AT GUFFEY'S The Only Dry Goods Store on the Square

JUDGE KNAPP'S SOCIALISTIC UTTERANCES CREATE STIR.

MARTIN AUGUSTINE KNAPP

Presiding Judge Martin A. Knapp, of the United States Court of Commerce, has created quite a stir in government and financial circles by declaring in Philadelphia recently that the only solution of the economic problem confronting the people of the United States was a general increase in the wages of all workers.

Judge Knapp's remarks stirred his audience, among whom were some prominent railroad heads, when he said that government ownership of the railroads might yet become the only alternative in the present railroad situation.

FOR TAKING STATE-WIDE ISSUE TO THE POLLS

Virginia Baptists' Resolutions Demand Question.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 21.—The feature of the final session of the general Baptist convention of Virginia yesterday was the adoption of a strong report by its temperance committee, calling upon the next legislature to pass an enabling act, such as will provide for an election on state-wide prohibition. Rev. E. J. Richardson, speaking to the report, declared that the people of Virginia will stand for no "monkey business" in this connection, and that something will explode if a state-wide election is not soon provided for. A social service commission was named to deal with and report on the divorce and liquor evils.

"The people next door seem anxious to be friendly."
"How did you get that idea?"
"They have busted their phonograph."
"Now, Bobby," said the mother angrily, "don't let me speak to you again."
"But," returned the naughty little fellow, "what can I do to prevent you, mamma."—Satin.

WILL ORDER NON-SUIT IN THE FOLSOM CASE

Appeal in Brazile vs. Carolina Barytes Company—Company promise in Bennett Case.

This morning in Superior court Judge Henry P. Lane announced that he would order a non-suit in the case of Folsom vs. Southern railway, in which the plaintiff is suing for $25,000 damages on account of injuries received while the plaintiff was in the employ of the defendant company in 1909. Notice of appeal was given by the plaintiff's counsel.

The case was taken up yesterday and the evidence was all heard then. Judge Lane stating that he would reserve his decision as to the motion for a non-suit until this morning. According to the testimony of Folsom he was knocked from an engine by a standpipe near Statesville, while fulfilling his duties as engineer; he was permanently injured and had been unable to engage in the same line of work, also the standpipe was dangerously close to the railroad track.

Judge Lane also signed an undertaking in appeal in the case of Brazile vs. Carolina Barytes company, on the part of the defendant company. The case was tried before Judge Lane in the Madison county court in October. The plaintiff was asking for damages for injuries and the verdict of the jury was in his favor.

This afternoon the court will hear the personal injury case of Pardue vs. Champion Fibre company. Yesterday afternoon a compromise was reached in the case of Bennett vs. Mountain City Distilling company and the plaintiff was given judgment for $426. The suit was for an account which the plaintiff claimed the defendant owed him.

BASKETBALL SCHEDULE OF ASHEVILLE Y.M.C.A.

A Splendid Team Is Promised and a Number of Games Arranged.

The local Y. M. C. A. basketball team promises to be as good, if not better, this season than ever before. There is some excellent material for a team to be found among the players who are trying out and the practice is going on at a rate that insures an aggregation that will know the game and will be in shape to play it. A number of games with out-of-town teams have already been arranged and others are being considered. The team will likewise go to several other towns for games, although the engagements with these have not all been made. Of interest among these will be games with the Charlotte and Spartanburg Y. M. C. A.'s.

The following is the schedule as it has been so far arranged for games here:

- December 1—Asheville Farm school.
- December 5—Wofford Pitting school.
- December 12—Asheville school.
- December 19—Y. M. C. A. of Spartanburg.
- During Christmas Week—Washing-ton and Lee university. (Two games.)
- January 23—Y. M. C. A. of Charlotte.
- January 24—Y. M. C. A. of Charlotte.
- February 22—Maryville college.
- February 23—University of Tennessee.

Ask Lower Melon Rates.

New York, Nov. 21.—Melon growers of Florida, Georgia, Alabama, North and South Carolina and northern commission men who handle their products appeared through attorneys before the interstate commerce commission here yesterday and asked for lower freight rates on 125 eastern railroads. The farmers declare that by rate discrimination the price of melons has been made unduly high everywhere west of Cincinnati and Buffalo.

Col. Shepperson Dead.

New York, Nov. 21.—Col. Alfred B. Shepperson, the widely known cotton statistician, is dead here from apoplexy. He was in his seventy-fifth year. He was born at Richmond and served as colonel in the Confederate army during the civil war.

MANY FINE PREMIUMS FOR THE POULTRY SHOW

Barred Rock Club Will Meet Here at Time of Show—Prospects Excellent.

Secretary Paul P. Brown of the Asheville Poultry and Pet Stock association has been notified that the North Carolina Barred Plymouth Rock club will meet here at the time the local poultry show is held, which will be December 12-15. In addition to this it has been announced that the Rhode Island Red Club of America, the national Single Comb Leghorn club and the national Partridge Wyandotte club will give four state cups, which will bring a number of prominent breeders here at that time. There are many indications which make it practically certain that the show will be a great success, in fact, Secretary Brown stated yesterday that he believed that it would be the biggest and most successful ever held by the association. Among many things which go to prove this, and not the least, is the interest manifested by those, other than the members, who have declared their willingness to help all they can.

Several special prizes and cups, besides those already mentioned, are to be given. Mrs. Connally Cox, will give a silver cup for the best pen of all varieties except Bantams; the Mustin-Robertson company offers $5 for the second pen. The four banks of the city offer silver cups to be given for the best cock, cockerel, hen and pullet. The association will give silver cups for the best pen of ducks and Asiatics. F. R. Hewitt offers $10 in gold for the largest exhibit by any one in the state and the association will give the same for entries from out of the state. Then there will be 12 silver cups for which any one can compete.

Besides the above, the premium list, which will be issued the last of the week, contains a long list of regular and special prizes, consisting of cash, poultry supplies and other merchandise.

The show comes just after the Morris and Spartanburg shows and many of the fanciers have signified their intention of shipping their birds direct to Asheville from these places. Numbers of letters are coming every day from all over this immediate territory asking for premium lists.
