That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, hervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, feeling of fullness, disziness and slok headache, means indigestion; a dis-ordered stomach which cannot be regulated until you remove the cause. Mutt and Jeff. Auditorium next Friday the night, October 13th, Mr. Gus Hill will present, for the first time in this city the mammoth production of "Mutt and Jeff," a dramatization of Bud

Fisher's cartoons of the same name which at the present time are provok-ing laughter all over the entire coun-This play was constructed for laughing purposes and it is said to keep the audience in a constant uproar from the rise to the fall of the final curtain. It is one of the biggest productions sent on the road in great many years, Mr. Hill having sent in the neighborhood of $75,000 in preparing the piece for presentation, and as a result its presentation here will be a revelation to the theatergoers of this city. There is an interesting story to the play, the piece being filled with com-edy situations, songs and ensembles. The members of the cast have been particularly chosen, especially the characters of "Mutt" and "Jeff." In their selection Mr. Hill toured the entire country, and as a result he believes he has characters for those parts that are well-nigh perfection. The entire company numbers more than lifty people, at least a half dozen stars being included in the cast, and there is a large number of supernumeraries in the play.

The story of "Mutt and Jeff" is one of love and politics in a South Amerian Republic, intermingled with which a touch of pathos and "slews" of highter, and a fasty dressing of catchy music, not forgetting a large contingent of pretty girls, ' Manager Bailey believes "Mutt and Jeff' will prove to be the banner atmetion of the season at his playhouse. The piece has not heretofore been seen in any city and will receive its initial presentation here.

Tickets are now selling in Whitlock's clothing store. Creatore's Band.
