RETAIL MERCHANTS BANQUET TONIGHT

Began Arriving Last Night and Many More Came in This Morning.

TROLLEY CAR RIDES OVER THE CITY TODAY

Attend Matinee This Afternoon—Will Visit Fair Tomorrow as U. C. T. Guests.

Retail merchants of western North Carolina are now enjoying themselves in the city, being the guests of the wholesale houses of the section under the auspices of the Asheville council No. 285, United Commercial Travelers, while the Western North Carolina fair is in progress. They began to arrive last night and were met at the Swannanoa-Berkley hotel by the reception committee appointed to welcome them. Many more arrived this morning and it is expected that they will continue to come all during the fair.

This morning they were furnished special cars and took rides over the various lines of the Asheville Electric company and this afternoon they were taken to the matinee at the Grand Opera house.

The feature of the whole series of entertainments, however, is the banquet which is to occur tonight at the Swannanoa-Berkley hotel. Extensive preparations have been made to have this remain in the minds of the merchants as one of the most enjoyable occasions they ever had. According to the program Mayor Rankin will deliver the address of welcome and the response will be made by L. Lee Marr of Bryson City. Mr. Marr is one of the leading merchants in the western part of the state, is acquainted with the business conditions and his talk will no doubt be of interest.

N. Buckner is also on the program and he will speak on "The Need of Western North Carolina Spirit and How to Create It."

Tomorrow night the merchants will be taken through the fair grounds as the guests of the council.

The Theatrons want to see you tonight

SAYS BRIBERY CHARGES WERE BASED ON HEARSAY

Man Who Brought About Stephenson Investigation Has No Facts to Relate.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 11.—The charges that United States Senator Isaac Stephenson of Wisconsin secured his election through bribery and that he spent $107,793 corruptly to influence voters were yesterday put by the United States senate investigating committee squarely up to John J. Blaine, a state senator who brought the charges. As a result Blaine admitted he had no facts or information personally known to him to be true upon which to substantiate the charges. He admitted that the charges were based largely on newspaper editorials, political speeches and hearsay.

"And you, on such information, were willing to make allegations which might jeopardize a United States senator and which if proven might send him to the penitentiary— is that true?" asked Senator W. B. Heyburn, the chairman.

To this question Blaine made no answer other than that he thought he was performing a public duty by having an investigation of what he said was current report.

"Do you think that it a public duty to bring charges against a United States senator without facts to substantiate them?" asked Chairman Heyburn.

"I thought so," replied the witness.

"So when the investigation is begun you have no facts to give to this committee which could be admitted in a court of law as proper and pertinent to challenge the validity either of Senator Stephenson's nomination or of his election?"

"None of my own knowledge."

OWES HER HEALTH

To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Scottville, Mich.—"I want to tell you how much good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash have done me. I live on a farm and have worked very hard. I am forty-five years old, and am the mother of thirteen children. Many people think it strange that I am not broken down with hard work and the care of my family, but I tell them of my good friend, your Vegetable Compound, and that here will be no backache and bearing down pains for them if they will take it as I have. I am scarcely ever without it in the house."

"I will say also that I think there is no better medicine to be found for young girls to build them up and make them strong and well. My eldest daughter has taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for painful periods and irregularity, and it has always helped her."

"I am always ready and willing to peak a good word for the Lydia E. Pinkham's Remedies. I tell every one I meet that I owe my health and happiness to these wonderful medicines."

—Mrs. J. G. JOHNSON, Scottville, Mich., R.F.D. 3.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases.
