

Amusements.

"Mutt and Jeff." Gus Hill's production of "Bud" Fisher's peculiar character creation, "Mutt and Jeff," is undoubtedly entitled to the well worn and oft used expression, "The most talked of play of the year."

artist, has made two continents indulge in a daily "laugh fest." All glory to the brain that conceived the idea. Gus Hill is sending to the Auditorium on Friday, October 13th, for an engagement a company of fifty people especially fitted to present "Mutt and Jeff" in a musical comedy form. It is openly acknowledged by all that this is the real novelty production of the current year. Much is expected by admirers of Fisher's peculiar character studies and the play scheduled to appear in your city will fully realize your most ardent expectations. By all means wait for "Mutt and Jeff." It is one great "big laugh." Tickets will be placed on sale Wednesday morning at Whitlock's clothing store. Prices 50c to $1.50.

Creator's Band. The famous blind critic of the Cincinnati Enquirer once said of the noted band which is to appear here

Saturday, October 14th, for one afternoon and evening concert. "Never before last evening did I hear the band which plays under the magical baton of the dazzling Neapolitan Creator. It was to me a novel experience, and as delightful as novel."

That close of the "Carmen" fantasia was actually the loudest sound that I ever heard from musical instruments. In general, his fortissimo are of enormous volume, and flood the ear with an Amazon of tone, yet they are agreeable because of their purity. Again, in such dainty bits as Durand's "Chaconne" and the "Loin du Bal" of Gillel their delicacy of tone, their neatness of rhythm, and their absolutely vivid realization of the poetry of the music could not be overpraised.

"He did the familiar 'William Tell' overture in a way quite unconventional, and in several particulars not as I have heard other directors repeatedly deliver it. It was especially in the irregular rhythms of the storm scene, the impulsive character of the pastoral scene, and the breathless tempo of the closing march; but, then, the composer Rossini was an Italian, and the director Creator is an Italian, and he is quite likely to be right and to conceive the work in the genuine manner as any other, to say the least. However, these are details, and are debatable matters. It is beyond any question that there is a precision, a responsiveness, and a hot-hearted vigor of feeling, and a general abandonment to the rich reveling emotion throughout the entire band and the whole performance which is altogether entrancing. Such tropical noonday glares of tone, such tingling thrills of surprise, such stings of delight I have never before known. It was a strange fascinating pleasure, but if it was a sting, it was vitalizing and delightful rapture."

Tickets will be placed on sale Thursday morning at Whitlock's clothing store.

Best for Biscuits

A prominent teacher in one of the Domestic Science schools in Mississippi writes that she is using Cottolene with excellent results. She says: "For biscuits Cottolene is all that could be desired. The biscuits are light and flaky, with none of that disagreeable odor often found in foods seasoned with lard. Cottolene is also an excellent medium for frying croquettes and doughnuts. It gives them a clean, crisp, brown crust."

Other noted experts, such as Mrs. Rorer and Marion Harland, have given similar testimony to the merits of Cottolene. It not only gives better results than lard but is much more wholesome and economical as well.

SOLDIER SLAYS SELF ON HIS WEDDING DAY

Lieutenant J. E. Lynch Sends Bullet Into Brain Six Hours After His Marriage.

San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 10.—Scarred by six hours after he had married Miss Gladys Caruthers, Second Lieutenant John E. Lynch, third cavalry, U. S. A., killed himself at Fort Sam Houston yesterday. The marriage ceremony was performed at 1 a. m. Lynch was alone in his room about 7 o'clock when two pistol shots were heard. Fellow officers burst through the locked door and found the man dying. One bullet had penetrated the body near the heart. It is presumed Lynch feared that would not prove fatal and fired the second shot through the roof of his mouth into the brain. No cause for the tragedy has been determined.

Lieutenant Lynch enlisted in the army as private in Missouri in 1907. In August, 1910, he became a second lieutenant. He served in the field artillery until August, 1910, when he was transferred to the Third cavalry and assigned to troop M. His father and sister are thought to reside in Los Angeles.

GROWS HAIR ON BALD HEADS

Bald-Headed People May Get a New Chance in Life.

In these days when youth is the moving factor in business, when a man makes his mark at thirty-five and is ready to retire at forty-five, when business houses pension the man we call "middle aged" rather than allow his lagging influence to intrude upon the commercial rush, a bald head is almost fatal to any man's hopes. The following must therefore prove interesting to people who are losing their hair or who are bald.

Resorcin is one of the latest and most effective germ killers discovered by science, and in connection with Beta Naphthol, which is both germicidal and antiseptic, a combination formed which destroys the germs which rob the hair of its nutriment, and also creates a clean and healthy condition of the scalp, which prevents the development of new germs.

Pilocarpin is a well-known agent for restoring the hair to its natural color, where the loss of color has been due to a disease of the scalp. Yet, it is not a coloring matter or dye. It is not a coloring matter or dye.

This combination of curatives mixed with alcohol as a stimulant perfected a most effective remedy for hair and scalp troubles. The famous Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is chiefly composed of Resorcin, Beta Naphthol, and Pilocarpin. It helps to make the scalp healthy, to nourish the hair, to stimulate the follicles. Where the hair is already bare, it enters the follicles, revitalizes the roots, supplies nourishment, and stimulates a new growth.

We want you to try a few bottles of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic, on our personal guarantee that the trial will not cost you a penny if it does not give you absolute satisfaction. That is proof of our faith in this remedy and it should indisputably demonstrate that we know what we are talking about when we say that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will grow hair on bald heads, except, of course, where baldness has been of such long duration that the roots of the hair are entirely dead, the follicles closed and grown over, and the scalp is glazed.

Remember, we are using our statements upon what has already been accomplished by the use of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic, and we have the right to assume that what it has done to hundreds of others it will do for you. In any event you cannot lose anything by giving it a trial on our liberal guarantee. Remember, you can get Rexall Remedies in this country only at our store—The Rexall Store. Smith's drug store, Paoli square, and South Main street.

AT THE GRAND

The show at the Grand for the first three nights of this week is the best that has graced the stage of that theater since its opening as a vaudeville house. Dan Kelley is the first on the bill and his act was enthusiastically received last night by two large audiences. His voice is good, the selection he gave were well suited to it and he was forced to answer several encores. The class of his comedy is also very high and his jokes, puns, etc., combined with a most delightful refreshing stage address, leave an unusually good impression. Kelley was followed by "Lee Legars" in an unusually fine acrobatic act. The "arunts" that these people do are almost incredible and seldom seen outside the tent of one of the leading circuses. Their act is not one of the cheap fake sort, but one in which both skill and strength are well displayed. It was consequently highly entertaining and enjoyable. The pictures were most along comic lines and very laughable. Mr. Steele sang between acts and added much to the bill for the evening. It is a good show and one that should not be missed by the patrons of good vaudeville.
