PENLAND CAPTURED BY DEPUTY LYDA

He Is Negro Charged with Cutting Throat of Gus Walker, Another Negro.
Deputy Sheriff E. M. Lyda this morning captured John Penland, the negro who is charged with cutting the throat of Gus Walker, another negro, at the stable of the Citizens Dray company Sunday. He found Penland at the home of one of the employees of the dray company in West Asheville, near Carrier's bridge. The negro left the house but made no attempt to run. Deputy Sheriff Lyda brought the prisoner to the city and he was placed in jail. It is said that Walker is in a dangerous condition and Penland will be held without bond until it is ascertained whether or not Walker will recover. The officers had heard that Penland was in that neighborhood and this morning went to effect his arrest. Just before he reached the house a negro woman saw him and went into the house, and immediately Penland left, carrying part of his breakfast. He, too, saw the officer and walked away but Mr. Lyda headed him off and caught him before he had gone very far. It is said that the two men had a dispute Sunday about some money and Penland cut Walker's throat "from ear to ear. Walker was saved from immediate death by the quick arrival of physicians. Penland told the officer that Walker had cursed him and had drawn a knife on him before he attacked Walker.

MOTION FOR DISCHARGE DENIED BY JUDGE LANE

Lawson Daugherty Is Still Under Bond for Killing of Milton Hamby.
A motion was made in Superior court this morning by the attorneys for Lawson W. Daugherty, who is held for the murder of Milton Hamby at Black Mountain 12 years ago, that the defendant be released from further appearance at the court. The motion was made on the ground that the present grand jury had twice returned "not a true bill" to the presentments against him, and further, that following the killing, the coroner's jury had released him, returning a verdict that the deed was a justifiable homicide. In connection with the motion, Solicitor Reynolds stated to the court that he had thoroughly investigated the case and did not believe that a conviction could be secured against Daugherty, and therefore he would not ask that he be held either in custody or bail. Judge Lane decided, however, that it would be best to hold the defendant and the motion was overruled. His bond was fixed at $2000.

CITY NEWS

Two marriage licenses were issued yesterday, one to George G. Arthur and Berta J. Halyburton, and the other to J. L. Eller and Ada Fox.
The members of the Y. M. C. A. Junior contest committee meet this afternoon to perfect plans and inaugurate the campaign for new junior members.
All who have any of the Hospital Sunday collections are urged to leave the money at the Battery Park bank at once, so that a complete report may be announced the last of this week.
Several people have found wild rhododendron in bloom during the past few days. Geo. S. Powell brought home some of the blooms yesterday which he found at the foot of Linville mountain.
As compared with yesterday, this morning's session of police court seemed unremarkable. There was only one case to be tried, the defendant being charged with imbibing too freely. He was fined $5 and the costs.

O. H. Henry is critically ill, at his home on Oak street. C. A. Henry of Jacksonville, his eldest son, and Mrs. S. S. Weatherly of Troutdale, Va., have been notified by wire of Mr. Henry's condition and are expected today.
James Hare has returned from Mt. Airy where he went in the interest of the North Carolina Apple and Live Stock company, recently incorporated. He said he had unusual success in placing the stock of the company with the Mt. Airy business men.

The Citizens' Transfer company today hauled six wagon loads of the household property of Phillip S. Henry from his home, Zealandia, to the depot for consignment to Washington. Inquiry elicited the information that Mr. Henry merely wished to remove certain of his effects to Washington, and was not preparing to leave Asheville.
S. C. Mitchell, president of the University of South Carolina, who is to address the men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. next Sunday afternoon, will also address the boys' meeting at 1:30 next afternoon. His subject has not been given out but it is stated that it will be of interest to all boys and they are urged to attend the meeting.

The men's Bible class at the Y. M. C. A. Friday evening will be taught again this week by J. C. Martin on account of the continued absence of Judge Pritchard. An oyster supper will be served from 7 to 7:30 o'clock, and the class will meet from 7:30 to 8 o'clock. The class is open to every man in the city who wishes to attend and the association holds out to them a cordial welcome to these classes.
Pisgah lodge No. 22, Knights of Pythias, will enjoy its annual fall rally and banquet tonight at 8 o'clock, in the Castle hall. Rev. Frank J. Mallett of Salisbury, the noted Pythian lecturer, will deliver an address on "The Romance of Pythianism." The officers and as many members as possible can be requested to meet at 7:30 sharp, to dispose of the regular business. All Pythians in the city are cordially invited to be present.

A deed was filed yesterday in the register of deeds' office conveying from Robert M. Carter and husband, John H. Carter, to W. P. Dorough of Fulton county, Georgia, property on Montford avenue, the consideration being $15,000. The property was the home place of Mr. and Mrs. Carter and is situated at 288 Montford avenue. It is among the most desirable residence properties in the city. The date of the sale is given in the deed as August 14, 1911.

Order Revives Port Rate Feud.
Washington, Oct. 31.—The contest between New Orleans and Galveston has revived today when the interstate commerce commission suspended the proposed tariffs filed by the southeastern line, making advances in freight rates on cotton and cotton lint.
The tariffs were effective November 1, next, but were suspended until March 1, 1912, practically the end of the cotton year.
Celluloid Collar, Affre, Burns Weaver.

Fremont, Neb., Oct. 31.—An explosion of some chemical, presumed to be potassium and a resulting conflagration in which a celluloid collar was burned around his neck, gave D. D. Huffman, manager of the Victor Crude Oil Burner company, a painful and dangerous experience.
From the burns around his neck, caused by the ignition of the collar, Huffman is now laid up in bed with small prospects of getting out for some time.
Girls Offer Kisses for Railway Station.
Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 31.—To C. W. Kouns, general manager of the Eastern lines of the Atchafalpa, Topoka and Santa Fe system, kisses from 29 of Herrick's prettiest girls have been offered in exchange for a new station.
Mr. Kouns refused to enter into the trade, but it is understood that word has gone to headquarters recommending a new station.
