a live wire. This report could not be verified at the office of the telephone company, but it was stated that one of their men was burned in that section this morning by touching in some way one of the Electric company's wires, but his condition is not considered serious. His name was Cline.

ZEB EDWARDS, REFORMER WEAKENS ON THE JOB

A young white fellow named Zeb Edwards decided yesterday afternoon to turn reformer and assist in the teaching up of several blind livers. He confided this information to reformer Fred Jones and in consequence three warrants were sworn out against Ben Morris and Harrison Stewart, white, and John Abby, colored, charging them with retailing to Edwards.

This morning in Police court, however, the prosecuting witness denied ever having bought whiskey from the first defendant, Harrison Stewart. Hope was not entirely gone, however, and the next case was called. The same story was repeated and the second defendant went free. Night her Colonel Lusk said he would have nothing else to do with Edwards. Judge Adams therefore had to let all of them free.

The only thing that Edwards did swear to was that he gave Stewart 75 cents to get him some whiskey and has seen nothing of cash or whiskey since. Stewart's home is in Asheville and Judge Adams gave him until this afternoon at 3 o'clock to leave town. If he was still on the scene at that time he was to be arrested and tried for embezzlement.

"The Gamblers" an Excellent Play.

A fair sized audience greeted "The Gamblers" at the Auditorium last night at its first performance in this city. The play is a dramatic production by Charles Klein and is a very strong one, too. The parts are all well carried and the leading roles by Lillian Kemble as "Catherine Darwin" and Charles Mackay as "Wilbur Emerson" were especially fine.

The performance went through in finished manner and each one of the cast did his or her part so well that there were no discordant impressions to mar the interest of the audience.

Perfection in Little Things Have Made the Favorite

Some manufacturers throw their stoves and ranges together.

They don't care how they make them—wantashows, outside appearance, in order to attract attention and sell the goods.

The makers of the Favorite could build their stoves that way—but they don't.

They have spent over sixty years climbing towards perfection in stove and range making, and we think they have now reached pretty close to the mark—That's why we handle the Favorite Line.

The law protects you in the food you eat, but your own common sense is your only safeguard in buying stoves and ranges, and the confidence you have in the dealer from whom you buy.

Come and see our Favorites. You'll be pleased with the beauty of design and thorough workmanship. After you have looked them over carefully and compared them with other makes they'll be your Favorites too.

You will know what we mean when we say: Favorite means Perfection when applied to stoves and ranges. It means over sixty years of the very best endeavor in stove and range making.
