RACE FEELING HIGH; TWO NEGROES LYNCHED

Carthersville, Mo., Oct. 12.—Two negroes, A. B. Richardson and Ben Woods, taken from the city jail here by a mob which battered down the doors, were lynched. The body of Richardson, riddled with bullets, was found yesterday floating in the Mississippi river. That Woods met a like fate is the accepted belief.
For some time feeling against the negroes has been at a high pitch which presaged trouble. Negroes known as police characters were warned to leave the city and many compiled. Richardson, regarded as a desperate man, was locked up while the police were investigating several robberies. Woods was arrested Tuesday night for an attack upon young white women as they were returning home from a store in which they are employed. News of the arrest brought 75 masked men to the jail. They broke into the cells and dragged the negroes out and disappeared.

Just a Little Diapepsin Ends

Indigestion in Five Minutes.

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from indigestion, Diapepsin or out-of-order stomach is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking some Diapepsin.

If your stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not let the stomach do its work, not with drastic drugs, but a reinforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach.

People with sick stomachs should take a little Diapepsin occasionally, and there will be no more indigestion, no feeling like a lump in the stomach, no heartburn, sour risings, Gas or Stomach or Belching of undigested food, Headaches, Dizziness or Sick Stomach, and, besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms resulting from a sour, out-of-order stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved in five minutes after taking a little Diapepsin.

Go to your druggist and get a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin now, and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are no going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. They freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.

WORLD'S SERIES MARKS CLIMAX

he came to the metropolis as manager of the Giants. He is, and always has been, a typical player and leader of the old fighting school whose slogan is "Tush in and win."

Whether McGraw can bring his men back to the world-beating class or must let the Athletics possess the six flag for a second successive season, depends in some part upon some of the veterans who won for him the war of 1905.

Forty-Two Men.
By the rules governing the world series each of the leaders is allowed to enlist 21 men eligible as participants in the struggle. The choice this year has fallen to the following men:

New York.—Ames, p; Becker, utility; Crandall, p; Doyle, 2b; Devore, lf; Devlin, utility; Drueck, p; Fletcher, ss; Herzog, 3b; Hartley, c; Latham, utility; McGraw, manager; Meyers, c; Mathewson, p; Marquard, p; Murray, rf; Paulette, utility; Smolgrass, cf; Wilcox, p; Wood, c; Merkle, lb.
Philadelphia.—Baker, 3b; Barry, ss; Bender, p; Collins, 2b; Coombs, p; Davis, utility; Danforth, p; Derick, utility; Hartel, utility; Krause, p; Lapp, c; Livingston, c; Lord, lf; Martin, utility; Morgan, p; Melinnis, lb; Murphy, rf; Oldring, cf; Plank, p; Strunk, utility; Thomas, c.

These 42 men and none other are eligible to play in the present series. It is probable that not more than a dozen from each list will be picked to figure in the crucial games. Of the "Giants" there are three who fought and won in the 1905 series with Philadelphia—Ames, Devlin and Christy Mathewson. Of this veteran trio the last named has been the "Giants" pitching mainstay for many years. In three of the four big games won from Philadelphia in 1905 he pitched a shut-out and was proclaimed the hero of the series. In the past six years he has grown in the confidence of the New York fans, and while his most ardent admirers can hardly expect him to repeat so remarkable an achievement, he is expected to render good account of himself.

Mathewson is a native Pennsylvanian, and for one brief period was a member of the team he now opposes, but for the better part of ten years he has been with the "Giants." He first attracted attention at Bucknell University and his great professional berth was on the Taunton line of the New England League. Twice the big fellow has pitched no-hit games. In 1908 he was credited with 37 of the "Giants" victories. He won more than two-thirds of the games he pitched this year. He is 31 years old.

Notwithstanding the confidence still placed in him it is likely that he will have less of a chance to figure as a hero in the present series as his big left-handed pitching "mate," "Rube" Marquard, and Matty's Junior by 8 years, has won championship distinction. The young "Southpaw," whose services cost McGraw $11,000, proved a good investment for it is mainly due to his phenomenal pitching that the "Giants" are in a position to face the "Athletics" for the title. He has won 21 and lost only 5 games this season.

