Drawing Room and Sleeping Cars to Be Operated on Nos. 36, 41, 42 and 43, mation received last night that it is proposed to inaugurate an improved service on trains Nos. 36, 41, 42 and 43, running between Asheville and Atlanta by way of Spartanburg. The information was received by J. H. Wood in a telegram from Washington that this line is to be equipped with drawing room cars and sleepers, to take effect tomorrow with the first train leaving Atlanta, at 1:15 a. m. and arriving at Asheville at 11:15 tos:25 Monday morning.

This service with the proposed improved service on Nos. 11 and 12 and the "Asheville Special," will give this fine accommodations, and it is Southern ection fine accommodations, and it is aken to mean that the Southern realizes the importance of western North Carolina as a tourist center also that the company officials were not simply "talking" when they de-clared that they would co-operate in every way possible to advance the in-terests of this part of the state.

FRAUD ALLEGED BY BANK IN PROBERTY TRANSFERS

Amended Complaint Filed in Case of A. N. Bank vs. Carand Woodbury.

An amended complaint was filed yesterday in the office of the clerk of the Superior court in the case of American National bank of Asheville vs. W. H. Woodbury and John H. Carter. This amends the former complaint, and is filed in an attempt to make Roberta M. Carter, wife of John H. Carter, a party to the suit, and after the reasons for this are set forth, the complaint asks that she be summoned to appear is court to answer to the suit, according to law.

The amendment sets forth that John H. Carter had attempted through Paul P. Brown to have the Victoria

Paul P. Brown to have the Victoria inn property transferred to his wife by deeds to Brown and from Brown to Mrs. Carter, in which no considera-tions were ever paid. The contention is made that Mr. Carter was hopelessly insolvent at the time, and that the transactions were made with the in-tent to defraud his creditors and extract benefit for himself. The com-plaint charges that the same line of transactions was made in February, 1910, through Mr. Woodbury with a piece of property on Montford avenue.

with the same purpose in view.

The complaint further sets forth that certain other property was sold by Mr. Carter and his wife to W. P. Dorough for a stipulated consideration but that it is the belief of the plaintiff that no purchase price had ever been paid; further, that Dorough knew the title was then vested in Woodbury and that the attachments, about that time made by the plaintiff, were made to

In a Hurry—Telephone

THE value of the telephone is particularly evident in emergency situations. It opens a quick way to relief.

Accidents, delays, hurried departures, unexpected arrivals, sickness, fire, burglary-all come in this category.

Time, money, convenience-often life itself-depend upon prompt communication.

Relief may be in sight, or a thousand miles away. It matters not. The Local and Long Distance Telephone can be used in either situation.
