SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

Personal Mention, News of the Societies, Meetings, Etc.

Baraca "Harvest Home."
The social committee of the First Presbyterian Baraca class has issued unique invitations to a "Harvest Home" or "Harvest Gathering and Reunion" tomorrow at the Baraca building on Church street. The invitation looks and sounds like Thanksgiving, having a big red turkey on the face of it. The objects of the meeting are indicated by the following:

"Bill Coleman is head farmer again this fall, and will have his fiddle in the shock, corn gathered, and the golden pumpkins an autumn leaves, making the old room look like a boy's dream of the old home on the farm."
"It's going to be a regular old-time reunion, with good music and good fellowship. Come and meet the boys again, and be on time, as we want to fill every minute with reminiscence, praise and inspiration."

President E. P. Childs of the Normal and Collegiate will be the principal speaker of the occasion.

Musical Program.
The music for the First Baptist church tomorrow will be:

During the absence from the city of the regular organist Miss Otha Smith will be at the organ.

Mrs. Sawyer's Bridge Party.
The bridge party given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Clarence Sawyer at her home on South Main street was one of the largest that has been given in the city for several weeks and was enjoyed by about 50 guests. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion in a color scheme of red, and this was carried out in the salads and ices. The flowers most profusely used were red carnations and the unique score cards were red autumn leaves. The lights were shaded with red, giving a soft effect to the interior of the house. Mrs. F. L. Hunt won first prize, a crystal and silver filigree sugar and cream set. The consolation, a cut glass bon bon dish, went to Mrs. M. L. Stevens.

The hostess for this afternoon at the Country club will be Mrs. Thompson Frazer and the weather would indicate that there will be a large number of members out as her guests. The second women's scratch tennis tournament will begin this afternoon. The first one was played off last June and was won by Mrs. Robert Johnson. Her name was therefore engraved on the cup which is offered by Mrs. George W. Vanderbilt, Mrs. Charles L. Minor, Mrs. D. C. Waddell, Jr., and Mrs. Dunn McKee. This cup is offered to the one who is winner in two of the tournaments and each winner's name is engraved on it.

The Philatheas of the First Baptist church will have an opportunity tomorrow morning of hearing Miss Nina Hodges, who will address the class. Miss Hodges is the president of the Philatheas union of the city and her talk tomorrow promises to be very interesting. All members of the class are urged to be present.
There will be a special meeting of

SYNOD ATTENDANCE RECORD-BREAKING

Churches Report Increased Contributions—A New Synod May Be Formed.

Rev. Dr. R. F. Campbell and S. D. Holt returned last night from the meeting of the Presbyterian synod at Charlotte. In point of attendance this meeting was a record-breaker, about 250 being present. The reports from the churches showed a decided increase in contributions to the beneficent objects. Over $70,000 was given to each of the causes of home and foreign missions. The reports from Davidson college and Union Theological seminary showed the largest number of students ever attending these institutions of the synod, and a substantial increase in the endowments of each. The seminary, which is at Richmond, is owned jointly by the synods of Virginia and North Carolina, and as this is the centennial year of this school of the prophets, arrangements have been made for the two synods to hold a joint meeting in Richmond next October to celebrate this event.

The synod decided to divide its territory, corresponding to that of the state, into ten presbyteries, instead of eight as at present. It is likely that the counties of Mitchell, Avery and Yancey, with the mountain country, lying east of them, will be set off to form a separate presbytery.
There is some talk of forming a new synod out of those parts of North Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee and Kentucky, lying in the mountains, to be called the "Synod of Appalachia."

BOARD OF TRADE WANTS WOOD WORKING FACTORY

Chances for It Seem Good—Committee Will Meet Bankers—Other Matters.

The board of trade met yesterday afternoon and transacted a goodly amount of business. One of the first and most important matters taken up was the movement to get another wood-working plant for the city and the chances for getting it seem good.

It was decided to have a committee appointed to meet and entertain the eastern bankers who will come through the city on November 26, returning from the national convention in New Orleans and President Plummer will name the committee. Badges will be provided for them.

The committee appointed recently to work out a more equitable form of taxation reported progress and its services were cautioned.

Instructions were issued to the committee on advertising to formulate plans for the winter campaign and several advertising matters were referred to it.

The co-operation of the board was assured the Asheville Poultry and Pet Stock association in making their December show a success.

