FINANCIAL RESULT

The Fair Association, However, Know that Event Was a Remarkable Success.

Although it is not likely that the ockholders will re elve any dividends om the Western North Carolina fair, which has just closed, considering the fact that it is the first fair and there as comparatively little time for prepration, the management has done renarkably well. The exhibitors have een busy all day removing their products and the heads of the departnents have been helping them. Some of those who had displays here will send them to Raleigh for the state have been turned back into the treasury for next year's fair by those who are entitled to them.

It is estimated that about 20,000 sople paid for admission to the Taking it all in all the pronoters feel that the fair was a rearkable success and there is every robability that it will be made an in-titution. One who was most energetic in his forts to promote this fair and who unributed largely to its success tated this morning that now is the time to begin the preparations for the fair next year. He said that there is scarcely a doubt that the fair will be an annual institution and the next can be more easily promoted by beginning now. He also stated that the travelng men are interested in the move nent and that they can do more thur ny others to place the stock of the speciation where it will help to solidify the sentiment of the people of Western North Carolina in the deterination to make the fairs creditable to the western section of the state Secretary Gudger said this morning that he could not tell how the association stands financially until he gets ill the premiums paid. As stated be ore some of the premiums have been urned back to the treasury and some

The receiver, through his attorney, Judge J. D. Murphy, filed a bid from the Ottis Green Hardware company for the purchase of the stock of the company on the basis of 66 2-3 per cent of the cost, on which action was deferred until court meets, November 23. He also filed a report of the condition of the affairs of the company.

The court finds that the company is indebted to the National State and City bank of Richmond in the sum of $22,500 and has other indebtedness which makes the aggregate about $91,000.

In the office of the clerk of the United States court an order has been filed discharging from bankruptcy J. M. Stepp of Hendersonville, A num-ber of other orders entring satisfaction for judgments on forfeited recog-nizances for the years 1885, '86, '87 were also filed. They are signed by Judge Boyd on motion of District Attorney A. E. Holton.
