SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

Ralph W. Page. The following, from yesterday's Charlotte Observer will doubtless be of interest to many people in Asheville as Mr. Page is quite prominent in the state, socially and otherwise, and is known by many people here.

"The friends in Charlotte of Mr. Ralph W. Page, oldest son of Mr. Walter H. Page, editor of The World's Work, will be interested in reading of his recent marriage to Miss Lelia Tuckerman of Boston. After spending a few days in New York they have gone to their farm in Moore county, where they reside.

"Mr. Page graduated at Harvard in the class of 1903 and after graduation took the Harvard law course, and in 1907 began the practice of law in New York City. He formed fine connections in New York and was building up a good practice but, as one of his New York friends put it, 'the call of the wild' overmastered his passion for law and about a year ago he moved to North Carolina for the purpose of permanently locating there, not for the purpose of practicing his profession but with the intention of going into agriculture on a considerable scale. He associated with some of his friends and purchased several thousand acres of land in upper Moore, near the Montgomery line, three or four hundred acres of which was an old plantation. In that he planted this year, cotton, corn and peas vines and has made approximately a bale of cotton to the acre.

"The congratulations to Mr. Page upon his marriage are heightened by welcoming him back to his native State, where he is helping in the great agricultural progress of the state.

"Mr. Page has visited in Charlotte upon numerous occasions and has many friends here.

New York Operas. The grand opera season opens next week in New York, and although very few people in this city will have the good fortune to enjoy any of it, there are numbers who would like to be present, and some of these perhaps enjoy reading and hearing about the operas they cannot see in person. To these, next week's opening program of the Metropolitan company, which headlines Signor Caruso, may be of interest. There are several new musical stars for New York this winter, from abroad, and a few of these will make their bows during the opening week. The following is taken from last Sunday's New York World:

"The Metropolitan opera season will open a week from tomorrow night with 'Aida,' with Destinn in the title role and Caruso as Radames. Toscanini conducting. 'Koenigsinder,' with Farrar and Jadowaker in the title role, will be Wednesday evening's opera, with Hertz conducting. 'The Girl of the Golden West,' with Destinn, Caruso and Amato, will be sung on Thursday evening. Toscanini will conduct. 'Frisian' and 'Bohème' will be the Friday night opera, with Fremstad and Burrill and Toscanini, conductor. Thullie's 'Lobelia' will have its first performance in America at the Saturday matinee. Hertz will direct the performance. The cast will include Galski, Jadowaker and William Hinshaw. The sale of single seats will open at the box office on next Thursday morning. The steamship Kronprinzessin Cecilie, arriving next Tuesday, will bring Caruso, Destinn, Margarete Matzenhauer, the new contralto; Hermann Weil, the new German baritone, and Dinah Gilly, the French baritone. Carl Burrian is due to arrive on the steamship Rotterdam Sunday, November 12."

Women's Entertainment. The lighter forms of entertainment such as pink tea, bridge parties, receptions, etc., may suit the taste of Mrs. W. H. Mann, wife of Virginia's present governor, and a few of her friends but they also seem to have a decided taste for pastimes of a less frivolous nature, for instance the manufacture on a large scale of jellies and pickles, something in which real business cares will have to be borne, and real questions and problems solved.

Call Chicago Polygamist. Chicago Dispatch to New York Herald. There is more polygamy in Chicago than in Salt Lake, and the morals of the two cities are not to be spoken of in the same breath, according to young Mormon women who came here with the Tabernacle choir. They are going direct to New York from here, and they expect to find the standard of morals there even more deplorable than in Chicago.

"The world's all different outside of Salt Lake," declared one singer, who said she was Miss Bertha Midgley. "Virtue flourishes in our church. The men are as good as the women, and the women expect it of them. There are not two codes of morality in our church—one for men and one for women."

"There is more polygamy right here in Chicago than there ever was in Salt Lake. Our polygamy was sacred. It no longer exists except among the Pan-cakes made from Wheat-Heats Self-Rising Pan-Cake Flour. Delicious and digestible. All grocers.

SHE DECIDES TO TRY AGAIN

Mrs. Schooler Met With Many Failures, But Her Efforts Are at Last Successful.

Baldwyn, Miss.—"I am thankful," says Mrs. Mattie Schooler, of Baldwyn, "for the great relief I obtained by taking Cardui, the woman's tonic. I was suffering untold misery, with dragging pains, headache, and smothering spells. My back hurt me so that life was a misery to me.

I had about decided that nothing would help me, but I read so many testimonials, and a friend told me of Cardui, so I decided to try it. Cardui helped me more than anything I ever used!

It is a fine medicine. I took six bottles, and now I am in good health, and hearty as can be. I am still improving—doing my work and feeling well. I certainly appreciate what Cardui has done for me.

I wish every suffering woman would give Cardui a trial, as I did." Cardui is a great tonic for women. Its reliability and merit are proven by more than 50 years' success in the treatment of ailments peculiar to women. During that time, Cardui has helped thousands of weak women.

Mrs. Schooler is glad she took her friend's advice and tried Cardui. We urge you to try it for your troubles. It will help you.
