SAVAGE FISH

Peral Have Been Known to Tear an Alligator to Pieces.

The most savage and bloodthirsty fish in all the waters of the earth are the peral, declares Charles Livingston Bull in "Under the Hoop of the Jungle." They are from twelve to fourteen inches in length and look not unlike the northern bass, although more powerfully built. They have been known to attack an alligator, discover a rent in the skin of the great reptile and tear and devour him until nothing but his bones and rough skin was left.

The peral are silvery green in color. Their thick, muscular jaws are armed with rows of teeth like those of a crocodile saw, sharp and triangular and fitting exactly together. These jaws and teeth are most formidable, being able to cut to pieces anything less hard than the shell of a tortoise. The lower lobe of the tail is longer than the upper one and all the fin short, giving the impression, as do the thick, rounded body and head, of great strength.

It is fortunate that in all the length and breadth of northern South America these rapacious little murderers are found only in widely scattered localities. Thus one pool will harbor a great school of them, while for miles in either direction, up or down the same stream there may not be another individual.

Were it not for this peculiar localization the jungles would be nearly stripped of animal life, for beasts and birds and reptiles must drink, and while those of a few species can get all the water they need from the dew on the leaves in the morning, by far the greater number must come to the streams and pools. Even creatures like that master fisherman, the otter, must give the peral a wide berth, and no other fish can match the same waters.

They have been known to leap a foot out of water and hit a piece of a man's hand as he was stooping to dip up a drink.

EARL LYTON'S BAD TASTE.

A Dinner Speech That Called Forth Howls of Disdain.

I once sat at a banquet given in London by Wilson Barrett to Lawrence Barrett, says a writer in an English magazine. Earl Lyton presided, a curled, oiled, effeminate, supercilious fop. He had a Roman tragedy to sell to Wilson Barrett. That was why he came.

He enraptured Wilson Barrett in a speech. "I believe," he said, "that Mr. Barrett was some species with a piece called (consulting his notes) 'The Lights of London.' I suppose it was the work of some dramatic hack."

George Sims sat facing him and never said a word.

Then his lordship went drawing on: "I next find on the list of Mr. Barrett's successes something called 'The Silver King.' Here again I know nothing of the authorship. The names of those dramatic carpenters do not interest me." At which Henry Arthur Jones glared and a flush came into the face of poor blind Henry Herman.

"Finally," said Lord Lyton, "Mr. Wilson Barrett has placed on his boards what he humorously calls a Roman tragedy. I refer to 'Claudian,' attributed to one W. G. Wells, of whom I have never heard." This was too much for the banqueters. All of them were personally acquainted with Irving's poet, the modest Wells. So they howled derisively.

And Earl Lyton's tragedy, produced a month later, was a dismal failure.

About Your Initials.

What do your initials spell? Some people have had queer experiences. Names like Arthur S. Sullivan are unfortunate. George (Henry) Augustus Sala preferred to make himself, like George Adam Smith, into G.A.S. Gilbert A. Becket, of course, was just G.A.B. Whistler for awhile dropped his McNeill, fearing the possible ridicule of J.A.M. Whistler. Henry Rider Haggard becomes very dignified as H. R. H.; (Henry) Austin Dobson refuses to be H.A.D., removing his first name, and Miss de Novikoff, though no longer Olga Kireff, has become "O.K." forever—London Globe.

Cables of Human Hair.

In north Japan is an enormous heated temple, the timbers of which were hauled from the mountains and put in place with ropes made from the hair of the women of the province. From these tresses, which were brought forth by an idiot, two ropes were made, one seventeen inches in circumference and 1,400 feet in length, while the other was eleven inches in circumference and 2,600 feet long.

His Job.

"Signed up as yet?" inquired Actor York Haman.
"Not yet," responded Actor Hamlet Fall.
"Then how do you eat?"
"I'm a professional Bohemian at a Bohemian restaurant."—Pittsburg Post.

Covered.

The Artist—Just a little deaf of mine, you see, dear madam. Miss Gush (gushingly)—Oh, no, you are entirely too modest. I should call it quite a big deaf.—Pack.

The Voice of Experience.

Singleton—The woman I marry must be an ideal housekeeper. Wedely (with a sigh)—Take my tip, old man, and freeze on to a practical one.—Chicago News.

FREE IF IT FAILS

Your Money Back If You Are Not Satisfied With the Medicine We Recommend.

We are so positive that our remedy will permanently relieve constipation, no matter how chronic it may be, that we offer to furnish the medicine at our expense should it fail to produce satisfactory results.

It is worse than useless to attempt to cure constipation with cathartic drugs. Laxatives or cathartics do much harm. They cause a reaction, irritate and weaken the bowels and tend to make constipation more chronic. Besides, their use becomes a habit that is dangerous.