After other routine matters had been attended to, the following new members were announced: Mrs. Katherine E. Hamilton, James A. Northam, R. C. Roberts, George S. Arthur, W. A. Nitzer, Mrs. P. U. Cassler and N. D. Shurman.

MANHATTAN OPERA CO. CLOSES ENGAGEMENT

"Fra Diavolo" Was the Last Production and Entertained a Good Sized Audience.

The Manhattan Opera company closed its engagement at the Auditorium last night with the presentation of "Fra Diavolo," the light and entertaining operetta that has always been popular in this city. The company last night gave a production of the play that would do credit to a much larger and higher priced organization and it was heartily enjoyed by a good sized audience. It was 11 o'clock when the curtain fell on the last act but the time seemed shorter to those who were so thoroughly enjoying the production.

MANY WOMEN RUN DOWN

Mrs. Ewton Tells Her Story, And Hopes Other Sufferers Will Do As Well.

Pine Bluff, Ark.—For nearly nine years," says Mrs. M. E. Ewton, of this city, "I had been almost down with womanly troubles, and, at times, I could scarcely be about at all or do anything.

I took different kinds of medicines without any benefit.

I had a pain in my side that it seemed impossible to relieve.

I used six bottles of Cardui, and now I feel like a different person. I am getting along fine. I can do any kind of work!

Cardui was the only thing that helped me. It is the best remedy I know for run down women. I hope other sufferers will take Cardui and be benefited as I have."

Do you suffer from some of the disagreeable symptoms of womanly trouble? Let Cardui help you back to health and strength, as it did Mrs. Ewton.

Cardui has a record of over 50 years successful use to recommend it. Composed of strictly vegetable ingredients, imported especially from Europe for use in this remedy, Cardui does good that stays good, without any ill effects.

As a remedy for women's ills, those who have tried Cardui say it has no equal.

Have you tried it? It may be just what you need. Ask your druggist.

N. B.—Write to Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

carried his part well and his rich baritone voice was at its best. He was enthusiastically endorsed several times. He was not the only favorite though, for Miss Nella Brown, Miss Mabel Day and Charles Killman came in for their share of the applause for their singing. The life of the show, however, was the acting of Charles Fulton and Charles Kelly as "Rip" and "Gleason," bandits, and comedians of quality. Their parts furnished a source of continuous laughter and they were forced to answer encores to some of their parts. It was really a good show and highly appreciated.

YUAN DESERTS THE DYNASTY

continued to be sold and their property was not touched. The time of his coming is not far off either. He will be here on November 22 and this city is one of two in this state that the troupe will visit. They are at Charlotte this afternoon and tonight and will not make their appearance anywhere else in the state except in Asheville on the evening-second. Other towns are bidding high for the attraction too, and since Asheville was successful it may be that "Ty" might have used some influence in having the show come here which is near the scenes of his childhood. No doubt he would like to see what this section is producing now, after giving to the country such a great ball player, and besides a man likes to come back around home after he has made a big success. It makes him feel better to have "home folks" brag about him than mere strangers.

against the massacres, however, were disregarded and even laughed at. The correspondents of the Associated Press worked throughout the day within the outer walls of the city eight miles from the telegraph station with which they communicated and which they were permitted access through the courtesy of the railway officials. Fires sprang up everywhere and a large section of the native city was burned.

Amoy, Nov. 11.—Attacks by robber bands have thrown the city into a panic. The water patrol today captured a piratical junk and its crew of 16 await decapitation. A new total assumed office today.

TYRUS COBB IS COMING WITH "COLLEGE WIDOW"

George W. Bailey, manager of the Auditorium, was a most agreeable visitor at The Gazette-News office this morning when he brought the glad tidings that the "College Widow" is coming to Asheville, and people here will be given an opportunity to see the greatest baseball player on earth, Tyrus Cobb, try his hand at being a college hero and the gentle wooer of the boarding house keeper's daughter.

Everybody knows "Ty's" reputation as a baseball player, his base running abilities and his famous batting eye, that wins automobiles and assists largely in winning pennants. His name is a household word and of course everybody will be pleased to hear of his coming, even when the fact is not considered that "Ty" is a native North Carolinian, born in Cherokee county, and used to be a winter neighbor of President Taft down in Augusta, his present home.

The time of his coming is not far off either. He will be here on November 22 and this city is one of two in this state that the troupe will visit. They are at Charlotte this afternoon and tonight and will not make their appearance anywhere else in the state except in Asheville on the evening-second.
