TWO NEGROES CONVICTED FOR CUTTING WHITE MEN

Frank and Ed Bruton Attacked John Brown and Clyde Hendricks Last Night.

Frank and Ed Bruton, two negroes who are said to have rather shady past lives, the reputation of Frank being especially bad, were arraigned in police court this morning charged with assaulting John Brown and Clyde Hendricks, two white boys, with deadly weapons. The trouble occurred last night about 2 o'clock on Mountain street and as a result both the boys received severe cuts across the face and throat. After hearing the evidence Judge Adams found both the defendants guilty and sentenced them to the county roads, Frank Bruton receiving a sentence of eight months, while Ed got off on a sentence of three months. Both appealed and the bond for the former was fixed at $250 and the latter at $150.

Neither of the boys who received the injuries was able to identify the men as the ones who had assaulted them as they said it was dark and they had received no warning of the affray until they were attacked and cut, therefore did not get a good look at their assailants. The police had not been able to reach the scene before the negroes had run away and so the state depended largely for its case on the testimony of Fred Fowler, a colored boy, who said he had been immediately behind the men when the cutting was done. He had been arrested as a party in the assault but it was found that he had only been an eye witness and the case against him was not proceeded.

Fowler said that he and his uncle were coming down the street and were close to the other party and that they knew of no trouble until he heard one of the boys cry out that he was cut, after which one of the defendants struck him. He said the other defendant then struck the other boy and the latter immediately cried out that he had been cut. He said someone then threw a rock striking his uncle in the head, inflicting an ugly wound. It was upon this evidence that conviction depended, although the case was strengthened by other evidence of a circumstantial nature. There had been some other trouble previous to the cutting scrape in Tom Collins' restaurant when some negroes, at least one, had had some words with a white man, and an attempt was made to show some connection between the two. This, however, fell down, as the witnesses failed to identify the defendants as the men who had been in the first trouble, although it was shown that they were in the restaurant.

THE GRAND OPERA HOUSE UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT

Clean Exhibitions, in Vaudeville and Moving Pictures, Are Promised.

The Grand opera house, under the management of Hancock & Green, will open Monday, October 30. Mr. Hancock will be in charge. The lease on the Grand was recently secured by the new proprietors from S. A. Lynch, and since that time the house has been closed for repairs and renovation. Above all the new management wishes it to be understood that it will put on clean shows. This is to be the keynote of the shows, and catering to women and children.

Extensive changes have been made in the building and much time has been spent in securing an attractive bill for the opening night. The moving pictures are to be changed daily and the polite, vaudeville on Mondays and Thursdays. For the opening bill they have secured Doyle and Fields, who will furnish the comedy, singing and dancing, and the "Great Gravitio" for juggling, balancing, etc.

CITY NEWS

Marriage licenses were issued today for James Gill and Miss Adelaide Loughran, and Argel Embler and Miss Mary A. Jackson.

The boys meeting at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow afternoon will be held from 3 to 3:45 o'clock. The Bible classes which were organized at the first meeting will be held.

Letters addressed to the following, in answer to "want" advertisements, are at the business office of The Gazette-News and unless called for will be destroyed: "R.", "H. B.", "P.", "J. W.", "A.", "J.", "H. D.", "R. H. B.", "R. S."

There is a big crowd attending the "old boss" auction sale, conducted by the Southern Express company in the building at the corner of College and Market streets. It is a "pig in the bag" proceeding and the parcels are going like hot cakes without any knowledge of the purchaser as to what they contain.

Quite a number of the business men and corporations of the county are taking advantage of the two percent discount on county and state taxes, which is being offered for a short time. Among these are the Asheville Electric company and the Southern railway company, the amount of the former's taxes being $5,000, that of the latter, $18,000.

Claud Black, colored, was sentenced to 30 days on the county roads in police court this morning for an assault last night on F. S. Farr, a young negro girl. The defendant had been before the court on several previous occasions for fighting. Judge Adams said that he was tired of trying him and was going to attempt to stop his wild career for a while, at least.

A voluntary petition in bankruptcy has been filed in the office of the Clerk of the United States court by W. T. Clayton, a merchant of Addie, N. C. The petition was referred to F. W. Thomas, referee in bankruptcy. The amount due unsecured creditors is given at $2300.55, while the assets are given as $3797.36, of which the stock in trade is $2089.29. Several Asheville firms are among the creditors for small amounts.

Two deeds were filed in the register of deeds office today transferring property in the city of Asheville. One is from Myra B. Gardner and husband, F. K. Gardner, to Zeb V. Crenshaw, conveying certain property on Merrimon avenue, the amount of the purchase price being given as $435.75. The other is from George M. Foster and wife to William R. Snider and wife for property on South Liberty street, the consideration being $2200.

Three games of basket ball were played at the Y. M. C. A. building last night in the Class B league with the following results: Brown 14, Hunt 6; Davis 7, Donahoe 5; Lance 13, Schartz 12. The games were all extremely interesting and the stars were Brown, Hunt, Sumner, Davis, Wood and Schartz, although all played a very creditable game. Brown's team remains at the head of the percentage column with Davis second and Donahoe third.

One of the most interesting men's meetings of the year is confidently expected for tomorrow afternoon at the Y. M. C. A., when Rev. Robert I. Gamon of Knoxville will address the meeting on "Winning at the Start." Mr. Gamon has appeared here on several occasions and is well known as a forceful speaker. The Baracas of the city are extended a special invitation to be present. Music will be furnished by the boys' orchestra and there will be solos by Miss Pearl Shope and E. B. Stinson.

The members of the Baraca Bible class of the First Presbyterian church will have for their speaker tomorrow morning Rev. Dr. Robert I. Gamon, formerly pastor of Oakland Heights church in this city, and now located in Knoxville. Dr. Gamon is a forceful speaker, and very popular with young men. The class invites all young men to attend it exercises in the Baraca building on church street tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock, and the old members are especially urged to attend and meet Dr. Gamon.

Haywood Street Methodist church will observe "Children's Home Day" tomorrow, at which time each one of the congregation, whether man or woman, boy or girl is asked to give an amount equivalent to the value of one day's work for his benefit of the little homeless ones within the conference. A short program will be rendered by the children, after which the pastor, Rev. W. A. Newell, will preach a sermon appropriate to the occasion. Everybody is invited to be present.

The Monday afternoon, Bingham dances at the Battery Park hotel, which have long been one of the interesting features of the social festivities in Asheville, will be resumed Monday. Miss Beatrice Stowe, the teacher of the dancing class there, has been ill for the past several weeks and on that account the dances were temporarily discontinued. She is now recovered sufficiently to resume her class and the first class meeting and dance will take place Monday afternoon. This will be doubt be heartily applauded by the guests and the young ladies of the dancing set, for the lack of the Monday afternoon Bingham dances has detracted largely from the social pleasures of the autumn and their resumption will add zest and spirit to the social life of the