Constipation is caused by a weakness of the nerves and muscles of the large intestine or descending colon. To expect permanent relief you must therefore tone up and strengthen these organs and restore them to their normal activity.

We want you to try Rexall Orderlies on our recommendation. They are exceedingly pleasant to take, being eaten like candy, and are ideal for children, delicate persons, and old folks, as well as for the robust. They act directly on the nerves and muscles of the bowels. They are entirely free of any neutral action on other associate organs or glands. They do not purge, cause excessive looseness, nor create any inconvenience whatever. They may be taken at any time, day or night. They will positively relieve chronic or habitual constipation, if not of surgical variety, and the myriads of associate or dependent chronic ailments, if taken with regularity for a reasonable length of time. 12 tablets, 10 cents; 26 tablets, 25 cents; 50 tablets, 50 cents. Sold in Asheville only at our store—The Rexall Store, Smith's Drug Store, corner South Main Street and Pack Square.

Mrs. Howard A. Colby of Plainfield, N. J., is said to be the first woman to use colored photography in the Maine woods. She has photographed a pair of wild moose. They are the picture, showing the cow and bull moose and one of the bull alone.

The Lax-Fos Way.

If you had a medicine that would strengthen the liver, the stomach, the kidneys and the bowels, and at the same time make you strong with a systemic tonic, don't you believe you would soon be well? They are the Lax-Fos.

Remember the name—LAX-FOS.

In Australia are found the largest birds' nests in the world. They are built by the jungle fowl in great numbers, and their height averages about 12 feet. They are formed of twigs and sticks like other nests, but they weigh tons in extreme cases.

Only a woman can understand the prostrating effect of disorders in the female organism—the misery of hand and feet, the depressing influence on the mind. Many women who formerly suffered from these disorders owe their present health to DR. SIMMONS'S SQUAW VINE COMPOUND. It exercises a powerful restorative influence on the female generative system, builds up a strong body, restores healthy regularity and promotes cheerfulness and a clear, rose complexion. Price $1.00 per bottle. Sold by all druggists.

A GOOD FRONT IS ALL RIGHT.

A good front is a good thing. But remember the front only brings trade—it cannot keep it. An electric sign and well lighted windows will bring people in; but unless the store is well lighted, they will neither buy much, stay long, nor come again. Electricity your store inside as well as outside, and if the goods are good, business will be the same.

Music and Stockings

November 16 and 17, and don't forget the music feature of this announcement. I have about 500 dozen men, women and children's stockings (boys and girls thrown in), and am going to sell the larger part of them November 16 and 17, and want you here. There will be a good sized reduction on these goods but if it is stockings only that you want we can't do in truth what some of our friends who are having sales do; sell you goods at half and one-third the regular price, but the music will pay you.

Boys and girls need "Awful Tut" Hosiery. We have it for this sale—not as "tut" as it ought to be, but as "tut" can get them. The 12 1-2 sort at 10c, the 15c sort at 12 1-2c, the 20c sort at 15c, the 25c sort at 20c. That's all.

A variety of Ladies' Hosiery that we do not think can be excelled for the price we ask; though you may not agree with us, because the fellow that sells pitches his tune by the scale of profit and the fellow that buys pitches his tune down by the scale of his purse. In this lot we have plain and rib fleeced goods, small, medium and extra large size, plain black, as well as white feet, white and gray mixed. In this lot is the famous Burson make, positively without a seam anywhere, at 12 1-2c, 15c and 20c; extra fine at 25c.

Here Is My Music

Way out in our beautiful hills in Ellers Cove, at the head waters of Reems Creek, lives a man, his wife, and thirteen children; one of the happiest families I ever knew. I stayed all night in this home not long ago, and after supper the children gathered up some of the musical instruments. I was out on the porch and could only hear the song of the beautiful and solemn stillness of the mountains that towered far above the noise of progress below us, and the brook, we call it the "spring branch," that ran within six feet of the front door, would break in as it tumbled over rocks with the most beautiful chorus. I thought this is enough, when suddenly this little family broke in with some of the sweetest music the untrained ear ever heard. I have listened to Sousa's Band, Fields, Dockstaders, the National Marines, and that wonderful music in the Hippodrome, but no music like this, I thought ever touched my heart. And I planned then that they should bless others and will be in my store to mix music with stockings November 16 and 17, to give music while we sell stockings. And remember the only training they ever had was by their humble fireside. If you want to hear "My Carolina Hills" in all of its thrilling sweetness, come.

My stock of good fast black Hosiery was never more complete, and for misses and boys, you want that sort.

One of the best specials is a Gentlemen's Hosiery, gray mixed, part wool, half hose, for the unheard of price of 10c. A black and white foot of extra quality for 10c. A black with linen heel and toe, for 10c.
