WHAT I WENT THROUGH

Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Natick, Mass.—"I cannot express what I went through during the change of life before I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in such a nervous condition I could not keep still. My limbs were cold, I had tarry sensations, and I could not sleep nights. I was finally told by two physicians that I read a tumor. I read one day of the wonderful cures made by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it, and it has made me a well woman. My neighbors and friends declare it did work a miracle for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth its weight in gold for women during this period of life. If it will help others you may publish my letter."—Mrs. NATHAN B. GRATON, 31 N. Main Street, Natick, Mass.

The Change of Life is the most critical period of a woman's existence. Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

THE "WINNING WIDOW"

Musical Comedy Was Well Staged and All Parts Were Excellently Acted.

The "Winning Widow," a most delightful musical comedy, made its first appearance in Asheville Saturday, and entertained two fair-sized audiences at the matinee and night performances. No one here seemed to know much about it before it came and if they had the Auditorium would have been full, doubtless. It was decidedly the best musical comedy that has been here this year, and is planned along lines distinctly its own. It is expensively staged and the costumes were lovely. These, too, were simply in accord with the show, for it was a hit from beginning to end. The singing and dancing were both fine and the encores were more numerous than could be answered.

Miss Perle Bart played the leading role as the "Winning Widow" and was a most winsome and charming young lady. She did her part well and was popular with the audience from her first appearance. Joe M. Fields was really the life of the show, carrying the leading comedy part as "Adam Souse," and it required no make-up for him to be a comedian. He has evidently been one all his life. Miss Bonnie Parley as "Gladys Souse," and Dannie Morrison as "P. Thomas Flanagan, Jr.," deserve especial mention and were very popular. Miss Henrietta Wheeler, "a lady suffragette," was likewise loudly applauded, especially on her suffragette speech. Harry Lonsont, a French army officer, came in for his share of the applause too, in his song, "Marie." In fact, it was a show in which no one fell down in his or her part and the cast was able assisted by a well trained, beautifully gowned and handsome chorus. The theatergoers here will make a strong bid for a return engagement of the "Winning Widow," next spring.

THE GRAND IS TAKEN BY HANCOCKS & GREEN

Place Will Be Managed by Robert Hancock's—High-Class Vaudeville House.

Hancocks and Green of Winston-Salem have taken over the lease on the Grand Opera house, which has been conducted lately by S. A. Lynch, and today took charge of the building. Mr. Hancock will have charge of the house and he announces that he will make radical changes in the conduct and equipment of it.

Mr. Hancock says that he intends to run the play house for vaudeville attractions and will secure the best to be obtained on the southern circuits. The house will be closed for a week so that improvements can be made and will open again October 20.

Mr. Hancock has had considerable experience in this work. He has managed houses in Philadelphia, Bluefield, W. Va., Roanoke, Va., and Winston-Salem.

A number of changes are to be made in the playhouse and at the entrance, and preparations will be made to conduct an up-to-date house in every particular.

URGED TO SEND CARS TO SAVANNAH RACES

Prize Offered City Entering Largest Number of Cars in Proportion to Population.

The Asheville Motor club received Saturday the following letter from the Savannah Automobile club with reference to the automobile races to be held in that city next month:

"Savannah, Ga., October 13, 1911.

"The Automobile Club of Asheville, Asheville, N. C.

"Gentlemen:—The Savannah Automobile club has offered a prize of $500 for the city sending the greatest number of automobiles here as a club, in proportion to the 1910 population, to witness the Vanderbilt cup, the light car, and grand prize races which will take place here November 27 and 30.

"You are cordially invited to be a contestant for this prize, which is divided into three classes: $500 for the first, $200 for the second, and $100 for the third.

"If you desire any further information kindly advise me and I will be glad to assist you in any way that I can. Very truly yours,
(Signed) "A. SOLOMON,"
Secretary."

As yet it has not been ascertained how many of the members of the local club will attend these races, but it is likely that several Asheville people will go, as this is one of the most important events in the automobile world. As the competition for prizes is based on population, there is no reason why Asheville should not stand some chance at the money.

THE MARKETS

New York, Oct. 23.—The drift of prices was downward at the opening of the stock market today and trading was light. Losses were confined to small fractions.

Business was quiet after prices generally mounted fractionally after last week's closing. Some active railroad stocks reacted moderately on realizing sales and lower prices attracted new buying orders, but prices soon returned to the best again.

Bears' Raid Sags Cotton.
New York, Oct. 23.—The cotton market opened easy at a decline of 13 and 21 points. Some of Saturday's buyers, on front predictions were heavy sellers during the early trading. The market after the opening ruled nervous and irregular within 6 or 7 points of the initial figures.

The cotton market turned easier in the late forenoon under continued liquidation by buyers of last week and more aggressive selling by local bears on the prediction that the census report Wednesday would show such heavy ginning as to leave little doubt about the surplus crop, regardless of the frost date. Prices at midday were about 22 to 25 points net lower.
