Making Preparations for Heavy Traffic Next Summer, Overhauling Cars, etc.

The management of the Asheville East Tennessee railroad is already making preparations for the travel on that read during the summer months, which it is confidently expected will be heavy. The barns of the company, situated at New Bridge station, have been the scene of a great deal of activity during the past several weeks, as the work of putting the cars in good shape has been going on there. A great deal of work has also been done on the trolleys and overhead work of the road.

Car No. 4, the first big interurbar bought by the company shortly after the service to Weaverville was inaugurated, has been thoroughly overhauled, and repainted. practically a new car and when it mes out with its new dress within the next few days, it will have that ppearance. This is one of the most comfortable cars in this part of the

It was stated this morning at the offices of the company that there is livelihood of inaugurating the sumier schedule next season as much is two months earlier than it was put on this year. It was started the past season about July 1, and the second interurban car made its first trip July 15. From that time on the line was most popular with tourists and with local people, and considering the amount of travel before the summer schedule was started, it is thought that it can be started next eason by May 1, at least.

FRIENDS ARE CONCERNED

Mr. Caldwell's Condition Not Favorable-Ilis Breathing Uncertain: Drowsiness.

Friends of Mr. J. P. Caldwell, who s at the State hospital at Morganton. will regret to learn that his condition has not been favorable the past few days. His sister, Miss Janie Caldwell, went to Morganton yesterday to see says yesterday's Statesville ark. Monday's Charlotte Observer contained the following with eference to his condition:

The friends of Mr. J. P. Caldwell, who have been keeping posted on his condition, have been very much coneerned within the past day or two by reason of the disquieting news that has come from his bedside in Morcanton. A long distance telephone message yesterday afternoon brought the information that Mr. Caldwell as in a much weaker state than he has been in for some time. His respiration is uncertain and there is a tendency towards drowsiness that is ecasioning apprehension. His mind. however, remains clear. Of course verything is being done to reinforce

NEW JEWELRY STORE FOR PATTON AVENUE

H. L. Finkelstein Co. Will Occupy the Store Room, No. 16—To Be Improved.

The store room on the corner of Patton and Lexington avenues, which was for a long time used by the Fash-on store and later by W. E. Kindley & Co., is to be opened shortly as a first class jewelry store by the Crescent Jewelry and Loan company with H. L. Finkelstein & Co., as proprietors. It is stated that the place will open about December 1.

about December 1.

Before the opening, extensive repairs and remodeling will be done on the building and the place promises to be very attractive. A new front is to be put in of full plate glass and in the most approved display styles for jewelry store. The entrance will be laid with tiling. The interior will also be entirely worked over and finished in a costly manner. The work will begin tomorrow and will be pushed as rapidly as possible in an effort to have it completed in time for the opening on December 1.

PLANS FOR TOXAWAY.

Mr. Jennings, the Owner, Tells of Improvements That Have Been Decided On.

E. H. Jennings of Pittsburg, owner of the Lake Toxaway properties, in Spartanburg the other day told Herald reporter something of his plans for improvement at the resort.
"He was enthusia-tic over the possibilities of the Toxaway properties, of which he is now sole owner. The Diligation which he had with J. B. Duke for the possession of these properties has now been completely settled, he said.

"Mr. Jennings announced that he would spend a large sum of mone, at Foxaway this winter in the improvement of the resort. He will erect an electric lighting plant, operated by water power supplanting the present plant which is operated by coal and is inadequate. He also intends to erect an ice plant.

"He is roing to construct a beautiful automobile boulevard 11 miles long around the lake. He will also add a number of bath rooms to the hotel." "Mr. Jennings announced that he