Marquard's first professional play was with the Waterloo team of the Iowa State league. Later he was with the Canton club of the Central league and was drafted by the Detroit, who turned him over to Indianapolis. He proved the sensation of the American association and it took the big price named to bring him to New York in 1908. While he possessed all kinds of speed and a varied assortment of curves he was almost a complete failure in his first seasons. McGraw stuck to him and has been well rewarded. He has won 21 and lost only 5 games this season.

Leon Ames, who has been on the "Giants" pitching staff ever since he jumped the New York State league in 1904, and George R. Wilcox, another former state leaguer, are the most likely candidates for relief work in the box. Otis Crandall is the fifth member of the staff.
There are six of Connie Mack's men who were with him when he fought in vain for the 1905 flag. They are Ender, Plank, Lord, Hartel, Murphy and Harry Davis. Head and shoulders above them all stands "Chief" Bender, a red-skin of the Chippewa tribe, who was sent to the Carlisle school for his education and promptly excused his fondness for the green and white man's game. After leaving college he joined the Harrisburg, Pa., team, and in 1905 was brought into the big league by Connie Mack. He became one of the famous quintets of warriors which brought Philadelphia into its second league championship in 1905. In the world series he was the pitching hero of the only game which the Athletics took from the "Giants" that year. On the other hand, to him is charged the only defeat suffered by the Athletics in the series with Chicago last year, though this came after he had allowed but one hit for eight innings.

With the Indian in the box is, as was the case last year, Jack Coombs, the real hero of the last series. Coombs, known as Mack's "man of iron," won three straight games in the 1910 series, a feat which the Giant Mathewson equaled in 1905.

Coombs is 27 years old. He played at Colby College, in Maine, and graduated at once into big league company with the Athletics in 1906. He is exactly the same height as his pitching mate, "Chief" Bender, 6 feet 1 inch. He is a holder of records, one of them being the famous 24-inning victory over Boston in 1907. During the 1910 season he went 53 innings at one stretch without letting an opposing club score on him.

Bender and Coombs will be called upon it is believed to do most of the pitching in the series at hand but as the Giants are said to be weaker before left-handers it is possible that the two "south paws" Plank and Krause, will be given a chance to distinguish themselves. Plank was one of a trio of twirlers who won for Philadelphia its first taste of league championship in Mack's second year. Veteran though he is, at the age of 35, he is still able to do effective work.

In cold figures, the records of the pitchers selected for the present series is as follows:

NEW YORK GIANTS.
G. W. L.	SO. BR. H. PC.
Marquard	43 24 6 227 109 218 .809
Crandall	42 14 5 94 53 132 .737

Wiltse	29 14 10 89 37 162 .583

Totals 185 87 43 665 292 984 .669

PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS.

Coombs	45 29 11 182 126 356 .725
Plank	42 21 9 148 81 235 .709
Morgan	38 16 7 133 112 212 .695
Krause	27 10 7 79 45 145 .587

Totals 183 94 29 655 423 1146 .706

The back stopping for Philadelphia will be the same as last year. Ira Thomas, who took the measure of the famous John Kling, of Chicago, in last year's series, will be the first choice behind the bat, and Lapp, who caught one game last year, will be a close second. Lapp is young, and this season's play has improved him.

"Big Chief" Meyers, Wilson and Hartley will catch for the Giants. But it is needless to give biographical sketches of all the newer stars of the forthcoming series. Experts agree that in no wise can the outcome of the series or of a single game be expected to rest with a single player unless it be the pitchers.

Team for team, the opponents are evenly matched as any two that ever fought for the world's title. Experts agree as to this, and recalling their mistaken judgment in picking the Chicago Cubs as a favorite last year, they are prone to play safe and declare the outcome of the present series to be a matter of "delightfully doubtful uncertainty."

