MR. SEAWELL ACQUITTED OF RETAILING WHISKEY Charged That He Sold to J. B. Wilson Without Prescription—Warrant for Doctor.

C. C. Seawell was tried in police court this morning on the charge of selling whiskey to J. B. Wilson without the proper prescription and was acquitted. The alleged sale was on September 30 and Mrs. Wilson was the chief witness for the state. She said that she came up town with her husband that night to let him get a shave; that she had given him the money to pay for it and then when he had suggested that they buy a drink they went down to Seawell's drug store and she gave him more money for that. He went behind the prescription counter, she said, and when he came out he had a half pint of whiskey. She swore that he had neither a prescription nor a bottle when he went in. In fact she seemed to be very familiar with the contents of his pockets, saying that she had searched them before they left home and could name every article in them.
Col. Lusk was in favor of resting for the state when her testimony was concluded, but Judge Adams thought it best to put her husband on the stand. The misgivings the colonel had had about this testimony proved well grounded for Wilson swore that he had never bought whiskey from Mr. Seawell's place except on a prescription. He testified that he had two prescriptions about the last of September. Since the case against Mr. Seawell seemed about lost anyway, Judge Adams proceeded to find out something about those prescriptions. He elicited the information that he had gotten the prescriptions from Dr. Russell at Fletcher's, and that he had asked for and received them on the street. He said the two had cost him $1. He did not remember the amounts, but Mr. Connor produced evidence from Mr. Seawell's books showing that there were prescriptions there for Wilson signed by Dr. Russell. Judge Adams therefore ordered that a warrant be issued for Dr. Russell for writing the prescriptions and said a $500 bond, cash or justified, would be accepted for his appearance.

TO DEDICATE THE NEW AUDITORIUM TUESDAY

Raleigh People Proud of New Structure, One of the Finest in the South.

Gazette-News Bureau, The Hotel Raleigh, Raleigh, Oct. 12.

Even the North Carolina State Fair and Barnum & Bailey's circus, two things which interest the people of Raleigh and the state mightily each year, are not attracting the attention this fall that is being bestowed on the magnificent new auditorium and municipal building which will be dedicated Tuesday night. Pronounced the finest thing of its kind in the south, the equal of any for its size in the United States, the auditorium is making Raleigh people feel proud of it. The auditorium has a seating capacity of 5,200 and its chairs were placed with the idea of bearing the weight of many feet in anticipation of the times when political conventions will meet here and nominate candidates for office.

The program for the occasion is as follows:
Overture... Offenbach
Third Regiment Band.

Dedictory prayer—Rev. Joseph Mount Chesire.
"Hallelujah Chorus"—from Messiah Handel
Raleigh Choral Society.
Presentation of the Auditorium—Chairman Municipal Building Committee.
The Acceptance—The Mayor.
Presentation of the Portrait of Sir Walter Raleigh—Clarence H. Poe, in behalf of the donor, Hon. Walter Clark.
The Acceptance—William B. Jones, for the mayor.
Dance Caprice... Manzia
Third Regiment Band.
Address of Congratulation—Governor McPherson of North Carolina.
"Palma Carolina"—Gaston
The Future of the Capital City—President Raleigh chamber of commerce.
Congratulatory Remarks—William P. Estum, of Greensboro.
National Airs... Emmett
Third Regiment Band.
University Alumni Banquet.

With Dr. Edwin Mims, professor of English in the university as the guest of honor, the Wake County Alumni Association of the university last night celebrated the 116th anniversary of the founding of this notable institution with a banquet. Fifty or more congenial spirits, some of them men who had been in Chapel Hill many years ago, indulged their reminiscences with those of the boys of yesterday. Besides Dr. Mims, who delivered the address, short impromptu remarks were made by a number of the alumni. Superintendent of Public Instruction J. Y. Joyner presided.

Convocation of Raleigh Ends.
The convocation of Raleigh, after being in session here since Tuesday, came to a close last night, after a most successful and inspiring meeting. Missions were discussed at every session by pastors and laymen and it was determined to increase the work of the church in this matter in future.

WANT BEAUTIFUL HAIR? THEN TRY THIS SHAMPOO.

(Maid Marion on Beauty)
"It is a well-known fact that wet shampoo work injury to both hair and scalp, as all contain more or less potash and 'free' alkali, necessary to create a lather. These two chemicals reduce the vitality of the hair glands and delicate tissues, and drenching the head to remove the lather usually aggravates the condition.
"A very fine dry shampoo that is cleansing and beneficial to hair and scalp can be made by mixing 4 ounces of either orris root or corn meal with 4 ounces thereof. A tablespoonful sprinkled on the head, then brushed well through the hair, cleanses and exhilarates the scalp, takes every particle of dust and oil from the hair, and leaves it soft, glossy and easy to do up."

BIG TIMBER TRACT SOLD ON MT. MITCHELL SLOPE

West Virginia Lumber Concern Will Build Railway to Develop It.

S. Montgomery Smith and associates have sold to Campbell & Dickey of Marion, W. Va., the timber on the 8000 acre tract of land on the slope of Mt. Mitchell, which was secured by Mr. Smith some months ago. The consideration is named as $857,000 and it is said the estimates place the timber at over 300,000,000 feet and the pulp wood at over 86,000 cords. The purchasing company have been conducting extensive operations in West Virginia and it is said they propose to build a narrow-gauge railroad from near Terrell, where the mill will be erected on the Southern railway, by way of Montreat, 16 miles to Mt. Mitchell on a 5 per cent grade. Only the timber was sold, the original owners retaining the land and minerals.

BINGHAM FOOTBALL BOYS LEAVE FOR CHAPEL HILL

Are Bent on Avoiding Shut-out with Strong Varsity Team—Line-up.

The Bingham football team left today for Chapel Hill to meet the varsity team tomorrow. This is the second game to be played by the local team, the first of the season having been played with Lenoir college, which was won by Bingham. The team is not so strong this year as last as several of last year's men are not attending the school this year, but the boys put up a good game with Lenoir and they are hoping for the best in tomorrow's game and will try to avoid a shut-out. The players who made the trip are: Crestshaw, Tate, right end; McIntyre, right tackle; Hinson, right guard; Bullock, McDonald, center; Walton, left guard; Ray, Ford, left tackle; Klykendall, Post, left end; Angier, captain, quarterback; Hickman, Clarke, right half. Pross, Call, full backs; Coach Norton, left half. Wadsworth, Seale, Miller and Savage, who are trying for the team, also made the trip.

The team is scheduled to return to Asheville Sunday evening.

MERCHANTS DEPARTING AFTER GLORIOUS TIME

Imbued with Spirit for Greater Western North Carolina—U. C. T.'s Meeting.

The entertainment of the retail merchants of western North Carolina by the wholesale houses of this section in this and surrounding states under the auspices of the Asheville council U. C. T., which has been going on during the past three days, closed last night with a reception at the Swannanoa-Berkeley hotel and with a trip through the grounds of the Western North Carolina fair. Some of the visitors left yesterday, but others will remain until the fair closes.

They had a royal good time. The feature of the entertainment was the banquet at the Swannanoa-Berkeley hotel, at which 250 plates were laid, when a number of stirring speeches were heard in regard to a greater western North Carolina, and the merchants left full of enthusiasm.

There is to be a meeting of the Asheville council United Commercial Travelers tomorrow night in furtherance of the movement toward developing this section along all lines. It is realized that the commercial travelers are in position to do a great deal as boosters, and when they are united in their efforts to advance the material development of their country, it is felt that results will not be wanting.