The Betting.
In the betting, odds have been given both ways. Local experts look back to the wonderful rush of the "Giants" through the closing stages of the league fight and pin their faith to McGraw's "tush them off their feet" slogan and the pitching of "Rube" and "Matty" supported by the all round excellence of the team.
Philadelphia supporters take account of the fact that their favorites are already World Champions and that they won the title by trouncing the Chicago National League club, which gave New York a close race for this year's league title. They believe that General Mack has plotted out a winning campaign and that his men will carry over to the bat and in the field in either league, will take world honors as handily as they captured the league pennant this year.

In battling the "Giants" lead the National League at .271, conceding 233 points to the Athletics, who lead the American League with .294. In extra base hitting the margin of difference is smaller, but still slightly in favor of the Athletics. In the base running department the experts give advantage to McGraw's men, six of whom are leaders in fleet-footedness. Altogether the men have stolen 346 bases this season as compared with 228 to the credit of the Athletics.
So go comparisons, which made from any angle, saw-saw from the "Giants" to the Athletics and back again, leaving both forces quite evenly balanced. If the weight of any one player can tip the scale it will be, experts agree, one of the pitching stars.

In at least one respect the series will mark a record in baseball history, for it is estimated that more than twice as many enthusiasts will seek admission to the Polo grounds daily than can be accommodated, and the accommodation will be greater than ever before provided in a baseball park in this country.

John T. Brush, owner of the New York club, has replaced the old wooden amphitheatre at the Polo grounds which burned early this season with a mammoth steel and concrete structure, which, when wholly finished, is expected to be the best of the several magnificent baseball parks in the country, and by the extension of outfield bleachers he has provided room, it is estimated, for nearly 40,000 spectators.

The number is nearly a third greater than ever witnessed a ball game. Attendance records at the world series and receipts for the past six years compare as follows:

Year.	Receipts	Av. Attend.	Per Game
1905	$78,436.81	18,344	16,644
1906	106,550.00	16,644	15,613
1907	191,727.00	15,613	12,446
1908	184,975.50	22,662	22,662
1909	183,202.50	22,662	24,884
1910	173,830.00	24,884	24,884

Benjamin F. Shibe, owner of the Philadelphia club, is also preparing to handle a record crowd when the playing of the big games alternates at his new park bearing the family name. The proximity of the two rival cities is expected to cause a daily flow of thousands from one city to the other and by far overtax the capacity of either park.

SISTERS' MEETING AFTER 51 YEARS

Opossum Hunter Has a Disastrous Fall—Large Crowds Attend Guilford Fair.

Gazette-News Bureau, Daily News Building, Greensboro, Oct. 12.

The incident weathered the first day of the Central Carolina fair marred to some extent the pleasure of the crowds attending and, to some extent cut down the gate receipts. Yesterday morning, however, the skies cleared, the sun shone brightly and the visitors here to attend the fair thronged the fair grounds. An interesting family reunion occurred here yesterday when two sisters met a third sister whom they had not seen for more than half a century. Mrs. W. O. Donell of Oak Ridge and Mrs. J. H. It was November 7, 51 years ago, that Mrs. Mills left North Carolina to make her future home in Arkansas and her return yesterday was the first visit during those long years.

His appetite for 'possum and sweet taters was the cause of a serious injury that befell Troy McLean, a young man living five miles from Greensboro, one night this week. Green McLean went 'possum hunting and being a good 'possum hunter he was not long in finding the animal. He climbed the tree to shake the rival of limb gave way and the ground when a 'possum, fell from the tree. The young man's collar bone was broken and in addition three ribs. At the time McLean was with several other young men who after the accident picked up their companion and carried him to his home where he was attended by a physician. (The see-tion of the county. The injuries are not thought to be permanent and McLean hopes to be out in a short time.

Mr. Allshour will, however, travel the same territory as heretofore.
An interesting deed was filed for registration here yesterday. The deed was from a person far away Hawaii, and recites the transfer of one-eighth interest in 130 acres of land on Deep River, and is made by a resident of Hawaii, to Robert M. Williams of Merleopa, Cal.

One of the social events of the fair week was the dance last night given by the Merchants and Manufacturers' club in their club rooms on South Elm street. The dancing room was red dahlias, the ladies' room in pink. Hood's orchestra furnished the music for the dancers. Refreshments, consisting of a salad course, sandwiches and coffee, was served.
